says that on the 30th day of April 1883.

at the City of New York, in the County of New York, Thomas M'Laughlin

(now here) did unlawfully and feloniously ^{and with intent to commit suicide} with intent to take his own life; commit an act dangerous to human life.

From the fact that deponent is informed by John W. Blunt, that at or about the hour of Five O'clock P.M. on said date he discovered the said M'Laughlin in a cell of the 8th Precinct Station House. hanging from a bar of the Cell being suspended by having a handkerchief tied ~~around~~ around his neck, and fastened to an iron bar of the Cell door, from which he the said Blunt released the said M'Laughlin.

Deponent is further informed by Officer Dunn, that at or about the hour of six O'clock P.M. on said date he was sent by Captain M'Donnell, to the Cell of the said M'Laughlin to watch him, and found him in the act of tying a handkerchief to one of the iron bars of the Cell. And the handkerchief tied tight around his neck.

Deponent therefore Charges the said M'Laughlin with a violation of Title 9. Chapter 1. Section 174 of the Penal Code of the State of New York. and prays that he may be dealt with as the law directs

To the Officers of Police, and Patrolmen, of the Police Department of said City, and to each of them:

Whereas, complaint on oath has been made before me one of the Police Justices in the City of New York, by William Ellis of No. 12

Prince Street, that the premises known as No. 153 Bleecker Street in said City, are kept and maintained by William Mc John Roe a short stout man with red hair and Richard Roe a short stout man. as a Gambling House and a place of resort for idle and disorderly persons, to gamble and play at cards and games of chance for money in violation of the law, and to the common nuisance of the People of the State of New York, and that in said premises on or about the 19th day of June 18*82* said William Mc John Roe and Richard Roe did feloniously win means of dealing and playing the game called Quadrille and that upon and within said premises may be found faro and other gambling tables, checks, cards, devices and apparatus used solely for the purpose of gambling, and the discovery of which might tend to establish the truth of said complaint.

These are therefore, in the name of the People of the State of New York, to Command you, the said Officers and Patrolmen, and each of you, to enter the said premises and therein make diligent search for such gambling tools, devices and apparatus, and if such be found to bring the same forthwith before me, or some other Police Justice for said City together with the said William Mc John Roe and Richard Roe and all other idle and disorderly per-

The People
Charles Meyer } Court of General Sessions. Part I.
Indictment for burglary. Before Recorder Smyth. June 24. 1883

Thomas Kelly sworn and examined. I live 209 Avenue B., am in the liquor business; on the 11th of May about 2 o'clock in the afternoon I lost an overcoat. I paid $48 for it last winter a year ago. I suppose it is reduced in value, it would be worth about $25 now I suppose. I went out at about eleven o'clock and returned about two. I had the overcoat in my room. I locked the door and took the key with me. Then I came back I found the door open and I found the prisoner on the sill of the door coming out. He must have had the overcoat on him, for if he had it on his arm I would have seen it. We found the overcoat with him in the adjoining building, the next hallway. I did not take hold of the prisoner at first, for I did not suspect him; he did not run past me. I went in the room and I saw in a moment that the closet was empty of my clothing. I went out, I ran to the corner, I did not find him right away. I next saw him at the hall door of the next building; it was the same building I found the coat in; we got the coat from him; the coat was taken from him by a young man and handed to me. Cross Examined. It was three hours from the time I locked my room to the time I got back again I judge the prisoner broke in by his coming out. I cannot swear that he had my coat on; he walked quietly passed me; it was so short a distance, it was not more than about two feet, he took and turned down and I turned into the room. He said something but I don't know what it was. David W. Alexander sworn. I am an officer of the 11th precinct. I arrested the defendant. I found that eight barrelled pepper box (pistol) in his hand and he dropped a skeleton key which I found. I had a hole in my pocket and I have lost it. I arrested him at 644 Thirteenth St. on the top story of a tenement house on the 11th alley about 2 o'clock I followed him from Avenue C. I did not find the coat. You had no conversation with the prisoner? No sir. Charles Meyer, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I heard the testimony against me. I went to this place on business. I am a canvassing agent for the Metallic Spring Bed Co., Reeves. I went there with the intention of making a sale, as I am in the habit of going into dwellinghouses. When I came to this door I saw it open, I opened the door, I looked in, I closed it behind me, I came out, and as I came out I met Mr. Kelly, I bid him the time of day and I passed him and I went into the next house on the business of canvassing and I got no sale. I came out of that house and went into the next house and I saw a commotion outside the street, I thought it probable that somebody would want to arrest me for not having a license for canvassing, as I had been told by several officers that I should have a license to canvass. Then I got kind of excited and I went into a woman's room. I said to the lady to allow me to stay in here a few moments and the excitement will be over, and before I had time to get out the officer came in and took me out. Had you any Skeleton Key about you? No sir, I had that article (the pistol) The certificate now shown is one which my wife got from the Spring Bed Co.

0759

0760

0761

My right name is Charles J. Walker. I would not like any publication of this matter in order to shield my wife; it is not that I am ashamed of my name, but domestic circumstances. You deny positively taking anything from that room, any coat?
Yes sir, I deny it. I did not have the coat and did not take it. I looked in the door of the room, I saw everything was in commotion and I pulled the door two again. I did not go inside the room. I stood halfway across the threshold, closed the door behind me and came out.
Cross Examined. I kept that eight barreled revolver about me because there are a good many agents canvassing for the same firm that accused me of underselling them. I was to get $2.40 on every mattress sold, and if I would get $2 I would let it go. I kept the pistol to try to protect myself. I had no Skeleton Key; the officer did not take any Key from me. I had a model of the bed and my wife brought it back to Mr. Reeves and got a certificate to that effect. I am living in 71 Avenue A since January. I am canvassing since January.
The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of grand larceny in the second degree.
