John Katherlen being duly sworn says that he stands convicted of the crime of petit larceny on his own confessions.

That up to the time of his arrest for the crime of which he stands convicted, he was never charged with crime of any kind. That during the years 1885 and ^{the early part of} 1886 he worked for the firm of Deveau and Major on the Steamer Captain Jones plying between New York and on leaving that firm received the recommendation which is hereto annexed. That during the summer season of 1886 he worked for Mr. D. Luckhardt at the Eagle Hotel New Rochelle and on leaving he received the recommendation which is hereto annexed.

That in the early part of the year 1887 he went to work for Mr. George R. Smith Cashier of the Knickerbocker Ice Company as gardener, at his residence in Yonkers and on leaving said position received the recommendation which is hereto annexed.

That on his recent coming to New York he went to work for Mr. Cowpethwait and remained in his employ until the time of his arrest.

Deponent further says that he is truly repentant for the wrong he has been guilty of
and were restitution necessary deponent would cheerfully make such restitution but that is rendered unnecessary by the fact that the owners have recovered their property.

Dear Sir!

1633 Madison Ave.
Jan 31st 1890

My attention has been called to a case, which I believe will need your judicial clemency; the facts are, as I am informed, that some 2 years ago, one, George Walker was arrested for helping others to steal a watch, he was then a boy of fifteen, and was sentenced by you to the house of refuge,
where he was refused admission

POOR QUALITY

Somehow he was brought back to the temple, where he has since been, and probable will be, untill some action is taken for his release.

My object in writing this letter is, that I wish your Honors would look into this case, and if possible release
this boy, or if not commit him to some institution, where he can in due course of time receive his discharge; I have been to see him in the temple, and he informs me that he has a stepmother
with many small children,
of course he is not wanted

there; if he is discharged
I myself will look after his welfare, and see that he does not get into more trouble.

I for myself don't believe the boy was stealing, only came to see what was the matter.
The thieves ran, and he stood there like a fool: and those 2 years in the tombs, was a severe punishment for so young a boy.

Hoping that I will, here
from you, or let me know about it

Indictment filed January 11th, 1888.

New York, January 18th 1888.

APPEARANCES: For the People; Assistant District Attorney James Fitzgerald.

For the defendant; Robert Livingston.

Christopher T. White, a witness for the People testified:

I am a machinist and tool maker and live at No. 52 White Street. On the night of the 4th of January this year about 8 o'clock I was on my way home from work I had $3.65 in my pocket, and a Grand Army Badge on my coat and a gold ring. I was walking along Market Street right near the corner and the first thing I knew somebody came behind me and took hold of me by the neck and another man grabbed my arms and another one went through my pockets. He took the money $3.65.

~~Q While you were held by the two men. Yes sir.~~

Q While you were held by the two men this boy came and put his hands into your pockets and went through you and took $3.65 and the Grand Army Badge? A. Yes sir.

As soon as I was released I hollered for Police and in answer to my cries and officer came and caught the defendant and brought him back to me and I identified him as the person who put his hands in my pockets. I am sure this is the boy who did as I have described.

I am sure this is the boy who did as I have described.

Cross Examination.

I never expressed any doubt about this being the boy. I am sure of it. I was sober on this night. The boy was arrested while he was running.

Charles McCann, a witness for the People testified:-

I am an officer of Police attached to the 7th Precinct. On the 4th of January I heard cries of Police about ten minutes before eight o'clock and in answer to those cries I went up Market Street and saw three men running towards me. The defendant was one of the three I grabbed this defendant and asked him what was the matter and he said; "I aint done nothing". I brought him up this complainant and he identified him as the boy who had gone through his pockets.

Cross Examination.

There were three men running. He was the nearest one to me and I grabbed him..

D E F E N S E .

George Walker, the defendant testified:-

Q You heard the statement of the complainant is that true? A. No sir.

Q Go on and tell your story of the occurrence?

A I was standing on the corner of Market and Henry Street and I seen a lot of boys running and I didn't know what was the matter and I ran too. As I was running a Policeman jumped out and grabbed me and brought me up to this man and the man says: "That's the boy that robbed me". In the Essex Market Police Court the next day the man said he didn't know me. That is all I know about it and I am not guilty .

Cross Examination.

I was not working at the time of my arrest. I live home at No. 2250 Second Avenue. I have been away from home about a month and a half and have been living in a lodging house. I have been arrested before for robbery but I got out of it. I was sent to the House of Refuge for Larceny once.

The JURY returned a verdict of "Guilty of Robbery in the First Degree".

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK,

against

Nora Walters

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this Indictment, accuse

Nora Walters

(Section 322, Penal Code.)

of the CRIME OF KEEPING AND MAINTAINING A COMMON BAWDY HOUSE AND HOUSE OF ILL FAME, committed as follows:

The said Nora Walters

late of the 12th Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the tenth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven and on divers other days and times as well before as afterwards, to the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, a certain common bawdy house and house of ill fame, unlawfully and wickedly did keep and maintain; and in the said house divers evil-disposed persons, as well men as women, and common prostitutes, on the days and times aforesaid, as well in the night as in the day, there unlawfully and wickedly did receive and entertain; and in which said house the said evil-disposed persons and common prostitutes, by the consent and procurement of the said

Nora Walters

on the days and times aforesaid, there did commit whoredom and fornication; whereby divers unlawful assemblies, disturbances and lewd offences on the days and times aforesaid, as well in the night as in the day, were there committed and perpetrated; to the great damage and common nuisance of all the good people of the said State there inhabiting and residing, in manifest destruction and subversion of, and against good morals and good manners, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT.—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

Nora Walters

(Section 885, Penal Code.)

of the CRIME OF MAINTAINING A PUBLIC NUISANCE, committed as follows:

The said Nora Walters

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the tenth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven and on divers other days and times between the said day and the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, unlawfully did keep and maintain a certain common, ill governed house, and in her said house, for her own lucre and gain, certain persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, as well men as women, of evil name and fame and dishonest conversation, to frequent and come together then and on said other days and times, there unlawfully and wilfully did cause and procure, and the said men and women in said house, at unlawful times, as well in the night as in the day, then and on said other days and times there to be and remain, tippling, drinking, gaming, cursing, swearing, quarreling, making great noises and otherwise misbehaving themselves, unlawfully and wilfully did permit and suffer, to the great annoyance, injury and danger of the comfort and repose of a great number of persons, good citizens of our said State there residing, and passing and repassing, to the common nuisance of the said citizens, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

THIRD COUNT.—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

Aora Walters

(Section 822,
Penal Code.)

of the CRIME OF KEEPING A DISORDERLY HOUSE, committed as follows:

The said

Aora Walters

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the tenth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven and on divers other days and times between the said day and the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, unlawfully did keep a certain ill-governed and disorderly house, the same being a place of public resort, and in the said house and place of public resort, for her own lucre and gain, certain persons, as well men as women, of evil name and fame, and of dishonest conversation, to frequent and come together, then and on the said other days and times, there unlawfully and wilfully did cause and procure, and the said men and women, in her said house, at unlawful times, as well in the night as in the day, then and on the said other days and times, there to be and remain, drinking, tippling, gambling, rioting, disturbing the peace, whoring and misbehaving themselves, unlawfully and wilfully, did permit, and yet continues to permit, by reason whereof the peace, comfort and decency of the neighborhood around and about the said house were, and yet are, habitually disturbed, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

(3)

Q No Sir, I never took or stole any of his property, on Tuesday, one of the Defendants asked me if I would take the jewelry, the Necklace, chain, and studs, in the pawn shop and pawn them for him. I did not ask him where he got it.

2 (Court) Did you not think it strange that he should have that sort of jewelry?

Q No Sir. He asked me to go in and pawn it as he did not want to go in.

Q What is your business?
A I work in a lumber yard and drive a cart before that I worked at McLaughlin on I was a waiter for about nine years. I did not enter that

(H)

Q That house (Mr. Coats) I did not take his property
Q Did you see it before?
I did see it, it was given to me by a man named "Ben", I have not seen "Ben"
since then he is a waiter on Madison Ave and 23 St. I knew he got it out of the house somewhere
Q Did you see watching for Ben?

Q Yes Sir.
Q Were these other defendants present?

Q Not one of them.
Q Do you know why "Ben"
went in Mr. Coats house?
Q No, he told me to stay till he came out, he went in the Basement door.

Q Did you remained outside till he came out and gave you the property?

Q Yes Sir, I do not know what he went in for, I thought something was wrong, he said he was going to give me something.
I never was arrested but for
