filed June

1.

The People
 vs.
 Ferdinand Feltner,
 Herman Brown
 and Henry Schellkopf
 and petty larceny.

Court of General Sessions. Part I Before Judge Cowing.
 June 22, 1882. Indictment for burglary in the third degree and petty larceny. Rosi Grossman, sworn and examined, testified I live at present at 108 Ridge St. on the 31st of May I lost an over skirt, a ladies cloak and a boys sack. the value of the clothing was about twenty dollars. it was in the house, it was carried away by someone who got in through the window, when I came home I found the window broke and the latch raised.
 I left at two o'clock and about 3 o'clock came back. I fastened the window before I went out. A man whom I believe was a detective came and told me he found the goods with the prisoner. I got the coat and sack back but not the other things that were taken.
 Jeremiah Mayland sworn and examined.
 About three o'clock in the afternoon I met these boys going down Clinton St. I stopped them on the corner of Division and Clinton Sts. I asked them what they had. This was a few blocks from Ridge St. where the complainant lives. They made no reply when I stopped them. I put my hand in Feltner's jacket. Feltner and Brown were together

I put my hand in Feltner's jacket and took this woman's over skirt from him. I did not see the other boy. I don't know anything about him, the detective arrested him in company with him the next morning, the detective is here. The complainant subsequently recognized the goods taken from these two boys as hers. Brown ran away when I took hold of Feltner. The detective's name is Haggerty.
 Jonathan Haggerty sworn and examined.
 In consequence of what I was told by Feltner I went and arrested Brown and Schelldorf.
 I did not find anything with them, but the boy Schelldorf informed me where a portion of the goods was pawned. I went there and the lady identified it as her property. I asked him what he did with the rest of the clothes that were stolen? He said there was nothing only the sack, and that is pawned in Avenue B for half a dollar. I went and brought the owner, she described her goods and identified it as her property.
 John Estling, sworn and examined for the defence testified I live at 310 Houston St. I am a tin smith. I know Henry Schelldorf about five or six years. I know other people who know him, his character is good.

Catherine Scheldorf, sworn and examined, testified. I live 310 East Houston St. I am the mother of Scheldorf; he has lived home with me all the time; he worked since he was 13 years old and gives me his money. Mary Brown sworn. I live 120 Ridge St.; the prisoner Brown is my boy; he has always been a good boy; he always brings home his money. Detective Curry came to the house once for him, but it was for him to show the pawn office where a boy pawned some goods.
 Sophia Brown. I am sister in law of the prisoner Brown. I know him going on three years. I am married to his brother.
 I know him to be a good honest boy, works for his living and always gives his money to his mother; he was working in a saw mill in Fifth street.
 Seraphine Cordis sworn. I know her man Brown two years; he was always industrious and orderly. I live at 286 Second St. I lived in the same house where he lived before. I am a tailor.
 John Feltner sworn and examined.
 I am the father of the prisoner Feltner; he lives home with me, he was never arrested before; he behaves very well.

towards his father and mother. He was away from home two nights before this happened. Ferdinand Feltner sworn. He were playing tag in the yard and the goods were hanging in the water closet. I took the goods. I did not know they were stolen, I did not know who they belonged to; we did not go into the building after the goods; we found them at twelve o'clock. Henry Schelder sworn and examined in his own behalf testified as follows:
By Counsel. Where do you live, Schelder? No 310 East Houston St. Did you steal those goods? No sir. Who pawned those things? Feltner gave me a sacking and I pawned it. I did not know that it was stolen. You did not know it was stolen at the time? No sir. Did you see where he got it, did you see him get it? We were playing tag; it was hanging on the water closet; he asked whose it was and nobody answered and he was trying to sell it. Were you all there? Mr. Brown, Feltner and a lot of boys were playing tag around there. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of burglary with a recommendation to mercy.

Testimony in the case of Samuel Chickhaver
filed June 1882.

The People
 Samuel Frickhaver } Court of General Sessions Part I Indictment for burglary in the first degree and grand larceny } Before Recorder Smyth June 24th 1882 Walter J. Price, sworn and examined.
 I live 25 West Fifty Second st. in this city; upon the night of the 7th of June I lost some property, one or two shirts were taken from my laundry I was awakened in the morning I do not know the defendant, but I saw him in the police office and in the Tombs. There was taken that night some shirts, a watch, some coats and an overcoat, worth I suppose from fifty to one hundred dollars. I don't know any facts which connects the defendant with breaking into the house. I have a family, that was my dwelling house; on the evening of the 7th of June I was in my house; it was closed; on the morning of the 8th I observed that the front doors were wide open, the parlor and reception room doors were open and the basement floor was in total disorder, these doors were fastened on the night of the 7th of June. I retired between twelve and one o'clock. The door leading from the basement to the cellar had one pane of glass burst out. There was a bolt and a lock on that door and it was fastened the night before. There was four or five quart bottles of champagne opened; they were full the night before and the empty bottles were left. Cross Examined. The coats belonged to my waiterman; he is a witness here, and the watch was his. I heard no noise that night. A carving knife and corkscrew that were missing were mine. Andrew W. Lodkey sworn and examined. I live at 25 West Fifty second St., and am Mr. W. J. Price's waiterman. I was at his house on the 7th and 8th of June. On the night of the 7th of June I closed the house, I fastened the doors and made sure they were fast. I locked the parlor door and the reception rooms doors every night the last thing on going to bed; on the morning of the 8th the front door bell rang about four o'clock. I went down and answered the bell and the doors were open. I was surprised at seeing my dining room livery lying at the front door. I went down stairs and upon my dining room floor I found everything thrown out and the drawers pulled out. I found the kitchen had been ransacked. I went as far as the cellar door and saw that a pane of glass had been broken; it was whole the night before. I looked down in the cellar and saw the gas lit; the dining room blinds were pulled to and the gas was lit in there. I went and knocked at Mr. Price's door and he came down stairs. I lost two cloth coats, an overcoat, a silver watch, two gold rings and a pair of shoes. They were worth about thirty dollars. I don't know anything of my own knowledge of the connection of the defendant with breaking into the house there was a corkscrew and a carving knife also missing. I saw my overcoat afterwards in Seventh Avenue on the top floor over a baker's near Fifty Second St. I don't know the name of the man who had it, he was a working man dressed in his working clothes.

 Robert Dixon, sworn and examined, testified. I live 204 East Fifty first St. in this city. I have seen the prisoner before. On the morning of June 8th I was going through Fifty second St. from Fifth Avenue going towards ~~West~~ between four and five o'clock in the morning, clear daylight I saw two men coming down coming down the stoop of 25 West Fifty Second St. one colored and one white man, Mr. W.
 J. Price's house. Then I reached there I found both doors open. I followed both men as close as possible. The prisoner is one of the men, he had an umbrella

09 16

in his hand. I followed both men up as far as the corner of Fifty second St. and Sixth avenue; they walked up the street abreast; they separated at the corner; the colored man went in the up town direction and this man went west of Sixth ave. I caught him by the collar and wheeled him round. I had not lost sight of him from the time I saw him leave the stoop of the house until I caught him. There was no one between us. I says to him, "I want you."; he says in reply, "What do you want with me?" I says, "What were you doing in 1625." I had scarcely the word out of my head when he attempted to pull out a knife. I had a club; he assaunted me and hit me with an umbrella on the head; he got away. I got up again and I gave him chase and ran up to Seventh ave. and he turned the corner of Seventh avenue into the basement of a baker shop. By that time I was assisted by two police officers; they went down to the baker shop and out into the yard and he cleared the fence out again into Fifty second St. and then he ran a little ways towards Sixth avenue again in Fifty second St.

0917

Then he jumped back of the fence there and one of the police officers went across to him. Then he was arrested and I identified him as the man who assaulted me coming out of 25. I am the American District watchman, my beat is 52 and 53 & 5th round the block. Cross Examined. It was Thursday morning June 8th the prisoner was about the seventh house from me I guess when I saw him, the colored man had dark clothing and the prisoner had a gray overcoat and a white shirt. The men did not run away, they walked away. I did not run till I went near the corner of Fifty second St. and Sixth Ave. It could not be more than two minutes that the prisoner and I were together. I seized him by the collar of the coat and wheeled him right around facing me; we were both facing each other. I saw the prisoner in the police station and identified him as being the man who came down the stoop with a gray coat on him and an umbrella in his hand. I was not the least excited when he threw me down, it was clear day light when I got hold of him. I lost sight of the prisoner until he came out in Fifty second St.

0918

Andrew W. Lodekey recalled the color of my overcoat is gray. James Carpenter sworn I live at 48 West Fifth eighth St. I am a coach man. I saw the prisoner on the morning of the 8th of June. I was on my way to the stable. I did not know what the trouble was. I saw him climb a fence and just as I got past him he jumped and fell in Fifth second St near the corner of Seventh Ave. Some one shouted "You can go - let the boy go." Let him go, and in another minute heard the policeman's club rap and the witness ran after him. He ran across on the east side of Fifth second St where they were throwing those rocks. Then I saw Dixon he was running and sweating pretty heavy. I know the prisoner by sight for four years. Cross Examined. I work for Mr. Key. 48 west 58th St. This was somewhere along between half past five; my stable is located in 57th St. near 7th Ave. Herman Beckett sworn and examined I am a baker and live at 922 Sixth Ave. I saw the prisoner on the morning of the 8th of June. I was standing on the corner of 57th St and Sixth Ave. I saw the watchman run after a man. Dixon was running after the prisoner. I asked the watchman what was the matter. He did not answer me; he ran down 52nd St. I saw he caught a man at the stable who turned and gave him a blow in the face. I saw the watchman fall down. I ran after the prisoner; he ran down Seventh ave in a baker shop; the watchman called two policemen coming from 51st St and Sixth ave. One of the policemen came down to the baker shop. I heard the policeman holler, "Catch him." I ran over Fifty Second St. and wanted to catch him. He jumped down the fence and got away. I am positive the prisoner is the man John I buff sworn and examined. I arrested the prisoner on Monday the 12th of June corner of Seventh ave and 52nd St. Officer Vally was with me. I asked the prisoner if his name was Thickover. He said, no, his name was Brown; he said he did not live around here. That he worked for a gentleman in Inwood, that he had been down to see his mother who lived between 56th and 57th Sts. in Sixth ave. that he went around had a little beer and was trying to get home. He said he was down three days. He saw us standing on the opposite side of the street waiting for him. He turned around pretty lively and sat down amongst three others; then I arrested him. Cross Examined this was about 9/2 o'clock in the morning of the 12th of June. I know nothing of the burglary. I never saw him until I arrested him. I arrested him because I received information that he was the party who committed the burglary. I had an officer of the 22nd precinct with me to identify him that he was the party I was looking for. The burglary was committed in the nineteenth precinct but he lived in the twenty second and the detective pointed him out to us. No 15 West Fifth Second St. is in the Nineteenth ward.

0919

Samuel Brickhaver, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified Where do you live? No 159 West Fifth second St. With whom do you live? With my mother. Where were you on the night of the 7th of June 1882? The night of the 7th I was down at the theatre, the grand opera house. I went there alone and returned alone. At what time did you arrive at your home that night in Fifty second St? At 11 o'clock. What did you do then? I went to bed. Did you remain in bed all night? Yes sir. What time did you arise in the morning? My mother woke me up half past five. I did not get up till six. I got up, washed and dressed myself and went to work. I worked for Mr. Brown at 934 Sixth Avenue. Was your mother in the house that night when you went home? She was sitting up waiting for me to come in. Anybody else? No, they were in bed, only me and my mother.

 How many were there in the house? There is four of us. How many in your family? Five altogether. You do not occupy the whole of the house? Yes sir. How much of a family have you? There is five of us.
 Were they all in the house that night?
 No sir, my brother was not in; his name is Johnny. Tell your name over those who were there? There is Lilly, Emma, Annie and me and then my father and mother. Did you eat breakfast that Friday morning the 8th? Yes sir.
 With whom did you eat your breakfast?

0922

That morning who were at the table? My mother. Were any of the rest of the family at the table? No sir. Were your sisters? They were in bed. With whom did you work that day? I worked with Mr. Hall. Was he at that place when you arrived there at your work? Yes sir; there was four or five of us got in the stable there; I went to work to clean my horses. After that I hitched them up and put them on the stand. Do you know any thing about the alleged burglary? No sir. Were you in the house 25 West Fifty second St., were you ever in that house? No sir, never in my life. Never broke into it? No sir. Or helped anybody else to break it? No sir. I never have been near the place. Were you ever arrested before? No, only for being tight, I got out the next day. Were you ever incarcerated, sent up to any prison, penitentiary, or anything? No sir. Cross Examined. Margaret Burkland is my mother; I have got a step father. I was at the Grand opera house upon the night of the 7th of June, I could not say what was played, I forget that morning who were at the table? My mother. Were any of the rest of the family at the table? No sir. Were your sisters? They were in bed. With whom did you work that day? I worked with Mr. Hall. Was he at that place when you arrived there at your work? Yes sir; there was four or five of us got in the stable there. I went to work to clean my horses. After that I hitched them up and put them on the stand. Do you know anything about the alleged burglary? No sir. Were you in the house 25 West Fifty second St., were you ever in that house? No sir, never in my life. Never broke into it? No sir. Or helped anybody else to break it? No sir. I never have been near the place. Were you ever arrested before? No, only for being tight, I got out the next day. Were you ever incarcerated, sent up to any prison, penitentiary, or anything? No sir. Cross Examined. Margaret Burkland is my mother; I have got a step father. I was at the Grand opera house upon the night of the 7th of June. I could not say what was played. I forget all about it. I forget the name of the play. Do you remember any of the scenery that was set? No sir, I was too sleepy. I fell asleep before the curtain went up at all. I slept until it was out. Are you sure you entered that opera house that night? Yes sir. You mean the grand opera house corner of Fifth ave. and Twenty Third St.? Yes sir. And that the opera house was opened that night and that you were in it? Yes sir. I was home at 11 o'clock, I looked at the clock when I got home; it was just 11 o'clock when I entered the house. I live 159 West Fifty Second St. That is thirty blocks north of where you said you were at the play? Yes sir. Did you walk or ride? I rode. What time did you leave the play house? It wanted about 20 minutes to eleven. Is the man in the court room you worked for? No sir, I don't see him here; that is Brown. How did you come to tell Officer Cuff when he arrested you that your name was Brown and that you worked for a man at Inwood? I never told him such a thing at all. Then the officer is not telling the truth? No sir, I never told him that Hall, the man I worked for is not here. Where does Brown keep his place of business? No 934, Sixth Avenue Neither of these men are here? No sir, neither of them is here. Did you see Dixon that morning? No sir, I did not see anybody. It was not you that knocked Dixon down? No sir. You did not go over a fence? No sir. You did not see this other man Becker? No sir. What he says about you is not true? No sir. That Dixon says is untrue? Yes sir. I know Carpenter.

0923

 Carpenter says he saw you that morning get over a fence? No sir, it is not true. If it was, I would not say so.
 Counsel for the defendant was permitted to read the deposition of the mother of the defendant in which she stated that he worked at the express business, that he lived with her now and has never lived anywhere else.
 She knew that he was home on the 7th of June last, came home that night at 11 o'clock, went to sleep and slept until the morning of the 8th. She got up at about 2 o'clock for a drink of water and returned to bed again and slept until five o'clock in the morning.

0926

Robert J. M. Campbell sworn and examined by J. H. Byrne. I belong to the 16th precinct and know where the Grand Opera house is situated; it is on the north west corner of 23<sup>d</sup> St. and 8th avenue. There was no performance in that opera house in the week in which the 7th & 8th of June occurred. It was closed.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of burglary in the second degree.

He was sentenced to the State prison for ten years.
