The People
vs. Mary Le Strange
Court of General Sessions. Part I
Before Recorder Smyth: Aug. 6, 1883
Indictment for assault in the first degree
Mellie Winters, sworn and examined, testified: Where do you live? No 82 Spring St.
Do you know the defendant? Yes sir. Do you remember the occurrence of the 10th of last month? Yes sir. Did you receive any injuries that day? Yes sir, from the prisoner. What were they? A stab in the eye.
Do you know what kind of an instrument was used? A small pen knife. Were you laid up any time from those wounds?
No sir. Did you see the knife? Yes, open in her hand. That was the knife was it not (knife shown) - the blade of that knife? Yes sir. How long have you known this woman? I have known her for about two years. This is the third time she attempted to stab me. Had you any gravel with her? No sir. No words? No sir.
Where were you when you were stabbed?
In a saloon on the corner of West Street and the Binery. What were you doing there, sitting down? Standing up.
You say there were no words? No words at all. Then without any communication with her without your knowing it she stabbed you? Yes sir. What time of day was it? I should judge near one o'clock in the morning. Cross Examined. I am a domestic, I don't work for anybody. I have never worked. You are on the town, aint you? Yes sir. Is it not true that you and her have been in the habit of quarreling about a fellow by the name of Harry Le Strange? Not as I know of. I never had any words, she several times insulted me, I don't know the man. That has been the cause of the trouble, whether you knew him or not? I could not say; she never gave me any reason, I don't know. Did you not strike her this night? No sir. Are you positively sure that she struck you with that knife? Yes sir, I am positively sure she struck me with the knife. That is it or one like it. Did you know you were cut at the time? Yes sir. Did you go to the doctor and have that cut fixed? No sir. It was a slight cut; it came near my eye. Peter Kelly, sworn and examined, testified: I am an officer of the Sixth precinct. I arrested the prisoner in Elizabeth St. on the morning of the 10th of July at 2.40. I made the arrest on the complaint of Nellie Winters. Was there any cut or wound upon her? Two on the cheek - one close to the eye and the other on the same cheek. The complaint was made immediately and the girl followed her up; the complaint was made about the time of his arrest. I searched the prisoner and found that pen. Knife upon her. Was there any blood upon it? No sir; the prisoner was intoxicated; she made no statement at that time; she made a statement at the time she was examined before the Police Magistrate in the morning. The other girl might have been drinking, but she was sober; she might have had some little drink but she was not drunk.

0169

0170

Mary Le Strange, sworn and examined in her own behalf testified. This Knife belongs to you, don't it? Yes sir. How did you get into the difficulty with this ~~complainant~~ ^{complainant} on the night in question? We went in this drinking saloon; we had a couple of words and I struck her. Did you cut her with a knife? No sir. Cross Examined You pursue the same vocation that this complainant does, do you not, you are both of you prostitutes are you not? Yes sir. Were you together in this saloon? Yes sir.

Well, you had been drinking a good deal hadnt you? Yes sir. You were intoxicated? Yes sir. Do you remember what you did? Yes sir. What did you strike her with? With my righthand. Just as it is now? No I had a ring on that finger with a stone in it. Did you strike her more than once? I struck her two or three times on the face. You are sure you did not have your knife out? I am certain I did not have it out. How come you to strike her? Her and I has been all the time quarreling; she would be all the time talking about me. Did you have your knife out any time? No sir.

Peter Kelly, recalled by Mr. Fellows:

Officer Kelly, how long have you been on the force? Going on fourteen years. And have seen a good many wounds and cuts? Yes sir. Well now describe to the jury as near as you can the character and kind of cuts you saw on her face? It had the appearance of being cut with a knife, it was not a blow, it was done by a sharp instrument or a piece of glass; nothing else could cut the skin so clear. There was no bruise around it; a clean cut. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of assault in the third degree.

My dear Sir

I never felt more anxious to save any one from prison than I do to save Alfred Lewis

Please take a plea of assault and I hope Recorder Smyth will let him go on his own recognizance.

This boys father died in the service of the Government - his mother has exerted herself to bring up her children till she is quite broken in health.

Several parties who have called on me to plead for the prisoner are very respectable people, who have known this mother & speak in the highest terms of her - and she needs this boy for her support now as he has been
