TESTIMONY.

Bernard O'Reilly, being sworn says: I am an officer of 14th Precinct. Was on post on Mulberry St. and Canal St. on June 7th 1880. ~~Was~~ Coming from the station house at 2.20 P.M. on that day I met deceased's husband with another man. They told me the former was justifying and crying and saying something in Italian. I could not understand him. The other man told me that there was a dead woman in the rear of 22 Mulberry St. and also said that the man with him was his husband. I went there and found a woman lying on the floor in a pool of blood. Her feet were towards the door and the head towards the window. The deceased's husband entered the room with me. He fringed ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~deceased~~ and stooped and kissed deceased. I tried to find out something about it from the crowd about the place but could not get any information. I then reported to the station house and was told to arrest the husband and all the parties that were there when the door was broken in. I did not break in the door nor was I there when it was done. When I got there two officers - Nugent and Boos - were already there.

Francis J. Nugent being sworn says: I am an Officer of 14th Precinct, Police on Post on Worth St. at about 2.15 P. M. on June 7th 1880 an Irishman called my attention to the matter by telling me that there was a crowd around the corner. I went there and entered the house 22 Mulberry St. Rear, where I found a dead woman lying in a pool of blood on the floor with her head towards the window. She was lying on her back. Found a crowd of people in the room. The door was open when I got there. I made inquiries and was told that the woman's husband had gone out to look for an Officer. I was told that there was the son there. I then cleared the people out of the room and kept the boy inside. Questioning him I found that there was also a male boarder belonging to the house. When the husband came along with Officer O'Reilly we detained him also in the room until Officer O'Reilly could report at station house. Saw the husband kissing the prostrate woman and, as it seemed to me, tried hard to weep. Could see no tears. The man was trembling with excitement. Officer Bowles was left in charge of the premises while Officer O'Reilly and myself took the husband, boy and housekeeper Mrs. Margaret Clifford ^{to the station house} ~~Richardson~~ which I now identify is the one I found in the fire place.

Thomas Bowyer, being sworn, says I am an Officer of 14th Precinct. Heard the statements made by Officers O'Riley and Sergeant. Corroborate their statements as far as I am connected with the case. I desire to make an additional statement with reference to the finding of the hatchet. When the husband of deceased entered the room with Officer O'Riley ~~he~~ took particular notice of his actions. After kissing his wife's body he sat down on a bench alongside of his boy. The bench was between the fireplace and ^{the} window. I sat on a chair facing him as well as the fireplace. Noticed him watching the fireplace very closely. He was not aware then that we had found the hatchet. I thought that his anxious looks towards the fireplace had some connection with hatchet. I discovered the hatchet inside of the fireplace on the flooring and covered with paper rubbish and a wooden box. On the hatchet I discovered blood both on the handle and on the iron portion of the hatchet.

Margaret Clifford being sworn says: I am housekeeper of 22 Mulberry St. and reside in the front building. On Monday, June 7th 1880, at about 11.40 P.M. the husband of deceased came to my room, accompanied ~~with~~^{by} another Italian who could speak English, and asked for a key to open his room door. He gave no reason for his request and I told him to go to a locksmith as I had no keys. Noticed an unusual frown on his face. Some little time after I felt curious to know whether the man got in or not and looked out of my room window. I saw the deceased lying on the floor and thought she was asleep. Afterwards heard that the woman was dead. On the same day a man on next floor above the Italians and on the other side of the house was whitewashing his rooms. Did not hear any quarrel in the Italians apartment on that day or ever before. Know that the family had a boarder. An Officer came to my room at about 2 P.M. and took me to the station house.

Marianna Gincavelli, being sworn, says: I lived in one household with the Mangano family at 22 Mulberry St. in the year. I am employed at 85 Duane St. in the bookbinding On the morning of June 7th 1880 I left my room at 6.30 A.M. leaving in the room the deceased and her husband, Nofrio Mangano. This boy ~~had already left and gone to school~~ was also at home. I never had any quarrel with Nofrio Mangano myself, but the latter quarrelled with every body else. He was jealous of most every Italian around there. I do not know that he was ~~jealous~~ jealous of me in particular. I never gave the deceased my photograph, but my things were always in their trunks so that the family had access to all my things. I have lived as a laborer at a monastery in Richmond, Kansas. Had photographs taken ^{at St. Joseph, Mo.} ~~there~~. I never had any criminal intimacy with deceased. Know her in Italy and looked upon her as a sister. ~~and~~ know her to be an honorable and good woman.
 Returned to Mulberry St. at about 5.30 P.M. on June 7th. I did not go into the house for fear of being arrested after hearing of the occurrence through some Italians when I was near the house on Park St. After consulting my employer I gave myself up to the police Captain. There was trouble in the family very often, the husband frequently striking and abusing deceased. There was no trouble on the morning of June 7th 1880. The husband asked me to get him work, for which he would feel very grateful to ~~him~~ me. I had no conversation with the boy or his father since the occurrence. Jo a juroe Mangano is a man of a very bad temper. He never showed any bad temper to me. He never showed any jealousy to me. Deceased never told me that her husband was jealous of me. Was at the factory from 7 A.M. until 5.30 P.M., never leaving the premises during that time. Took my breakfast with me from home. It was all prepared in the evening and done up in a napkin, which I have here now. (showing a large napkin which he brought forth from one of his pockets). The hatchet shown me by the Coroner is the hatchet belonging to our household. We generally kept it near the stove. I identify picture shown me as mine and also the letter of recommendation which contained the picture. I found this photograph up in the letter together with two other pictures. ~~of~~ One was the picture of my two sisters and the other was ~~the likeness~~ of my cousin.

Egidio Stepheni, being sworn, says: I am Assistant foreman for J. B. Shaw & Co., 85 Duane St. I have been working for about 10 days. I saw him in the shop on the morning of June 7th 1880 at 7.10 and 7.20 A.M. He remained all day until 5.30 P.M. Between 12 and 12.30 P.M. he took his lunch on the premises. I was within 4 or 5 feet from him at the time. On the morning of June 8th Michaels informed us of the occurrence. The foreman told him to take off his coat and go to work. When Mr. Shaw, the head of the firm, arrived, he advised Michaels to give himself up and I went by Mr. Shaw's direction with him to the station house.

Antonio Mangano, being sworn says: I am the son of deceased. Went to school on June 7th 1880 at about 7 o'clock. My mother was in the room when I left. I do not remember whether my father was in the room or not. At about ¹² o'clock my father came to the school and told me to come home and knock at the door and see whether ^{me} his mother would speak to ~~him~~. I did so but had no response. My father was with me. The housekeeper afterwards told us my father and myself that my mother was asleep on the floor. I do not remember whether Eincavelli was in the room when I left. I think he left before me.
 A woman living in the same house with us opened the room door with a key. I was present then; my father was not. He was looking for an officer.
 I now declare that when I left the house I left my father and my mother in the room. They were not quarreling on that morning, but did so the evening before. At the station house my father told me that I must keep still, ~~and he would~~ ~~be~~. At the house he said nothing. Father gave no explanation to me regarding the death of mother except at the station house ^{when} he told me that Michele had killed her. I identify the ~~booked~~ presented to me ~~him~~ here, as ours.

Mr. S. Raper, M.D. being sworn, says: I have made an autopsy on the body of Marianna Mangano at the City Morgue on the 8th day of June 1880 with the following results: Along the body of lower jaw on either side, and the chin and just beneath it deep abrasions of skin a couple of inches long and from $\frac{1}{2}$ to 1 inch in width were noticed. The tongue protruded between the lips giving the deceased the appearance of having been choked or strangled. This in connection with the bruised and abraded condition of the skin about the lower jaw makes it probable that the murderer inserted his foot under the chin with a view of preventing any outcry of his victim.
 Back of the left ear an almost triangular cut wound was found which, by its ragged appearance bore witness that several blows were necessary to produce the lesion. Left ear was also cut through its cartilage. Behind the right ear a scalp wound about $\frac{3}{4}$ of an inch long was detected. Directly in front of this a contused wound with abrasion of skin was seen. Said abrasion looked as if the murderer's tool had missed its mark and slipped. On the back of the head three scalp wounds in median line over occiput and

Two a little more to the right were found. They were from $\frac{3}{4}$ of an inch to one inch long but did not penetrate the skull. On removal of scalp deep extravasation of blood over the temporal muscles on both sides of the head became apparent. The temporal bone on left side was completely crushed in and depressed to the extent of $1\frac{1}{2}$ inch square.

After removal of skull cap a fracture of parietal bone on right side to the extent of two inches with extravasation of blood over surface of the brain was also discovered. All other organs were normal.

Death in my opinion was caused by shock from the injuries above enumerated and produced by direct violence.

Dear Sir:—

I beg leave to ask certain information in the case of one Onofrio Mangano who was convicted at the Court of Oyer and Terminer on the 9th December 1880, Hon. Justice Barrett, presiding.

Can you ascertain what relationship Marriana Mangano bore to her assassin? Is it of record that the defendant had served a term or terms in Italy for homicide?

The case is one of some interest to us, and whatever aid you may be so kind as to extend will be appreciated.

Very respectfully yours,

William Zimmerman of No 575 Broadway being duly sworn says that previous to the 15th day of November last Teresa Miller & her son Augustus Miller came to deponent's place of business & she showed deponent a diamond & asked its value. Deponent weighed the diamond and valued it at about $90⁰⁰. This diamond had a flaw on one side, afterwards on the 15th November 1880 Teresa Miller brought to this deponent & sold to him for $66.⁹⁸ a quantity of old gold to wit, a chain & the cases of a Gold Watch. The watch case and the diamond answers the description given by Mr Rottman of the property stolen from him on the 30th September last, Mrs Teresa Miller after selling the Gold came to my place of business and asked me not to say anything about her selling me the gold. The cases of the

The People vs. Edward Malone } Court of General Sessions. Before Judge Gildersleeve. January 10 1881 Indictment for larceny from the person George Tarsfield, sworn and examined testified I live 96 Washington St. I have known the prisoner five years. On the second of November about 9 1/2 o'clock at night I was going to my house and I was just coming at the corner when this lad here was telling me about some fight or another, I gave him a little shove away. With that the watch went and he ran I could not catch him; he snatched the watch out of my vest pocket and ran away.
I notified the Sergeant or the man in charge of the desk at the 27th precinct. I pointed the prisoner out to Officer Flynn and he arrested him. I did not get the watch back. Went six weeks after the larceny of the watch the prisoner was arrested. The watch was worth ten dollars. Cross Examined: I did not see the prisoner for a week after I lost my watch. I saw him at a distance. I had no conversation with him at all. I went to the station house after I lost the watch and made a complaint. I told Officers Landefar and Cuff. I know the prisoner very well; he took the watch on the corner of Cedar and Washington Sts. I had not been in his company before that. I had not been in any person's company since I left Brooklyn. He came up and spoke to me and was telling me some foolish story. I shoved him away. That is the time I felt and seen the watch going. I had not been drinking that day. I felt a jerk at my chain. I followed him but could not catch him. He went up Greenwich St and I lost him at the corner. This was at 9 1/2 at night. I made no outcry. I halloed out a little, but that is all; he turned the corner, but it was dark. There was a good lot of people passing by. I halloed out once or twice. I only followed him as far as the corner because he disappeared when he got to the corner of Greenwich and Liberty Sts. A week after I saw him at the distance of half a block. I gave him a good chance on account of his father and mother to let him send it back. I have known his father very well; he is a decent respectable man. On the 2nd of November I talked with the prisoner about a minute. There was nobody with him when he took the watch, but there was a few across the street; he sent word that he would get me another watch. I told him I would not have it. Roundsman Linderman and another officer went after him one night; they could not very well catch him. I lived across the way from Malone. I am living where I am now for eight months, 96 Washington street. I did not know that Malone lived across the way, I keep a boarding house. I don't know that the prisoner was in trouble before; he did not frequent my place quite often. I have not the least feeling against the prisoner Edward Malone, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I live 89 Washington St. I work along shore with my father; he is in Court. I have been working for him seven months steady. I have known the complainant about three years. I recollect seeing him on the evening of the 2nd of November; it was not quite dark when I met him; we were standing on the corner of Cedar and Washington Sts. Sarsfield came along, he was pretty well drunk and he knew one of the men that was with me. One of the men asked him for a quarter, he loaned it to him. He said, "Come on; we will have a drink." He brought the two men over, I stood standing; I did not talk to him in a good while; he told one of the men to call me over, I went into McGrovy's. While we were in there he had some dispute with a man. He was saying that Sarsfield stole a bottle of whiskey and he (Sarsfield) wanted to fight with the man. I went out of the place I did not see Sarsfield for about a week. I seen his sons and they told me that his father blamed us for taking a watch. Did you take the watch or any young man that was with you? I saw him every day since he charged me with taking the watch. I know one grudge he has against me. Before I got in trouble I used to be in his store very often; now I am working with my father, I have been keeping away from him all the time. He said, you are as big a thief as comes into my store.

0244

0245

Cross Examined. I was tried in this Court in 1878 on suspicion of stealing a chain from a man's pocket, I pleaded guilty and was sent to the penitentiary for twelve months and served ten months. Four years ago I was sent to the House of Refuge and I have been tried for disorderly conduct. It is nearly seven months since I have been out of the penitentiary. Peter Malone sworn I live at 96 Washington St. and am the father of this boy. I am foreman for a stavedore and work over in Hunters Point and Jersey, my helps me at my work. Officer Wm Flynn swore that he arrested the prisoner two years ago for highway robbery; he was tried and acquitted. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty. He was sent to the State prison for three years and six months.
