OF NEW YORK, ssof No. 350 Broadway Street, 32 Years Doorkeeper being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 24 day of February 1882at the _____ City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent from said premises in the daytime the following property, viz:A roll of colored silk containing 107 yards and of the value of about seventy dollars the property of

Edward J. Jeffray & his Copartners doing business at 350 Broadway and in deponent's charge as doorkeeper and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Henry Smith now presentfrom the fact that deponent saw him in a room of said premises and when speaking to him noticed a bulge inside his coat. That after he left deponent, and had gone a few steps deponent saw him take the property from beneath his coat where it was concealed while he was speaking to deponent and place it upon a pile of goods which were covered with unbleached cotton, & which were close to him as he was going towards the door

The People vs. William Dinnien } Court of General Sessions. Part I.
 Jointly indicted with Frank Furheim and Wm. Lapin } Before Recorder Smyth Nov. 28. 1883 for burglary in the third degree.

John Volz sworn. On the 3<sup>d</sup> of this month I kept a Butcher store at 1449 Second Ave. There was one of the windows of that store which was fastened by an iron screen; it was put on Friday night and is  $2\frac{1}{2}$  or 3 feet long; it was fastened with a tennenny nail; one of the window panes was cracked and the rest was whole. I left the doors and everything secure. I had over five hundred dollars worth of meat in the store that night and five dollars worth of it was missing. It was paid for, but I had to replace it. It was in my custody and charge. I was woken up by an officer on Sunday morning at one o'clock and he told me there were burglars there. He showed me the condition of the window and the screen was off. The pane of glass that was cracked was all broke. The officer told me to look if anything was missing. I looked and found five dollars worth of meat was taken. The meat was close by the window. The screen itself was not broken, but the part where it was set in was broken out.

Owen Beagan sworn. I am a member of the police force; on the night of the 3<sup>d</sup> of Nov. 1449 Second Ave. was on my beat. I saw the prisoner about 20 minutes of one on the Second Ave. between 75th and 76th sts No 1449 is in the middle of the block. I saw these four young men at this window. I stood on the corner of Seventy Sixth St. a few doors away from them. I watched them. I heard the glass break and I got down two doors away from them and I saw Lapin, Arheim and Dinneen at this window. I saw Lapin and Arheim have Dinneen half way in the window I think it was Lapin saw me come along and he pulled Dinneen out and ran; they saw me and ran. I caught Dinneen and officer Collins caught Arheim; then officer Ballister came up from First Avenue. Having ~~apprehended~~ Lapin got away and I caught him four nights afterwards in Seventy Fifth St. and arrested him. I knew these men before I used to see them around there I knew them. How was that window broke? The screen was pulled off; the screen is about ~~five~~ feet long; There is four screws. The prisoner's head was in the window and his two legs were out. I chased Dinneen to the corner of Seventy Sixth St. running. I went down to the Station House and told the Sergeant about it. He says, "you had better go back there and see what it is. I notified the complainant and found out what was gone. Cross Examined. I was going down the Second Avenue and I saw the four at the window. I was about four doors away from them. about 75 feet away on the same side of the way. It was a bright moon light night. I could distinguish them. They were opposite a gas light so that I could not be mistaken. I chased Dinneen to the corner. I got him about fifty feet from the corner; the store is pretty near in the middle of the block. It is not true that I arrested the prisoner as he was coming out of a drinking saloon two doors from that place. I did not see him coming out of that saloon. I did not chase him into a saloon at all. I chased him and never lost sight of him from the time he got out of the window till I arrested him. I am sure of that. There was Lapin, Anheim and Dinneen. If I said there was four it was a mistake.

Owen McLaughlin, sworn and examined for the defence testified. I live at 1443 Second Ave. I am a carpenter. I recollect the night this prisoner was arrested. I could not say whether it was the officer who was here arrested him or not. It was probably one o'clock. I would not be sure of the time. I did not pay much attention to it. I brought a dozen or more of young men from a political meeting into a saloon on Second Avenue. I think it is 1457, anyhow in the block where this happened. I brought them in to have a drink. I seen Dinneen there. Although I knew there was such a man in existence, I never knewed him by sight. Because he was a little drunk at the time. I asked his name and they told me his name was Wm Dinneen. He sat in the store drinking for some time and the proprietor of the store thought it was time to get them out. I suppose there was ten or twelve left the store and Young Dinneen was among them. He was helped out by another man and it seems he fell in the hall. He returned in probably two or three minutes through the hallway. He opened the side door and came in and sat at the table and laid his head down at the table and did not have anything to say to any one. After that transaction a young man came in and told me a man was arrested and wanted to see me outside. That was probably seven or eight minutes after. I went outside and discovered a fellow arrested by an officer and the butcher's window was broken. So at that time the party that was in the store and was with me went out. Dinneen was one of the party who went out of the store and the officer who held the prisoner says to another officer, "Take that man in; he belongs to the gang." (meaning Dinneen). They arrested Dinneen and I advised Dinneen and the other young man to walk down peaceably with the policeman. That is all I know about the case.

Cross Examined. I never knew Dinneen by sight. I was on a political mission that night I was going home with the young men. I do not think Dinneen was with us, I am sure. Are those others the persons who were arrested along with him? No sir, I do not think so. Dinneen was in the saloon the time I entered; he was intoxicated. I do not think he drank with the others. I think he had a glass of beer, but I am not positive. I paid the bill for the drinks. All hands were ordered out of the store for the woman was going to close up. This was ten minutes after I treated them. I think the young man who took Dinneen out first was either him or Menheimer. There was six or eight went out of the store at that time: I do not know whether Lapin went out or not. I do not know him. When Dinneen went out I lost sight of him for two or three minutes. I remained in the store. I went out when somebody came in and told me a man who was arrested outside wanted to see me. The prisoner was in the store when I started to go out; he came back around the hall door, he was about two or three minutes out when he came in again; he followed me out and all the rest of the people in the store came out to see what the trouble was. I noticed Dinneen because I heard one officer say to another to arrest him, that he was one of the gang: or words to that effect. That was after he got out. Probably there was a dozen people in the store when I first went in. I could not help noticing Dinneen when he came back; he was tight; he laid his head on the table with his arm that way, (showing) there is a coal box between the butcher's window and the lager beer saloon. It was Arnsheim who was under arrest; the officer had him by the butcher's door and the coal boy. There was no other man under arrest that I know of. I advised the two young men to go because I judged in my heart that this man (Dinneen) was an innocent man. I could not say how many men were around the officer who had the prisoner under arrest. There were probably six or seven; there was about that many on the sidewalk. I am very sure that the officer said, "Take him in; he belongs to the gang." He was standing between the butcher's shop and the saloon. I got a subpoena to come here. I am losing my time I have talked to people. I told them the same as I am telling the Court now. I have told them what I knew about the case the butcher and myself talked about it; that is all I remember. I might have said something to his mother about it. I could not state the time. The most of the time I talked to her was in the Court; she came to my house with a subpoena and talked to me there. I have spoken to the counsel for the defence. I believe

I saw him three times. I think I talked to the prisoner's mother two or three times. I am a carpenter and I am working for the Park department two or three years. I always took a delight in politics. When I was introduced to Dinneen he shook hands with me and then he fell against the chain. Dinneen could not leave the store without my seeing him. I swear positively that he did not leave the store during that twenty minutes.

John Volz recalled by Counsel for the defence. There is a grocery store between the saloon and my shop. I had an awning there and it was down - I mean it was spread and the awning of the grocery store was also down. The gas light is right opposite the grocery store. The awning did not prevent the light from shining on the faces of men. The awning was about three feet wide; it did not cover the whole of the sidewalk.

Owen Beagan recalled by Mr. Requier. I used to see the prisoner once in a while before I arrested him. I knew him by sight since I have been on the post about five months. I don't remember having seen McLaughlin there. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.
