Michael Collins

of No. 408 East 16th Street, aged 37 years, occupation Vender being duly sworndeposes and says, that on the 10 day of January 1890 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property, viz:

One horse and venders wagon together of the value of ninety dollars, two barrels of apples <sup>in bags</sup> of the value of five dollars and three barrels of potatoes <sup>in bags</sup> of the value of five dollars — all of the value of one hundred dollars $100

the property of deponent.

and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by William Lundy, Robert Mc Ewan, and John Kiernan

(now here) under the following circumstances.
The said property was left by deponent in 25th Avenue between 12th and 13th street about 2 o'clock p.m. on January 10 1890. Deponent was absent about half an hour and on his return the said property was missing.
Deponent is informed by Michael Robards now here that about 3 oclock p.m. on said date ~~he~~ saw the defendants with a horse and wagon and barrels of apples and potatoes answering the description of the property stolen <sup>from</sup> by Deponent on said date viz. the horse was black, and the wagon was green and it contained apples and potatoes in bags, and the defendants were selling the said apples and potatoes in the street. and Deponent is informed by Charles Campbell, now here that about half past two o'clock on said date he saw the defendants in possession of a <sup>horse</sup> wagon and contents answering description of the property lost by Deponents, and within a couple of blocks of the place where Deponent <sup>lost</sup> said property.

 Deponent is Marie Moncena, now here that she bought a barrel of apples of the defendants from a wagon in Thompson street about 2.30 p.m. on said date. The horse and wagon were afterwards found abandoned in Leonard St. Deponent therefore charges Defendants with the larceny of said property, and asks that they be dealt with as the law
