occupation Housekeeper being duly sworn deposes and says, that on the 13th day of November 1888 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property viz :

Good and lawful money of the United States consisting of Gold coins of divers denominations and a pocket book in all of $127.⁵⁰/₁₀₀ the value of One Hundred Dollars and Fifty Cents the property of

Deponent

and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Patrick O'Brien (now here) from the fact that Deponent placed said money in said pocket book in a trunk in Deponent's Room. Defendant who was in the employ of said Deponent broke open said trunk and took therefrom said money. Deponent was informed by Charles O'Connor an officer attached to the Central Office that he (O'Connor) found said Defendant on the a steamer of the Cunard line about to leave said city and found in his defendant's possession the aforesaid pocket book which Deponent has since seen and identified as the

Dear Judge,

Though I always hesitate in giving my written sympathies in cases that are before the Court, but my good nature might make me a seeming opponent of justice, yet in the matter of James McDonald - I have heard such good report from trustworthy parishioners that I believe justice would be served by giving him the benefit of a doubt if the evidence be not positive against him

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK against

James O'Neill

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse James O'Neill of the CRIME OF ROBBERY in the First degree, committed as follows:

The said James O'Neill, late of the First Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the Third day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, in the day time of the said day, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, in and upon one Thomas Reynolds, in the peace of the said People, then and there being, feloniously did make an assault, and one coat of the value of four dollars, and one vest of the value of one dollar, of the goods, chattels and personal property of the said Thomas Reynolds, from the person of the said Thomas Reynolds, against the will, and by violence to the person of the said Thomas Reynolds, then and there violently and feloniously did rob, steal, take and carry away, (the said James O'Neill being then and there aided by an accomplice actually present, whose name is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown) against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.
