JOHN McKEON, District Attorney.

0966

City Prison Oct 9th 1833.
Judge- Your Honor, as I have tried and find I cannot have the liberty to speak to you at the Bar, I avise myself of this method.

at times, an understanding is worth a mans life-at the present, it is worth considerable to me - I am accused of having picked a Citizens pocket; have been held here since the 16th of September - have been called to court - six or seven times, and my accuser was absent every time. I may be wrong in thinking I am entitled to a discharge, But if so, it is no fault of mine, as the District attorney

promised me when I had been down five times that he would release me once more, and if there was no prosecutor he would let me off. But I am sorry to say he failed to make his promise good, so I determined to apply to you. God knows I am as innocent of the charge preferred against me, Sir as you are, and I am led to believe that in all criminal prosecutions the accused ought to enjoy the right to a speedy trial: I have no money to employ a lawyer - so ask of you as a personal favor to do what you deem justice in my case, so as I can come to something definite.

I belong in Charleston S.C. and my friends are all there.
I am very poor and would like very much to get out of here, and home before the cold weather sets in.
and of course it will take me some time to earn it, my fare, so by complying with this,
you will confer a favor on me, ever to be remembered.

Yours most Humbly.

Richard H. Scott.
