CITY AND COUNTY)

Court of General Sessions of the Peace of the City and County of New York.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York by this indictment accuse committed as follows:

The said

Joseph Henry

late of the First Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York, aforesaid on the ninth February day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy eighty two, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, on the day and year last aforesaid, with intent feloniously to cheat and defraud one to Goodrich

C. C. Godfrey Secretary

did then and there feloniously, unlawfully, knowingly, and designedly, falsely pretend and represent to Raymonne Barker her and her husb the Clerk and Salesman of the Said C. Godfrey Juniors

That a certain instrument in writing in the words and figures following, to-wit:

New York Feb 25th 1882

Union National Bank
Pay to the order of C. J. Smith's Sons One Hundred & eighty-eight ⁰⁰/₁₀₀ Dollars 1880 ¹⁰⁰/₁₀₀ J. H. Leach which he gave and there presented to said bank with the paid Raymond Barker was a good and valid security and only for the payment of money of the value before mentioned and eighty-eight dollars that he the said Joseph H. Levy then had an account with the National Bank in the City of New York and a credit in the said Bank for the amount of one hundred and eighty-eight dollars, and that the said bank indorses and there indorsed to him, the said Joseph H. Levy, to the amount of one hundred and eighty-eight ^{dollars} and that the said Sam was then in said bank subject to his order, and would be paid by said bank upon checks signed by him the said Joseph H. Levy and that the said instrument in writing, so presented and delivered as aforesaid by the said Joseph H. Levy to the said Raymond Barker, and when the then authorized that his own proper name and signature was such check drawn by him against the said credit in the said Bank and that the same was a good and valid bank check of the value of one hundred and eighty-eight dollars.

And the said

Raymond Baker

then and there believing the said false pretences and representations so made as aforesaid by the said

Joseph H. Levy

and being deceived thereby, was induced, by reason of the false pretences and representations so made as aforesaid, to deliver, and did then and there deliver to the said

Joseph H. Levy

one cloak of the value of one hundred and eighty-eight dollars of the proper moneys, valuable things, goods, chattels, personal property and effects of the said

Godfrey Junther

and the said

did then and there designedly receive and obtain the said cloak

of the said

Raymond Baker

of the said

Godfrey Junther

of the false pretences and representations aforesaid, and with intent feloniously to cheat and defraud the said

Godfrey Junther

by means of the same.

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said Joseph H. Levy did not have an account with the said Union National Bank or any credit with the said bank into the amount of one hundred and eighty-eight dollars, and the said bank was not then and there indebted to him to the amount of one hundred and eighty-eight dollars, and no other sum of money in said bank, subject to his order which would be paid by said bank upon checks signed by the said Joseph H. Levy anywhere in this and in fact the said instrument in writing represented and delivered by the said Joseph H. Levy to the said Raymond Baker was not a good and valid security or order for the payment of money of the value of one hundred and eighty-eight dollars or any other sum, and was not a good and valid check of the value of one hundred and eighty-eight dollars or any other sum, but was then and there wholly worthless.

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the pretences and representations so made as aforesaid, by the said Joseph H. Levy to the said Raymond Baker was and were in all respects utterly false and untrue, to wit, on the day and year last aforesaid, at the Ward, City, and County aforesaid.

And Whereas, in fact and in truth the said Joseph H. Levy well knew the said pretences and representations so by him made as aforesaid to the said Raymond Baker to be utterly false and untrue at the time of making the same.

And so the Jurors aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, do say, that the said Joseph H. Levy by means of the false pretences and representations aforesaid, on the day and year last aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, feloniously, unlawfully, falsely, knowingly and designedly, did receive and obtain from the said Raymond Baker one check of the value of one hundred and eighty-eight dollars of the proper moneys, valuable things, goods, chattels, personal property, and effects of the said C. Godfrey Smith with intent feloniously to cheat and defraud him of the same, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

Henry Seldner being duly sworn says: that he is an Attorney and Counsellor at Law, doing business at No. 115 Nassau Street, in the City of New York. That he has had an acquaintance with Joseph H.
 Levey, for some time last past, and that he has had some business transactions with him. That defendant has ever found him to be a gentleman to all appearances, and never found reason to criticize any of his acts.
 That defendant verily believes that the said Levey has been very sorely depressed, on account of the death of his wife, and that his addiction to liquor, has been the cause of his reprehensible acts. That the said Levey is not naturally bad, and that the cause of society will not be prejudiced, by an extension to him of the merciful consideration of the Court. That defendant believes that the said Levey will leave the State, if released, and will again become a worthy member of society.

Edward M. Gill being duly sworn says he is editor and proprietor of the District Court Record of the City of New York. That he has known Joseph H. Levey for twelve years past to be a reputable man in good standing in society - that some eight years ago the wife of the said Levey died suddenly from apoplexy and that ever since then, the said Levey has been a changed man, drinking heavily and neglecting his business. That previous to the death of his wife the said Levey was in affluent circumstances and has since become reduced, owing to deponent's opinion, to grief caused by the death of his wife. That in deponent's opinion the said Joseph H. Levey is an object of pity and commiseration deserving the charity of the community.

Charles A. Lane being duly sworn deposes and says, that he is an Attorney and Counsellor at Law - and has known Joseph H. Sevey (who has plead guilty to obtaining goods by false pretenses) for some years - and has always regarded said Sevey as a reputable person. That said Sevey some years ago was in good circumstances, doing an excellent business and in good standing with those with whom he had business relations - but since the sudden death of his wife and child he has been addicted to drink and has neglected his business, and consequently become very much reduced in circumstances - deponent verily believes that his said offense was committed while under the influence of liquor - really not knowing what he was doing or the enormity of his crime - and its consequence is an object of pity.

deponent believes that if this Honorable Court will be merciful the said Sevey will at once leave this Country and go to London, where he has relatives who are in affluent

Dear Sir

I am acquainted with the history of Joseph H. Levy who pleads guilty of obtaining funds & false pretences & think his case is one deserving of clemency. If sentence be suspended his friends will send him back to England where his relations reside

To the Honorable,
Frederick Smyth.
Recorder.

Dear Sir:

We most earnestly recommend to your Honor merciful consideration the case of Joseph H. Levey, who has pleaded guilty to obtaining goods under false pretenses.

This man has been unfortunate since the demise of his wife, and we have known him some time.

If your Honor could conscientiously suspend sentence in this case we would see that he is sent at once to London, England, where he has relatives in affluent circumstances.

0196

We understand that ~~an~~ ~~Dr. J. C. Connelley~~ has recovered the cloak obtained by Levey, and we further understand that Levey was intoxicated at the time of the commission of the offense -

Levey has been in the City Prison for some weeks.
