Louis M^c Lord

We visited N^o 61. Fourth Ave known as the Glass Barrel on Saturday Dec 25th 1886. at 10.³⁰ P.M. there is a room in the back off the Bar-room. in this room there is a Piano Table^s and Chairs. there is a man who I believe is employed by the owners of the place as a singer for the house. the songs that he sings are the most disgusting ones that was ever heard. he sang a song called Stella - the words that he used were Stella was seduced in a cellar. and how she blew off her lump. and how she sucked a man off and skinned it to get the cheese. he sang another one called the Photograph. he used the word cock and told how a woman stood on her head to have her picture taken. there was a young girl sat on a mans lap and she would place her hand on the mans privates and he would do the same. his two friends would put there hands under her clothes and feel her leg now and then. the owner of the place told her to go to a bed house. she told this man that she was in company with. that there was great high kicking done in this place. and he said that he was going to stay with her and touch her back bone. before morning. another man sang a song it was comic. he used the words she lost her maidenhead. and the mans shirt was covered with blood. the young man who is employed by the proprietors sang another song and used the words! such as this - that he could get a young girl a man without Balls. he also used the words Pick. and disease called the Pox - Lunt - &c. the women were seated at tables in company with men. drinking smoking and using such language as - go to hell - Jesus Christ. - God damn you - &c at 1.³⁰ a.m. Sunday Dec 26. '86 we bought two glasses of Ale from the waiter it being Sunday they were violating the Excise Law. at 1.⁴⁵ a.m. we bought two more glasses of Ale from the other waiter at 2.⁰⁰ a.m. we left the room where the singing was and went to the Barroom and there bought two glasses of Ale from the man behind the Bar - all this took place in presence of one of the proprietors
