vs.
Thomas Reilly.

{ Court of General Sessions, Part I.
Before Judge Cowing.

Thursday, February 16, 1888.

Indictment for assault in the first degree.

Charles Lake sworn and examined by Mr. Goff, testified: I am an officer of the municipal police in this city, I have been on the force about eight months and have been attached to the 19th precinct during that time; on the 7th of February I was at Seventh Avenue and 30th Street and saw the Defendant there, I was between 32nd and 33rd Streets coming from uptown on my post and I heard a cry of police, murder, once or twice, I ran almost immediately down to where I saw two parties scuffling between 29th and 30th Streets, I saw two men grab hold of one another, kind of pushing and shaking one another, I jumped between them and separated them, I says, what is the matter here? Thomas Reilly, the prisoner, said, "Officer it is all right, we are friends." I says, "if you are friends it is no way to show it, you had better go on home and mind your business and do not be raising a disturbance." He says, "we do not have to go home", I says "I shall take you to the Station House and lock you up; both of them at that time said, "we will go to the Station House with you", I says, "I will order you under arrest", I took each one under the arm and walked them to near 29th Street and at the corner of 30th Street Thomas Reilly threw his arm around a lamp-post and says, "I wont go to the Station House. I seen they had been drinking and anticipated trouble. I rapped on the pavement with my club for assistance and as I did so the prisoner made a grab and grabbed my club with both hands, he yanked it until he broke the strap that was around my hand and got possession of the club and in doing so he came down on my right hand with the club; of course my only way was to get away, I commenced backing up across the street and he followed me, I got out my pistol, he kept following me up I fired down towards the ground and he kept on following, I backed to the south and then backed across pretty near to the center of the street again, he following me all the time, this was the time that he hit me with the club on the side of the head and knocked me down, as soon as I could get my feet by that time assistance had come, Officer Ryan had come up, I said "catch that man," Officer Ryan went on, of course I was going to follow him but the door-man caught me, they thought I was shot and made me go to the Station House with them, I went to the Station House and they brought in the defendant. When I met Officer Ryan I was covered with blood, my wound was dressed at the Station House, they called an ambulance surgeon; the wound is healed over but it is quite sore yet. I was present at the Station House when the defendant was brought in and I made a charge against him there, he appeared to be under the influence of drink, I took him to be a little intoxicated; this was about two o'clock in the morning.

Cross Examined. I fired five shots, I was told that none of them hit the prisoner, I walked backwards when I fired, the prisoner following me; it is not more than eight months since I have been on the force. When I went down to where these men were the other man made no charge against the Defendant nor did the Defendant make any charge against him; I did not see any marks of violence upon the Defendant, they were clinched and shaking one another and I threw myself between them and parted them and asked, "what are you doing here." It is not true that when I came down to where those two men were that I said to them they were creating a disturbance and that then they called my attention to some colored people that were creating a disturbance; there was not a word of explanation by them, I ordered them to go home or I would lock them up. I saw the other man who was with the Defendant the next morning at Jefferson Market and he got ten days for disorderly conduct, he gave no assistance to the prisoner in the assault that he committed upon me; they were raising a disturbance on the street that time in the morning, I did not hit the other man over the eye with a club, I do not think he was cut, I have not seen him in Court, I did not strike the Defendant in the back with my club, I know nothing about a hole in his coat made by one of the bullets. I ordered the defendant under arrest.

William A. Ryan sworn. I am an officer of police and remember the 7th of February, I heard calls for assistance made by the sound of the club and I heard pistol shots, I was in 30th Street between Sixth and Seventh Avenues, I ran to where I heard them and I saw a crowd running towards 29th Street and Officer Lake was running, Reilly the Defendant was at the head of the crowd and he had a policeman's stick in his hand, he was running through 29th Street and 8th Avenue, I followed him and closed on him at 8th Avenue, he turned at me and said,

"you can't take me to the Station House"; I says, "I can," I drew my stick and knocked him down and he fought me and I fought him from 8th Avenue to the Station House what blows he received he received from me, I passed Officer Lake at 29th Street when I am after the prisoner, he was bleeding from his head and I thought he was shot, Lake was ahead of me at the Station House, they were washing the blood off his head. I knew nothing of this affair until I heard the pistol shot, I found no pistol with the prisoner I got the club out of his hand and he said to me, "I will get square with you, you son of a bitch." I have been on the force four years.

Thomas Reilly sworn and examined in his own behalf, testified: I am a coach driver for Mr. Thorn, 105 and 107 West 31st Street, I have been in his employ I guess ten years, I was arrested once before for knocking a party down on the street with my horse and carriage, I am married and have children but my wife is dead, I support my family, my employer is in Court. On the night in question I was going home, I left the stable about a quarter to twelve o'clock and near the corner of Sixth Avenue and 31st Street I met a friend and we had two games of billiards, I think it was then twenty minutes after twelve we came out and had something to eat in a restaurant, I walked down to the corner of 29th Street and 7th Avenue and on the opposite corner there was a lot of colored people, men and women shouting and fighting, I stood on the corner looking on for a few minutes and a man who was a stranger to me said, "that is quite a settoo with the coons." I says, yes, and never said another word to the man until I saw this officer coming down 7th Avenue. He asked us what we were disturbing the peace for at that hour of the morning? I said, "we are not violating the peace anyway." He says, "get off this corner or I will lock you up", at the same time drawing the club and hitting me. I says, "don't abuse me for I will go to the Station House as I think I have committed no crime." On going to the corner of 31st Street this other man stood back and Officer Lake drew his club and hit him across the eye and split it, he drew the stick to hit me at the same time, I caught the stick and wrenched it out of his hand and it dropped on the sidewalk and by the time he picked it up he drew his revolver and fired one shot, I tried to get away from him but he held me by the collar with one hand and I kept pushing against him when he fired the second shot and then I hit him with the stick on the arm and got away from him. I ran away across the avenue down 29th Street towards 8th Ave. when Officer Ryan came after me. I live in 228 West 28th Street and was going home. When I got to the Station House three officers came at me with their night sticks and made a terrible attempt to abuse me and one of them hit me a punch in the eye with the stick. I did not follow Officer Lake but tried to get away from him.

Cross Examined. This was about five or six years ago when I ran over a person with my carriage, I never saw the officer before this night, I have not drank anything since the 2nd of January, I was walking along peaceably when the officer turned and struck me with the club. My wife is dead two or three years, she died in 19th Street, there was some trouble after her death, they accused me of killing her, I went and gave myself up, I was tried on that charge, I was in prison five months awaiting trial.

Redirect Examination. I was tried and honorably acquitted of that charge. On the night of this occurrence I did not resist the officer. It was the sister of my wife made this charge against me, I never had any trouble with her, we always lived happily together.

Walter P. Thorne sworn. I am a livery stable keeper at 105 & 107 West 31st Street and have been in business twenty-seven years. I know the defendant and he has been in my employ off and on six or seven years, I appreciated his services very much and his character for peace and quietness was good, I never saw him under the influence of liquor and never heard him quarrel or fight with anybody, I know other people who know him and they speak well of him as to peace and quietness. I heard that he was accused of the murder of his wife and that he was honorably acquitted, I saw him on the night of this alleged assault about half past eleven, I was in my office and called in the foreman and handed him the wages for the stable hands, the defendant got his weeks wages and he was sober.

Dennis Mooney sworn. I know the defendant fifteen years and his reputation for peace is good, I heard of the little family trouble and did not believe it either.

POOR QUALITY

0028

Henry Kirwan sworn. I am a stable man for Mr. Thorne and have known the defendant since three weeks before Christmas, I saw him the night of this affair and he was sober at a quarter to twelve and as far as I know his character for peace and quietness is good.

Mary Ann Jackson sworn. I live at 228 West 28th Street, the defendant hired a room from me for six months and his reputation for peace and quietness is good.

Patrick Donnelly sworn. I know the defendant for three or four years and his reputation for peace and quietness is good, I am in the liquor business I have seen him drink occasionally but have never seen him under the influence of liquor.

The Jury rendered a verdict of guilty of assault in the second degree.

Testimony in the case of Thomas Reilly
filed Feb. 1888.

N. Y. General Sessions Court

The People
vs
Thomas Reilly.

City and County of New York, s. s.:-

Thomas Reilly, being duly sworn, deposes and says that he is the above named defendant. That he would respectfully submit to your Honor this affidavit in regard to the death of his wife.

That deponent was married to his late wife in the Fall of 1872, and always worked hard to support and maintain her. That he never struck or abused his wife in any manner, shape or form. On account of his small wages and lack of means, deponent was obliged to live in tenement houses, where his wife became associated with neighbors who led her in the habit of drinking.

That on the night of her death, deponent, after finishing his work as hack-driver, returned home about 2 A.M. He was then employed by Ryerson & Brown. He found his wife under the influence of liquor. He retired to bed, and in the morning, at 6.30 A.M. when he arose to go to his work, he went to wake her to get his breakfast, and found she was dead. He immediately called the neighbors in the adjoining apartments, and then went for his wife's sister, then to his family doctor, Dr.

Ranney, 317 W. 24th Street. He was informed by some of the neighbors that he should notify the police. One of the neighbors was a Mr. Gaffney, who resided on the floor below deponent. Deponent went to the Station house on 30th Street, 29th Street, now 19th and notified the Sergeant in command, who sent an officer back to the house with deponent. On examining the body, there was a contusion on the eye, and deponent was held until an investigation could be made.
Deputy Coroner Jenkins made the autopsy. The cause of death was internal hemorrhage of the brain.
After being confined five months, deponent was tried before Judge Brady, in Oyer and Terminer and was acquitted.

Deponent solemnly swears that he never inflicted any injuries on his wife and did all in his power to induce his wife to give up her drinking habits. That she must have got up in the night for something and fell and struck her head against some object.
Deponent was never a drinking man himself, but of a cold night, when almost exhausted by exposure in his business as coachman, he would sometimes take a glass of liquor, and would sometimes take a glass of ale or beer with his meals.
But on January 2nd, 1888, having seen the evil effects of liquor in his own and other families, he gave up its use entirely, and since that time has

POOR QUALITY
ORIGINAL

0032

not tasted a drop of liquor of any kind.

Wherefore deponent prays that your Honor will exercise clemency, and not inflict on deponent the full penalty of the law, as deponent is anxious to build up a home for his three little children as the reparation of his sentence. These facts can all be corroborated on investigation.

To

Hon. Rufus B. Cowing:-

We, whose affidavits are herewith annexed, would respectfully petition your Honor to exercise leniency and clemency towards the above named defendant, Thomas Reilly, who has been convicted of assault in the second degree.

Knowing that your Honor will not hesitate to use clemency in a proper case, we, who have all been personally acquainted with said defendant, the more confidently ask for its exercise herein.

We have known him for many years, and have always found him to be an honest, sober and hard-working man, who is striving hard to bring up properly his three little children.

The statements made in our affidavits can easily be verified upon investigation.

We feel confident any clemency

Walter T. Thorne, being duly sworn, deposes and says that he is a livery stable keeper, with stable at No. 105 West 31st Street, and No. 6 West 35th Street, New York City. That he has been engaged in said business for the last twenty-seven years.

That he knows the defendant, Thomas Reilly, said Reilly having been in deponent's employ for seven years, during all of which time defendant was quiet, peaceable and sober, and had the entire confidence of deponent. That deponent's customers, some of whom are among the best families in New York, preferred said Reilly as a coachman, on account of his quiet, civil and respectable manner.

That during deponent's twenty seven years in business as aforesaid, no employee of his was ever before charged with any crime.
