N. Y. Court of General Sessions.

The People
vs
Bernard Carney.

City and County of New York. s. s.

Bernard Carney, being duly sworn, says that he is the above named defendant. That deponent was married to his wife Margaret Carney on or about the 25th of January, 1874, and lived with his said wife till the time hereinafter mentioned. That in the year 1879 deponent was informed that his said wife was familiar and intimate with other men, but deponent desiring to avoid any publicity in the matter kept the matter quiet. That in the year 1881, on or about the month of ~~September~~ deponent discovered a man in a room with his wife both acting in such a manner at the time as led deponent to believe that his said wife was intimate with said person. That deponent thereupon left his wife. That in the month of December, 1881, deponent was sent to State Prison, and remained there until his discharge on or about the 23rd of August, 1884. That during his said imprisonment there he was informed by several persons that his said wife was having illicit intercourse with one Lynch, a bartender in the employ of one Kay, who keeps a liquor saloon corner 14th Street and Avenue B. N.Y. City, and deponent is also informed now that his said wife still continues her intimacy with the said Lynch. That deponent is unable to get the affidavits of people knowing the character of his said wife for the reason that they are afraid to interfere.

Deponent further says that a few days after his release from State Prison he went to work at his trade as a plumber, and worked steadily until his arrest herein. That during said time he was employed by Thomas E. Tripler and by Charles Heckman, whose affidavits are ~~are~~ ^{is} hereto annexed, and also worked for other people.

Deponent further says that since his said release from the Prison he kept away from his wife for the reason that he knew that she was trying to get him in trouble. That his said wife stated to one Charles Siebert that she was bound to get deponent in trouble so that she could get him out of the way. That deponent is unable to get the affidavit of said Siebert ^{for the reason} that deponent's wife is now stopping with said Siebert's family, and was stopping there not long ago.

That deponent after he was through with his work, and after taking his meal in the evening would visit his brother-in-law James A. Monohan most every evening, and remain there until about 10 or 10.30 o'clock P.M. and generally when deponent did not remain so long, or left earlier, his said brother-in-law would accompany him, so that deponent's said wife could have no opportunity to get into a row with deponent.

Deponent further says that on the evening of the 18th of June 1880, the time he assaulted his said wife, deponent left his home No. 612 E 15th Street, and walked to Avenue B and 15th Street where deponent's wife followed him. Deponent then and there spoke to his said wife. She thereupon threw deponent's hat off his head, and commenced to call him all sorts of vile and bad names. Deponent then walked on and his said wife followed him to 16th Street and Avenue B, continuing her abuse, and loudly calling deponent vile names, whereupon a crowd gathered. That she continued to abuse deponent so much that deponent lost control of himself, and in the heat of passion committed the assault on his said wife, which deponent solemnly swears would not have occurred had not his said wife abused him in the manner herein mentioned.

Deponent further says that since his discharge from State Prison he was leading a good life, and was getting along well in his business, and expected to open business this fall in his own name.

Deponent verily believes that his said wife has ever since his said discharge from Prison tried to get him in trouble so that she could have him sent away, and then his said wife would continue her intimacy with said Lynch.

Deponent further says that certain letters have been written to the District Attorney concerning deponent, purporting to be written by people in the neighborhood where deponent resides, and charging this deponent with having a bad character, and deponent charges that if such letters were written they were sent by this man Lynch, and did not come from the persons whose names are signed thereto.

Deponent asks this Court to consider the facts herein presented, and to do justice accordingly to deponent.

Deponent further says that it is true, as stated in the affidavit of the defendant herein, that he, defendant, visited deponent and his family since his release from State Prison most every evening, and would leave there about 10 or 10.30 P.M. to go home, except that on some occasions he would not remain so long. That deponent for a long time did accompany said defendant when he went out as above stated. That deponent knows that said defendant since August 1884 has worked steadily, and has led a good life. That deponent since August, 1884, has not seen said defendant intoxicated.
