that said defendant came to deponent's place of business No 2352 8th Avenue and falsely represented that he was

Mr. J. J. Sullivan
Dear Sir,

Yours containing to me the distressing intelligence of the arrest of John G. Dohme received this A. M. in Baltimore. forwarded by my wife. I can most cheerfully testify to the good character of John. To the best of my knowledge his morals were irreproachable until his recent peak of visiting New York, but even this was known to his parents from whom he won a reluctant consent. John attended my church regularly & was well up in his studies in the High School. he frequents

by visited my study & I have they learn to believe him an honest upright boy. & it must have been that he has been carried away by some sudden temptation. I have never heard a word against him & much in his favor. & I do pray to God most earnestly & plead for forgiveness of what I am sure must be his first offence. I know I could if at home procure certificates from such well known citizens of Dayton as Mr. Alex. Gebhart his Superintendent & others. John has been somewhat negligent of his Sunday School for some time but this ought not to weigh against him

Respectfully Yours

N. Y., May 6 1884

My dear Sir,

Some two weeks since a charge was made upon the complaint of Louis Sommers against
W. H. Parmore of 125th St. (Harlem) of having feloniously used a stolen horse belonging to Sommers.

The charge was a ridiculous one and the Grand Jury refused to find an indictment.

I am informed that another attempt will be made to have Mr Garnett indicted and I call the matter to your attention, with the request that you will see that no injustice is done.

I have long known Mr Garnett

Answer. I am not guilty of the charge. This man Duggitt came into my yard and asked one of my employees as I am informed that Duggitt desired to sell a horse. I went out, into the yard, and asked him where he got him. That said Duggitt replied that it belonged to him, and that he resided in Jersey and that he was in the Express business. I asked him where the wagon was & he replied that he did not have any. I asked him how much he desired for the horse and he replied \$100. I told him to wait a moment and I went into my office & I told a man named Pake who was there at the time that there boy leave him in the stable. I asked the boy if he would leave the horse with ~~you~~<sup>me</sup> until Monday and if there was nothing against him I would give him a \$100. Monday after 12 o'clock Mr. Pake said that if I did not purchase him that he would. The boy said he would leave him if I paid \$ $\frac{500}{100}$  deposit which I did <sup>and</sup> kept the horse
