TOUMNEY.
-----X

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself: And for the reason that since making the charge in this case, I have made inquiries about the character of the above named defendants and find that they are both hard working and industrious young men who have never before been charged with the commission of any crime and for the further reason that at the time I lost my watch and chain, I was intoxicated and asleep and am not certain that they (the defendants) really stole my property. I was so informed at the time and was also told where the watch was found, but at this present time after mature deliberation of all the circumstances tending to connect the defendants with the larceny, I am not wholly satisfied that they should be convicted of the crime and think they have been punished enough.

The deponent testifiedxxxx before the committing magistrate, the 17th day of July 1889, that he was informed by one Samuel Price that deponent's property was found in the §§ 528 & 530 P.C.

Indictment:

Grand Larceny, 1st deg.
for having, on the 15th of July, 1889, taken from the person of William H.
Cronk $53 in money, the property of said Cronk.

Trial Witnesses:
William H. Cronk, 121 West 11th Street,
Dennis Grady, Central Office.

0787

Lewis Grady, detective, Central Office.
On the 19th of July, 1889, I arrested the defendant at corner of 40th Street and Broadway, when he came out of a liquor saloon. He asked me, upon whose charge I arrested him, and when I told him, that I did not know the complainant's name, he mentioned the name of several parties, and among them that of the complainant herein.
as the supposed complainant.
He stated that Ark had only $2. when he met him.
I asked him, who was with him, when he met Ark,
and he replied John Weir.
He denied that either of them took any money from the complainant, and that he ran away from him, to get rid of him. He further said that complainant had only $2 in his possession at said time, and asked me, how he could steal $58 from him, if he had only $2.

0788

William H. Cronk, 121 West 11th Street, agent, On the 15th of July, 1889 I met the defendant and one John Weir in a pool room in 13th Street, between Third and Fourth Avenues, where I had made a number of bets on the Saratoga races. I had $15 in my possession when I came to said pool room, and I won in all $65, but on the last two bets I lost $21, so that when I left the place I had $59 in my pocket. Upon my invitation the defendant and Weir followed me to the liquor saloon of J. Gilmore, on the corner of 12th Street and Third Avenue, where I treated them with drinks. I there spent in all 30¢, which I had in small change with me. When starting for my home, the defendant asked me to come up-town with him. I accepted his invitation, and we went up Third Avenue to 20th Street, then over to Sixth Avenue, and up to 23rd Street, where we stopped at a liquor saloon. After having treated the defendant and Weir, I changed a $1 bill to pay for the drinks. I took the said bill out of a roll of bills ^{amounting to $59} which I thereafter and in the presence of the said two parties put back into my exterior, ^{right side} upper vest pocket. From this saloon we walked together up to 32^d Street and there, between Sixth and Seventh Avenues, Weir jostled me and the defendant grabbed the said roll of bills out of my said vest pocket, and immediately thereafter both said two men ran off in great haste. I have ^{positively} identified the defendant as the man who took my money as aforesaid. On that day I had not taken more than three drinks, and I was perfectly sober, while I was in company of the defendant.

0789
