New York Sept. 24/83

Hon John M. Keon
District Attorney.

Dear Sir.

In March

1881 I caused the arrest of my husband
Charles Moffat for the crime of bigamy.

Up to the time of his arrest - he had always been a good husband to me and we had always lived quiet and peacefully together - I am informed since his arrest that my husband was greatly under the influence of liquor at the time of his second marriage and was unconscious of the act of which he is charged.

Since his discharge upon his own recognizance we have been living together again as husband and wife and I have 0292

fully and freely forgiven him for the wrong he committed

My husband follows the sea
and is now absent from this County.

I have been for sometime in ill-health and am about to dispose of my furniture and live with my husband abroad.

As I have fully forgiven him
and as he has been a good and kind husband to me I respectfully ask that you do not prosecute
the charge against him.

Respectfully Yours.

Court of General Sessions

The People of the

vs

Charles M. Maffitt
otherwise called

City and County of New York.

James P. Brennan being duly sworn says Says that he is the attorney for the above defendant.

That on the 14 day of March 1882 the above defendant was indicted by the Grand Jurors in and for the City and County of New York for the Crime of Burgamy.

That the issue of fact has been joined herein
by said defendant, pleading not guilty to said indictment, and the cause has been on the calendar of this Court, and that the trial thereof has been set down for the 12th day of April 1882.

H That the said defendant has fully and fairly and fairly stated the case to deponent, his Counsel and from such statements made to deponent, the said defendant has no deponents

opinion a good and substantial defense herein -

- That in order to safely go to trial and therefore defend said action, and properly secure all rights of said defendant, it is necessary and material to examine one Albert Lee at Bremerhafen in the Empire of Germany in order to prove and establish that said Augusta Wilhelmina Beckmann mentioned and described in the indictment, herein was at and prior to the time of her alleged marriage to this defendant, as charged in said indictment, the lawful and subsisting ^{wife} of said Albert Lee, by virtue of a contract of marriage theretofore entered between her and the said Lee, which at the time of her alleged marriage to this defendant was and still is in full force, validity and effect, and that by reason of her said undissolved marriage to said Lee, she was incapable of entering into any marriage contract with any other person, and that consequently her said alleged marriage to the defendant, if any in fact was contracted, was absolutely void ab initio, and of no force and effect whatsoever - and therefore the marriage, charged in the said indictment, contracted with Annie Murtha therein named, was valid and legal, such as the defendant had a legal right to contract - and therefore
- 5
- 6 The defendant is not guilty of the crime of Bigamy charged in said indictment

2

That the testimony of said Albert Lee is necessary and material for the Defendant in order to establish and prove the foregoing matters, on behalf of defendant, and that in deponent's opinion defendant cannot safely proceed to trial of this action, without the evidence of said Lee in that behalf, and without such evidence the liberty of the Defendant would be greatly imperilled -

That the said Albert Lee resides at Bremerhaven in the Empire of Germany as herein before mentioned and as deponent is informed and verily believes to be true -

No previous similar application has been made.

That a commission to examine said Lee is therefore prayed for - and deponent asks for an order do how cause directed to the District Attorney, why such commission should not issue & why the trial of this action should not be stayed in the meanwhile & until the return of said Commission & why the Defendant should not have such other & further relief as may be just.

1st.

Defendant's Request.

Charge

Before the jury can convict of the crime of rape, they must find beyond ^{reasonable} doubt on the evidence that complainant resisted the defendant to her utmost extent.

2d.

Charge

The fact that the complainant was the daughter of the defendant, did not relieve her of the necessity of resisting the defendant to her utmost extent, and with all the means at her command.

3d.

Before the jury can convict the deft of the crime of rape, they must find, from the evidence, that the resistance on the part of the complainant was made before ^{or at the time} the consummation of the act.

4th.

The fact that the complainant did not make an immediate complaint to any person must necessarily ^{be} used to discredit her after-statements.

5

The fact that the complainant has made different statements under oath as to the time when the alleged crime was committed necessarily tends to discredit her statements.

6

The jury will also consider the fact that there is testimony in this case to the effect that the complainant's ~~character~~ reputation for truth and veracity is bad, and if they so find they must disregard her whole testimony.

7-

If the jury find that the complainant testified falsely in one statement, they may find all her statements false.

C. 8121 Continued
 5 April 1882. Off. Wilson was informed by Off. James Murphy of 4th Prec. that Capt. Webb of 7th Prec. and Officer O'Sullivan of 4th Prec. have both been called on by the Defense. Sullivan was in the School of Instruction with Moraw prior to Moraw's appointment. What Webb and Sullivan can or will say, Murphy does not know. But Murphy says that O'Sullivan does know that Moraw was found drunk in a cart or truck whilst on duty and was "broken" on that account.

Off. Murphy also states that Off. Donald McLean was with him at time of arrest. When they both went into Moraw's rooms, McLean stood by Moraw, who was sitting shrouled on a chair, whilst he Murphy took Nellie into bed room to question her. On Nellie answering him affirmatively, he came out with her and said to Moraw: "You're a nice sucker ain't you. Is that true being?" turning to Nellie. — "Yes, he has done it," replied Kelly.

 Moran knew full well what was meant, for he was not drunk, though seemed to be recovering from the effects of drink. Moran did not say a word in his defense. Nor did his wife who was present.

On bringing Moran to Court next morning, Off Murphy remarked to him: "You're a fine loafer to do that kind of business." To this Moran replied, "Well if I did do it,
 I must have been drunk, I don't remember anything of it."

N. Y. GENERAL SESSIONS.

The People
against Thomas Moran.

BRIEF FOR THE PEOPLE.

The prisoner is indicted for RAPE and INCEST on his own daughter Nellie Moran aged 14 at No. 52 Oliver Street, on Thursday, February 16, 1882.

EVIDENCE FOR THE PEOPLE.

NELLIE MORAN. - Was 14 years old last November. Father's name is Thomas Moran and she lives with her father and mother and brothers and sisters at No. 52 Oliver Street.

On Thursday February 16, 1882, in the afternoon about 1 o'clock her mother had gone out to visit somebody. A Mrs. Welsh came in drunk, went into the bed room and laid down upon the bed. Prisoner had come home to dinner drunk. First he went into the bed room where Mrs. Welsh was, and shut the door. Then he came out. Then he went in again and witness heard Mrs. Welsh say "Stop Tom." Prisoner then came out into the outer room where witness was washing dishes. "He had on his shirt and drawers but not his pants. He took me by the ear and led me into the bed room. He then seized me and threw me over Mrs. Welsh on the bed where she was lying stupidly drunk. He then got on me. I saw his privates before he did so. He tore down my drawers which do not open in front but button at the sides. I struggled and tried to get up but he was too strong for me. He entered my body with his private parts. He hurt me so that I hollered out and then he put his hand over my mouth and told me to hush. He staid on me some time and heard my brother come to the door. Then he jumped up and got off me. I went back to the dishes and he got his pipe and went and laid down on the other bed. Mother returned shortly after. I did not tell her until Saturday because of the shame. I did not feel sore until Friday afternoon. On Saturday I felt so sore I could hardly walk and when mother asked me to hand her her shoes I told her I could not stoop down. She asked me what was the matter and then I told her what father had done to me. My brother Charles heard me tell her.

Father first got on me when I was 9 or 10 years old. I think we then lived at 69 Oliver Street. Mother was out and he put me on the bed and got on me and hurt me. I was then examined by a doctor at the Five Points Mission.

Father has several times come to my bed in the night and felt of my person and tried to get in bed with me, but I would wake up and then he would go back again to his own bed. I have laid awake all night for fear of him. He has often tried to persuade me to take hold of his privates; but I would not do so, but used to go out and wait until mama came home.

OFFICER JAMES MURPHY (4th Precinct.)

Was on duty corner of Oak and Oliver streets on Saturday night February 19, 1882. At a quarter before twelve, Charles Moran brother of Nellie came to him and asked him to arrest his father who was then beating his mother at 52 Oliver Street, top floor, rear house. He further stated that his father had had sexual intercourse with Nellie on Thursday previous. Witness went with Officer Donald McCann to 52 Oliver Street. Prisoner was sitting shoeless on a chair. Witness took Nellie into the bed room and questioned her, the other officer remaining with the prisoner. Nellie told witness her story and witness then came out and said to prisoner "You are a nice sucker, aint you. Is that true sissy?" Nellie said "yes, he has done it." Neither the prisoner nor his wife who was present, said anything. Witness then arrested prisoner, took him to the 4th Precinct Station House and took Nellie to Chambers Street Hospital where Surgeon Murray examined her. Next morning witness took prisoner to Court and said to him "You're a fine loafer to do that kind of business." Prisoner replied "Well if I did do it, I must have been drunk, I dont remember anything of it."

OFFICER DONALD MC CANN. Will corroborate above.

SURGEON WILLIAM H. MURRAY. Is Ambulance Surgeon at the Chambers Street Hospital. The girl Nellie Moran was brought there by Officer Murphy about 1 A. M., Monday, February 20, and was examined by witness, who found her private parts congested, swollen and looked bruised. Did not examine thoroughly as it was so late and had no power to give certificate. Told officer to bring girl back in the morning.

DR. J. W. RANNEY. 17 East 46th Street. Practicing physician in this City. On February 20, 1882, made an examination of the child Nellie Moran, found that her hymen had been ruptured and that her private parts were sufficiently open to admit his index finger without difficulty. There was at that time but little inflammation.

MRS. MORAN. Wife of the prisoner and mother of Nellie, who is 13 years old. On Thursday February 16, 1882, she left her acquaintance, a Mrs. Welsh, in her house, who was intoxicated. Witness went out to get something for dinner. On her returning in half an hour's time, found Mrs. Welsh there and Nellie. The girl told her about the outrage on Saturday.

[Mother knows of previous attempts when child was taken to Five Points Mission 3 years ago, but is not safe witness for prosecution. Better rely on shrewd cross-examination.]

MISS N. ELLIOTT. Teacher at Five Points Mission, and knows the parties. "It is 6 or 7 years since the Morans first came to Mission. Mrs. Moran then came for help and she Miss Elliott visited the family. The Mission assisted them all through the Winter. Mr. Moran attended the Mission services and declared himself "converted." She (Miss Elliott) informed Mr. Brown, then Supt. of Mission, Moran was "no more converted than her old shoe." Subsequent facts have proved the truth of Miss Elliott's opinion. She has frequently visited the family during these 6 years, and has frequently seen him drunk and has still more frequently seen the effects of his drinking and his violence under its influence, in the broken furniture and general appearance of home. By reputation in the house, Moran was always represented to her as a very wild, violent man when under the effects of drink. On one occasion Miss Elliott was strongly urged not to trust herself up-stairs in Moran's rooms as he was very drunk and would think nothing of "pitching her down stairs." She went up, however. Moran himself has always treated her respectfully. She does not believe he knows what he does when drunk. He never remembered when sober what she had said to him when drunk. He never remembered even having seen her. Miss. Elliott remembers Mrs. Moran coming to Mission some few years ago with Nellie; - remembers Mrs. Moran beginning to tell the story of Mr. Moran's indecency with Nellie. She Miss Elliott then went out, not wishing to hear it. She knows Dr. Merrill was called in to examine Nellie to ascertain whether injured by her father."
