with a regret which is only lessened by the fact that during my tenure of office, through the ability, industry and fidelity of those associated with me in the work

POLICE DEPARTMENT
OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK.
300 MULBERRY STREET.

WILLIAM M. ADOO
POLICE COMMISSIONER.

December 30, 1905.

Hon. George B. McClellan,
Mayor,
New York City.

Sir:

I am in receipt of yours of the 29th instant, requesting my resignation as Police Commissioner, to take effect December 31, 1905.

I take pleasure in complying with your request, which would have been unnecessary had you acquainted me with your wishes in the premises. I stated some time ago that I would not raise a finger to secure a tenure of this office for forty years, and I can now add to that that I would not have continued in <sup>it</sup> ~~this office~~ even if you had requested me to do so.

The circumstances under which I accepted this office from you, and its conduct during my incumbency, entitled me, I submit, to a knowledge of your wishes in the premises, more especially in view of the following correspondence, which speaks for itself, and the fact that within the last few weeks you took occasion to speak of me to others in complimentary terms:

"New York, October 2d, 1905.

"My dear Mr. Mayor:

"On my return late last evening from the office I was very much astonished to learn from an interview attributed to you in the newspapers that you had publicly placed me on trial for alleged official misconduct based upon newspaper allegations of illegal and violent acts upon the part of my subordinates. No citizen has directly or indirectly, or even anonymously, made any charge against police officials in connection with those statements, nor have I had any intimation from you that you were displeased with my official policy in endeavoring to enforce the law against pool selling and other vices, such as our friendly personal relations would have led me to expect.

The misrepresentations and criticisms of unfair and malevolent newspapers would not merit notice from me, except for the fact that they represent you as endorsing their attacks.

The mere suspicion in the public mind of any lack of confidence on your part in me would nullify all my efforts to enforce the laws against the criminal elements, who not only menace the morals and well being of the city but are a constant source of danger in corrupting the police themselves, would demoralize the force of which you are really the head, and would render my continuance in this office intolerable.

You know I only accepted the office at your earnest request and that I will gladly at a mere hint from you lay down this burden of trust and responsibility at any moment. The opposition of those who attack your administration, the malice of the desperate and crooked men whom I am endeavoring to make obey the law, the outrageous libels of unprincipled newspapers; all these I have borne and will bear, but without your confidence and respect I will not consent to remain in this place.

"Very sincerely yours,

(Signed) William McAdoo,
"Police Commissioner. "

"Hon. George B. McClellan,
" Mayor."

" New York, October 3, 1905.

"My dear McAdoo:

"I am indeed sorry that my action of yesterday should have awakened in your mind even the slightest suspicion that you and your administration did not have my fullest confidence. Of course I hold you responsible for the Police Department. You might well complain if I thought to hold any one else.

"The unanimity with which the morning newspapers described the alleged acts of personal violence and of property destruction by the police prompted me to call it to your attention. You doubtless noticed, as I did, that the alleged extraordinary conduct of the Inspector and the Captain of police was conspicuously exploited by a newspaper which has been the steadfast champion of your administration.

"Certainly I need not assure you that I meditated no interference with your policies; but the acts described in the newspapers were themselves so unjustifiable that I felt a sense of duty to the public to ask for an investigation, knowing that if you were satisfied that your subordinates had been guilty of oppression, assault, or other transgression of their lawful powers, that they would be fittingly punished.

"Naturally the thought did not occur to me that you would entertain for one moment the idea that I had in any sense endorsed the newspaper attack upon you.

"With undiminished faith in you and your administration, and with assurances of my personal esteem, I am,

"Yours very truly,

(Signed) "George B. McClellan."

"Hon. William McAdoo,
Commissioner of Police,
300 Mulberry Street, City."

So far as you have ever expressed yourself to me or my friends, you had no cause whatever for keeping me in studied ignorance of your intentions. If a vacancy was desired to be created I should have been consulted with; if we had differed as to a question of policy, it should have been a manly and honest one from which we could have parted as friends; if it related to my personal conduct or that of those under me I should at least have been given a hearing; if you believed that my continuance in this office was an advantage to the public you owed it to them and to me to say so, and to at least have given me the opportunity of refusing in this connection any further honors; or if you were convinced to the contrary, the unusual circumstances under which

I accepted this trust and our personal relations demanded that you should so state to me in that candid and honorable way which prevails among gentlemen.

Very respectfully,

William McAdoo

Police Commissioner.

456 West 153rd Street.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Believing as I do, that your new administration, about to begin, should be entirely free and unhampered at its commencement; and, so that you may, if it be to your mind fit and desirable, reserve such assistance, as I may be able to render, to the new Commissioner of Police at the outset; I have thought it proper to send you herewith my resignation from the office of First Deputy Commissioner of Police, directed

you a very happy "New Year"

My dear Sir :

I tender to you my resignation as City Magistrate.
My term expires next May, and to wait until then, I would much desire to accept.

Thanking you for your uniform courtesy towards me, I remain

Yours very truly,

Park Avenue and Fifty-ninth Street

No. 15 William Street.

New York, September 10th 1906.

Hon. George B. McClellan,

Mayor, etc.,

City Hall, N. Y.

Dear Sir:

Hereby I tender to you my resignation as a member of the Board of Education of the City of New York to which position I was appointed by Hon. Seth Low in May 1903.

It is with great reluctance and regret that I find myself, because of considerations of health and the pressing demands of my family and professional responsibilities and duties, forced to give up the work in which I have been deeply interested for the past three years and more, to the neglect, I may say, of many other activities also worthy of attention; however I shall always look back upon my connection with the Board of Education as one of the greatest opportunities for service in my life.

The necessity of this action being made plain to me, it seems best that it should be taken at the commencement of the school year so that my successor can enter upon the discharge of the duties of the office with the reopening of the schools.

Please accept my thanks for the many courtesies received at your hands while I, as President of the Board, had closer official relations with you, and believe me,

Very respectfully yours

Dear George:-

I beg to enclose herewith a formal letter or

There are other considerations which I shall be very glad to give you, as soon as I have an opportunity to call.

Thanking you for your consideration in this matter,
and with kind regards, believe me,

Sir

I beg leave to tender you my resignation as Commissioner of Street Cleaning to take effect immediately. When you informed me that you desired to continue me Commissioner
I said to me that it was your wish that I should discharge my duties as I have discharged them under the Administration of Mr. Low and that you would "Keep the politicians off my back" to quote your own expression. Your attitude has undergone so marked a change in the last particular and you are now so insistent upon the injection of politics into my department that I am satisfied that my utility and effectiveness as Commissioner must presently cease and determine. as it is therefore no longer possible for me to administer the office with a decent regard for the Public Service or consistently with the maintenance of my self respect I demand that I be relieved of my responsibilities

My dear Mr. Mayor:-

I shall probably be sworn in before Christmas as a Justice of the Supreme Court and believe that my resignation as a Trustee of the College of the City of New York should be accepted before I do so.

Of course, I am profoundly grateful to you for having afforded me the privilege of serving the City as a Trustee of the College. It is a great work which commends itself to everyone who comes in touch with it.

I shall always feel a deep interest in the progress of the College of the City of New York and watch its growth and usefulness with genuine pleasure.

RECEIVED
★ DEC 24 1906 ★
MAYOR'S OFFICE
New York, December 22nd, 1906.

Honorable George B. Mc Clellan,
Mayor.

My dear Sir:

ACKNOWLEDGED
DEC 26 1906
Actual experience of the work of the Rapid Transit Commission has convinced me that I was correct in expressing to you, at the time of my appointment as a member of the Commission, the grave doubt which I entertained as to whether it would be possible for me to devote to the office the time and attention necessary for the efficient discharge of its duties in a manner satisfactory to myself.

I accepted the position, as you know, with very great reluctance, because of this doubt, and now that I find it confirmed by actual experiment, I am not willing to continue to occupy an office which I feel could be better and more efficiently filled by someone having more time and opportunity to devote his best energies to the work. I feel that the importance of the questions coming before this Commission is such as to demand from its members the very best they are capable of doing.

For these reasons I beg to tender you my resignation as a Rapid Transit Commissioner.

I have the honor to be,

Very respectfully yours,

Dear Mr. Mc Clellan:

I am much obliged to you for your kind letter in regard to my resignation as Rapid Transit Commissioner.

As I told you over the telephone to-day, I regret very much that I feel compelled to relinquish this work, and it adds to my regret that you, with all the manifold duties which press upon you, should have the bother of casting about for my successor. I would gladly save you this if I felt it were within my power.

Very sincerely yours,
