with the crime of Grand Larceny from the person in the night time goods &c of Edward Thompson

You are therefore Commanded, forthwith to arrest the above named if the Court have adjourned for the term, that you deliver him into the custody of the Keeper of the

State of New York City & County of New York $\frac{1}{2}$ S.S.

Thomas Mulligan being duly sworn deposes and says; that he resides at No 20 West 27th St in said City; that on the 29, day of July last at about 12 o'clock at night this deponent was in company with Patrick Gibbons and Patrick Burke in the liquor store on the corner of 27th St & 10th Avenue; that said Burke & Gibbons had a row in the store and after a few blows were struck they were separated by James Doyle who sent Gibbons home; that about ten minutes thereafter deponent went out of the place and meeting Gibbons at the door told him he had better go home or he would get fighting with Burke again; that Burke then came out of the store and he and Gibbons again clinched and struggled out into the middle of the street where they both fell; that deponent went over to them and pulled Gibbons off of Burke and brought him over to the side walk; we had hardly reached the curb when I heard some one hollow; looking around I saw a crowd around Burke who ran after a young man by the name of Conkling who turned to strike him when Burke came back brother Gibbons and I stood on the walk and asked me if I knew the young man and I told him yes; he then said he stole his watch & chain and he would never see me short of a ten dollar note if I could get it back for him. I told him I did not want his money that if I could I would get it back for him; then he asked me if I would take a walk to the Station House to report about the watch and I said I would. We then went to Station House. Sergeant Woods asked him what the trouble was and he said that I knew the parties who stole his watch & would not tell him. The Sergeant asked him if I took it and he said no. Then the Sergeant asked me if I shot anything to do with it and said no. He then discharged me and told me to go home. While on my way home he had me arrested and taken into the 16th precinct and he told the Japanese he wanted me held any how and he would make a charge against me, I have been ever since in prison; the only one of the crowd whom I recognized was Cuckling and I knew him because he turned around to shake Burke. I did not take Burke's watch, never saw nor it before or since. I do not know who took the watch except from the accusation made against Curtis by Burke. I have never been arrested before I am a Spring Movers' helper; for the past three months I have been taking charge of a newspaper stand for my mother on 10th Avenue between 27 & 28 Sts because my regular business is always dull from May to August. Officer M. C. Coy was with me when I went to the Station house from which I was discharged by the Sergeant and heard Burke's statement that I did not take the watch but would not tell him who did although I knew. that Burke never pretended that I took the watch but only that I knew who took it until we went into the 16 precinct -
