PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT, VERSUSBenjamin Victor-sche K
and Herman Steigerwald

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself.

The reasons are as follows:

There is considerable doubt in the minds of our firm as to whether the defendants really did commit the crime charged. Neither of our firm had personal knowledge of the transaction. My office assistant professed to have some knowledge when the defendants were arrested and it was on information derived from such assistant that we mainly relied on the prosecution. Since the indictment of the Defendants, the said assistant has left our employ and we have been unable to find him or ascertain his whereabouts and have never seen him since so that this criminal action can under no circumstances be maintained.

 JOHN STANK.)

STATE OF NEW YORK)
 : S. S.
 COUNTY OF NEW YORK :

JOHN NELSON being duly sworn, deposes and says:
 I am anxious to clear my conscience of a matter that has rested heavily upon it for years past, and so far as I may to make good my own reputation for truthfulness, and to make such reparation as I can to one John Stank who has suffered punishment, through testimony of mine, given when I was in such a state of mind and body that I was incapable of realizing fully what I was saying nor of fully appreciating what might be the results of my sworn statement before the Police Magistrate.

As a consequence of such statement, this John Stank was sent to the Elmira Reformatory and held a prisoner there for about three years. I cannot make good to him the years he may have suffered unjustly, through my improper statement. All I can do, is to tell the true story of the occurrence that led to his disgrace and imprisonment, and so let his friends and the public judge whether he may not have been an innocent man at the time of his conviction.

On the ^{Evening} ~~afternoon~~ of November 30th 1892, two of my shipmates, Charles Anderson and Andrew Small and I, left the Dredge Machine "Jackson," on which we were employed, then lying off East Chester, ~~at~~ ^{via} the East River and took the ~~afternoon~~ ^{evening} train on the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad to the 42nd Street Station, New York City. On our arrival in the City, we went into a Saloon in the neighborhood and had ~~a~~ ^{some} drink; from there we went to another Saloon on 3rd Avenue and had a few more drinks. From there we took the Third Avenue Elevated Railroad, and got off at ~~Franklin~~ ^{Frankfort} Square, and had more drinks in a Saloon there. After that we went to a clothing store on the corner of South and Dover Streets, where I bought a leather jacket with a corduroy lining, for which I paid six dollars. The jacket was like one of many others of the same kind, and I put no mark upon it to distinguish it as my own. After buying this jacket, my shipmates and I walked to the corner of Park Row and Chambers Street where we had several more drinks and my friends left me, and I started alone to go down to Byard's lodging house in South Street. On my way there I was very dizzy from the gin I had been drinking, and either in Cherry or Water street, ~~from Roosevelt Street~~ ^{from Roosevelt Street}, I sat down on the tail of a truck, standing in the street, and fell asleep. While ~~lying~~ ^{sitting} there asleep, I was robbed by some person or persons, whom I did not know and whom I could not recognize in the dark and in my dazed and drunken condition. They took my leather jacket, watch and chain, a ring and money. How much money I was robbed of I am not sure. I stated to the Magistrate that it was thirty dollars. I must have been wrong in this, for I had only about $30 when I left East Chester that afternoon and of that sum I had spent six dollars for my jacket, and had paid for numerous drinks and cigars. So the money that was stolen must have been nearer $20 than $30.

0255

~~Evening~~

When I found I had been robbed I went to Byard's lodging house in South Street, where I passed the night.

Next morning, December 1st, I reported the robbery to a police officer. I had then only ~~seventy~~ seventy-five cents left, which I found in my left vest pocket. The officer took me to the Oak Street Police Station and from there I was taken by Police officer Hease to the Tombs Police Court. I was there shown a leather jacket, which had been found in the possession of this John Stank, a young fellow, eighteen years old, who had been arrested by the Police with the jacket. The officers asked me if it was my jacket, and I told them it was, but I never stated why I thought so, and there was no mark of mine on it to identify it from any other jacket of the same kind and make. The other things that had been taken from me, including money, were never found, as far as I know.

I was anxious not to press the charge against Stank, and asked the Judge to let him and me go free, after obtaining the jacket, I thought was mine, but the Judge refused, and said "I will take care of you and John Stank."

I was detained as a witness for some ten days, and as I have stated, Stank was finally convicted and sent to the Elmira Reformatory.

Another statement I made to the Judge, which was wrong, is this:-

I said that there were three men who knocked me down in South Street, and that in falling I struck my head against the flagstone. This was not so. The statement I have made above is the truth. I was asleep and drunk on the tail of the cart when I was robbed.

Another mistatement I made was that I was born 14th of March 1857 instead of ^{Frank} 13th, 1857, which latter is the correct date.

The Judge also asked me if I was drunk at the time of the robbery, and I answered "No." This was not the truth. I was very drunk at the time, as I have above stated. I made this wrong statement, because I was ashamed of myself for getting drunk and I had never been arrested before.

I further stated to the Judge that I was an engineer on the dredge "Jackson," whereas, I was in fact a fireman.

It may have been in Water Street that I was robbed, but I am not quite sure. I was too drunk at the time to know just where I was. Right in Basewet St

I was anxious to have John Stank go free, for he was only a boy and I took pity on him. I made efforts after his conviction to have him released, but without success.
