DOMINICO SPINA testified that he lived at 13 Vestry Street, and is 34 or 35 years old. He is a boot-black, and had known the defendant all his life. On May 15th of this year, he saw the defendant at No. 15 Laight Street, in the house of Maria Ouva, at about half-past 7 in the morning. He had to go to his business, at 480 West Street, and "She came in that house, and she wanted to have a fight with me, and she took out a knife, and then I just opened my hands to get clear of her, and I cleared myself of her, and wanted to go and call the police, and while I was half way on the staircase, to call the assistance of the police, she fired two shots at me, from a revolver. The shots did not strike me. The complainant, at the time of the firing, was about 7 steps away from the defendant. The witness saw the revolver after the shots were fired. She had the revolver in her hand, as the complainant saw it. She said nothing when she fired. When she showed the knife, she said to the complainant, "You want to take the bread out of the mouth of my husband and I will not allow you to do any such thing." He is a boot-black in the neighborhood of that address also. He was in the neighborhood of the place where she was going to start a new boot-black stand. In the witness testified that he did not go to the defendant's house at about 6 o'clock in the morning and knock at her door. He did not follow the defendant's daughter through the streets time and time again. The complainant knew the defendant in Italy, and they were enemies for one year. He, the complainant, admitted that he had been in Sing Sing prison three years for fighting. He was sent to prison from the Court of General Sessions. He also served two months and a half in prison in Italy.

ANDREA DE LUCCA testified that he lived at 15 Laight Street. He was present at the assault at 15 Laight Street. It was between 8 and half-past 8 o'clock in the morning of the 5th of May. He saw the defendant take out a knife and run for the complainant, and she said "What do you want to take the daughter out of the mother for?" The complainant answered, "I know nothing at all about what you are saying". Then the witness saw her still moving her hand and arm with the knife open, and the complainant ran away, and the witness saw her fire two shots at the complainant. She had the revolver in her pocket, and the witness saw her take it out of her pocket. In the witness testified that he saw the complainant for the first time on the morning of the alleged assault. The assault was about 6 or half-past 6 or 7 o'clock. All that the witness heard the defendant say, before firing the shots, was, "Here you are, here you are, here you are." The witness was at the head of the stairs when the shots were fired.

PASQUALE RUSSO testified that she lived at 15 Laight Street, on the second floor, in which the defendant lived. The witness saw the defendant fire two shots, but did not remember the exact date; it was about 15 or 20 days ago, about 7 o'clock in the morning. The witness was going out of the house, that morning, and heard the complainant and the defendant quarreling, and the defendant said, "If you don't leave that place, I will cut you with a knife." Then she saw the complainant kick the defendant, and go away, and then she saw the defendant fire two shots at the complainant, who was, at that time, going downstairs. The complainant's back was turned towards the defenthe witness testified that the complainant was on top of the defendant, kicking her and grappling with her. When the complainant was holding the defendant, the defendant had a knife in her hand.

JAMES S. KANE testified that he is a municipal police officer attached to the 5th precinct. He arrested the defendant, and informed her of the charge, but she did not understand English. He found no weapons upon her. The witness told the defendant's daughter what the charge was against the defendant, and the daughter translated it into Italian to the defendant, who admitted that she fired the shots, but said that she did not have the revolver or knife, and the witness could not find them.

MARIA T. CHILLO, the defendant, testified that she lived at 15 Laight Street, and was married, and had four children. She knew the complainant, and remembered her arrest, between 6 and half-past 6 o'clock in the morning. The defendant testified "Dominico Spina came to my house, and asked me to leave my husband and go and live with him; not that morning, but many days before that. He came up to my door. I had just left my bed. Then Dominico Spina came to tell to me, 'If you dont want to go with me, I will take your daughter.'" He said, I must have either yourself or your daughter.' And then he gave me a blow on my person---on my stomach, and another blow, and then he caught hold of me and grabbed me and threw me on the floor. Pasquale Russo saw all this, and tried to separate us. And I thought I was going to die on the spot, and he was kicking me, and then I shot him, just in defense of my own life. I had the revolver in my house, and had it in my pocket, I put it in my pocket at that time. After firing, I was half dead and I don't know what I did with the revolver. I thought I was killed. " Her daughter is 13 years old, and she, the defendant, is 42. In the defendant testified that she did not remember anything about the knife. The revolver belonged to her husband. He had it about four or five months. She did not know whether it was loaded

CATHARINA VALLANOTI testified that she is the daughter of the defendant. Her father is dead, and her mother's name is now Chilo. She lived at 15 Laight Street. She lived with her mother on May 15th. She did not see the complainant there that morning, because she was in bed, but she heard knocks at the door. She did not see the trouble, but, afterwards saw a crowd of people.

(None.)

The witness did not hear any shots that morning. She did not see the revolver since.

DOMINICO PAROLA, testified that he lived at 15 Laight Street, and knew the defendant, and remembered the morning of May 15th. She got up that morning at about 6 o'clock. She saw trouble that morning. She saw the complainant fighting with the defendant. She saw the complainant give the defendant a blow on her face and a kick on her stomach, and then the complainant ran away, and she saw, afterwards, the defendant shoot at him. In the witness testified that she did not see a knife in the defendant's hand at the time of the fight. She did see the pistol. The complainant was running downstairs with his back towards the defendant, when she fired.

of the CRIME OF GRAND LARCENY in the second degree, committed as follows:

The said Patrick Clancy, late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the 26th day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, in the day-time of the said day, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, one chain of the value of twenty-five cents of the goods, chattels and personal property of one George Banta on the person of the said George Banta then and there being found, from the person of the said George Banta then and there feloniously did steal, take and carry away, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. I do not believe that the defendants intended to steal the property mentioned in the complaint because they hired the same from me and at the time spoke about selling it and I then agreed to give them a commission for each sale.

The People
Thomas Barran

Court of General Sessions Part I Before Recorder Smyth May 19th 1893.
Indictment for assault in the first degree.
Margaret Barran, sworn and examined.
At present I live in Fifth Street. At the time this assault was made upon me I was living in No. 422 West Fifty Sixth Street.
Then was it that your husband assaulted you? Four weeks ago on a Saturday the 21st of April; it was about eleven o'clock in my own room, one pair of stairs up in the back. I went out to the restaurant for some clam chowder for supper, and when I came in he accused me of staying longer than I should stay, saying I had been up with some other parties in a neighbor's house, and I was not. I said I was not and he called me a liar and struck me on the face with his fist. I was not knocked down by the first blow. Then he struck me again, and so I fell on the floor.
The second time he struck me was with his fist also on the face. I rushed for something to hit him, and I do not remember now whether I struck him or not, but I suppose perhaps I did before I fell down. He knocked me down with his fist, and when I was down he stood on me with his feet; he put one foot on my right side. Are there any marks on you from where he struck you on the face? Yes. Are your eyes both black still? Yes. The left eye is still blood shot from that assault. What effect had it on your body when he jumped on you? Three of my ribs were broken. Where were you brought after you had been assaulted? To the Roosevelt Hospital. I did not remain only till I was dressed; they let me go. Then I went right back to the house again and remained till Sunday. I was so ill that I had to be taken to Bellevue in an ambulance on Sunday. You had been confined shortly before that? Yes. I was confined on the second day of April. How long were you kept in Bellevue Hospital? I was kept just a week. I was sent to Randall's Island with the baby. I was there till last Monday. When did you have your husband arrested for this assault? The night that it occurred. Did the policeman come in that night of the assault? Yes. Did he see your condition? see your eyes black? Yes and saw me on the floor Was this man drunk or sober at the time? I could not say he was drunk; he had been drinking.

(Cross Examined. My husband is a carriage washer and he has been working right along at that business for the last few months.
A lady was holding the baby in the room, and when she went away he took the baby in his arms and held it until the officer came in.

When the officer came in he was not stamping on you? He was not stamping on me when the officer came in;
he was sitting down holding the baby.

What were you doing at that time?
I was lying. I was not fit to do anything.
I was just about to be picked up by the neighbor next door and the officer came in.

Virgil H. Winchell, sworn and examined.
I am a police officer attached to the 22nd precinct. The night when this assault took place I was on post in 5th 6th street from Sixth Avenue to the river; No. 422 West 5th 6th Street is on my post. The janitress of this house saw me on the opposite side of the street the night of the difficulty. She called me in; she came out of the door. I went in and went up to that man's room. Mrs. Furman was lying on the floor bleeding. Her face was swollen, one eye was closed, entirely shut; her face was bleeding; she was not able to get up. I assisted her with the lady who went in ahead of me on to the chair. She said her husband assaulted her. She said that in the presence of her husband. He said that he struck her with his fist, knocked her down and then jumped on her. Did he say anything? He said, "yes, that she assaulted him first. Did he have any marks on him? I think he had a slight mark on his forehead - a little, slight cut. Did he say how he got it? He said that she threw something at him. Left a party in charge of the lady and I went out for an ambulance and called an ambulance and sent her to the Hospital. She insisted on having him arrested, so I took him to the station house. I left a man in charge of him. Did you have any further conversation with this defendant since? No. I have not. Were you there the time the ambulance came? I was. Did he examine her?

He examined her very slightly.

Thomas Curran, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified: This case of assault against me, it was a real provoked case. This Friday evening when this occurred my wife went out for a can of something for supper; it was clam chowder; she went out; I told her not to be long; she stayed an hour. When she came back I asked her what kept her? There was a woman in the house at this time, a neighbor; and when she came in the woman gave me the child - this neighbor gave me the baby she held in her hands. I held it in my hands. My wife was pretty well full; she is an habitual drunkard; and when I asked her what kept her so long, she got crazy wild and flew at me, and from words she ran to the table and picked up a heavy bowl and hit me in the head with it before I struck her. That is the first assault. I ran and grabbed the bowl from her hand and put it on the table. She ran to the chimney piece and grabbed a smoothing iron and thought to hit me in the head with it. I grabbed that, and I struck her in the face twice in succession with my hand. Then she fell, and I think, I know I stamped on her with my foot in her head. I did not hit her in the ribs. I did not break her ribs. Did you stamp on her head with your foot? Yes sir. Did you have a shoe on at that time? Yes. The housekeeper, I suppose went for the policeman and the policeman came in. I held the baby in my arm the whole time. How old was the baby? Over two weeks, going on three weeks. How long had your wife been out of bed after having a baby before this happened after giving birth to this baby? She was confined on Easter Sunday, she was up four days after being confined.

Q Counsel What do you work at?

Carriage washer. That is all I have got to say.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of assault in the second degree.
