vs.
Michael Rodgers.

City and County of
New York.

Maggie Thompson being duly sworn says that Michael Rodgers, above named is her husband.
That deponent was married in the City of St. Paul. Minn. on the 21 day of February 1885 to said Michael Rodgers.

That deponent has resided in the City of New York for four years with her said husband.

That he is a man of Education and good family, and has always been a most kind and affectionate husband and loving indulgent father.

That deponent has a son, now 7 years of age, rising of said marriage.

That deponent's husband has always been an industrious man and always earned good wages That he was head-waiter at Clark's Restaurant 125th St. and when he was working, always gave all or nearly all of his wages to deponent, and that he was always a good provider, and always took a good kind and loving interest in his family.

That the only explanation that deponent can give for her husband's conduct is that he was out of work at the time, and was drinking a little, which rendered him desperately despondent.

That deponent knows ^{her husband} he can get immediate employment if from a chance, as several of his former employees has so stated to deponent.

That her said husband has never been arrested before in his life for any offense whatever, and trusts that this Hon. Court will see-cond sentence or for the minimum punishment which will be considered by the Court most just.
