jointly indicted with the first degree.

Court of General Sessions Part II
Before Judge Cowing
July 15-1889 Indictment for grand larceny in

Jacob Brannett, sworn and examined, testified. I live 331 East 48th street and am a driver; on the night of the 3^d of June I had a watch and the same chain that is on it now. The watch now shown me is mine; the watch is worth $38 and the locket and chain is worth six dollars. and I had nine or ten dollars in money. Morgan and McDonald met me about three o'clock that morning between Second and Third sts. It was fastened in my vest by a bar. They forced me to drink with them in the Brewery between Second and Third sts. I told them I must be home at four o'clock to be at my work. Then they said, "O, you have plenty of money; we are going to see a friend; come along with us. I refused to go along and they took me by the arm, both of them; they ran with me on the sidewalk and we went to a liquor store at the corner of Pell

St. and the Bowery. I never knew the men before. When I came out I was dizzy and was ~~not~~ able to walk around but I did not know where ~~he~~ was. I was in the saloon about a quarter of an hour; they came with me outside and they took the money and watch from me in front of the hall; one held my hand and the other took the watch and put one piece of chain into the place and fastened it. I could not tell who did it; then I walked away and they went away I believe toward Pell St. I walked through the Bowery and I met officers Bischoff and Day. The officer spoke to me and told me something about my chain. I looked and saw I had a piece of strange chain on me. The policeman said I should go along to the station house. I did not give my watch and chain to either of these men nor the money; it was taken without my will and consent. I had a five dollar bill, a single dollar - it must be about eight or nine dollars altogether. Cross Examined. The money was found on the defendant but the little one (McDonald) took it; the defendant took the watch. I drive for Jack Levy, who buys fat from butchers. This was on a Sunday night. I rode down from 48th st. to Canal street about four o'clock in the afternoon. I went down Catherine St. and looked at the boats and went to Castle Garden and stayed there about half an hour. I was looking at a fire somewhere around Chamber St. I was not drunk that day. Now and then I took a glass of beer but it did not hurt me - I took about four or five glasses. While they were taking me by the arm I saw different persons but I did not know any one. I did not halloo. I did not say to them that I would stay out all night until I saw a female. They said, "Let us go there and we will have fun there, and in the morning you may go to your work anyhow." I had two drinks in the saloon in Pell St. I did not commence to halloo because I was afraid if I did they would beat me. I did not leave the saloon with a woman. I spoke with a woman at the bar maybe half an hour and had one drink with her. I left her there and went away with the defendants. I went to the Police Court the next morning. I talked with a relative of mine there about the case, Charlie Reifstack. I did not say to him that I would like to catch the woman who stole the ring. I did not say anything else but I was robbed of my watch and chain and money. I got the watch by belonging to a club and paying a dollar every week. I did not want to swap that watch with anybody that night. The chain which was hanging from my vest when the officer spoke to me did not look like mine.

Henry C. Bischoff sworn. I am an officer attached to the Sixth precinct and was on duty on the night of the 3rd of June in Pell St. I saw the complainant that night. Between 20 minutes and 2 1/2 o'clock. I was standing in Pell St. below Dyer. I saw the complainant walking down Pell St. between McDonald and Marpan; they came down to almost where I was standing, they cut kind of cat-cornered across the street the three of them; they got as far as the hallway of 21st when the complainant was about going in, one of them said - I don't know which one - "Come on here, we will introduce you as Jackson and it will be all right, he is a friend of ours." They went in. I stayed there about ten or fifteen minutes on the other side of the way and then walked up towards the Barbary. I saw Officer Day on the corner; we were standing talking; a little while after that Brandt came staggering up. I should judge ten or fifteen minutes after. About 15 or 30 minutes elapsed from the time I first saw him until I saw him alone. Day said, "a fellow has lost his 'super' (meaning 'watch')". I turned around and saw the complainant.

I caught him by the shoulder and saw a piece of a chain hanging down, it was attached to his vest. I had some talk with him and took him down to No 20 Bell St. Officer Day and I saw found the two prisoners coming out of the hallway, the defendant being one of them. I did not say anything at the time.
I grabbed Morgan and ran him in the back part where there was a light and put him up in the corner and I commenced to search his clothes. I said, "There is that watch?" He (the defendant) said, "I have not got that watch." I searched him on the outside, I went down ^{in the} inside of the coat and I pulled the watch out of the vest pocket. Brandt grabbed it and said, "That is my watch." I took it out of Morgan's vest pocket; a chain was attached to it outside of his vest. I took the watch off the chain and left the chain on Morgan and put the watch in my pocket and took Morgan to the Station house. Day followed with the other prisoner. The complainant did not say anything about swapping a watch. Officer Day found the money. I could not say what amount. The complainant walked along. He was not as drunk the first time as he was the second. I should not say he was very drunk. I did not get near enough to see if he was under the influence of liquor. Cross Examined. The second time I saw him he was very drunk. The first he knew he was robbed was when I told him the chain was hanging down. The prisoners were coming out of the side door of the saloon.

Dennis Day sworn. I am attached to the Sixth Precinct. I have heard the testimony of officer Bischoff concerning the facts which took place previous to the arrest of the defendants on the night of June 3; they are correct. I was standing on the corner of Pell St. and the Bowery when officer Bischoff, I got talking, and after a while the complainant came along. Bischoff had his back towards the complainant, and I saw a small part of the chain hanging down from his vest. I called the officer's attention to it. He turned around and got hold of the complainant. He asked him where his watch was? He said, "My watch is gone." Bischoff said, "Come, I know those two who were with you." I went down Pell St. with the officer in front of 28, which is a saloon; we went in the hall way and met McDonald and Morgan coming out; this was three o'clock in the morning. I took hold of McDonald and Bischoff took hold of Morgan and took the watch out of his pocket. I did not hear the talk he had with him.

POOR QUALITY

0324

We brought them to the station house. I searched Morgan and found in his vest a Waterbury watch and I took the money now shown me from him $8.12, consisting of a five dollar bill, a one dollar bill, a silver dollar, four quarters, a five cent piece and three pennies. I had no talk with him when I searched him. I spoke to him next morning going down to Court; he said he did not take the watch. I said, the watch was found on you. I saw the chain now shown me on his person when officer Bischoff took it off him in the hallway; the officer took the watch off and left the chain hanging on his vest, and on the way to the station house Morgan dropped the chain in Bayard St. It was not missed till we got to the station house. I asked him where the chain was, and he said he did not know. After locking him up I came along the route we took towards the station house and I found the chain in Bayard St. on the sidewalk in front of Butts' stable.

Cross Examined. I did not see or hear the chain drop. I don't know whether Bishop took the chain from him. The defendant did not tell me that he swapped the watch and paid the complainant ten dollars for another one; he did not say anything at all that morning about swapping the watch. I was there when the watch was found upon him, the chain was exposed, so that anybody could see it. I don't know where the small part of a chain that Brandt had on is. I saw it when it was handed to the Sergeant in the station house and saw it the next morning in the Police Court; the Sergeant sent it to the property clerk.

Joseph Morgan, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I live 145 DeKalb Avenue, Brooklyn, and at the time of my arrest I was stopping in the New England hotel. I am a messenger on the Brighton beach race track during the racing season for the last two or three summers. I have never been arrested before or convicted of any crime. I met the complainant the night of the second of June, Sunday, and was with him to the morning of the third.

I met him in the Bowery in a saloon. On the night in question I was going down the Bowery about half past twelve or a quarter to one. I stepped in a saloon above Grand st. to have a glass of beer and when I went in I saw M^c Donald sitting at a table drinking a glass of beer. We were sitting talking there for about ten minutes when Brandt walked over with a glass of beer in his hand and sat down at the table with us. He said, "There are all the girls tonight that sing and dance?" I said, "You have got in the wrong place, there is no girls here. He said, "it is a place like this I have been in once before. M^c Donald said, "you will find plenty around if you look for them, but not in here. He asked us to drink a glass of beer and we did, and we were talking about girls. I said to M^c Donald, "I will go down to bed." M^c Donald and I went out and Brandt followed us. Then we got near Canal st. there was a wagon ~~dropped~~ down and five or six milk cans upset in the street. Brandt helped the man to pick them up. I asked him where he lived? He said, up town. I says, "What are you going down town for?" He says, "I have got to catch a girl to night if I stay out all night." Going along the street every woman we passed he would point to. McDonald said, "if you keep in that funny business you maybe locked up before morning." Then we got down to the New England hotel I said, "I guess I will go to bed." Brantt said, "Come in and I will treat you." He went in and had a glass of beer and he asked if there were girls in that place. I asked a fellow named Sam who was there about girls and he said we could find plenty around the corner in Bell St. Brantt invited McDonald and I to go around, but I said I was going to bed. McDonald said he never saw an opium joint and we had better go down and have a little sport. We started down the Bowery into Bell St.; we walked in, I am slightly acquainted with the barkeeper. There was five or six women in the back room and a couple of men in front and a Chinaman and a woman at the bar drinking. We had a couple of glasses of beer

0328

Brandt got looking round at the girls asking were they crooked. I said I supposed so. He was going to treat again and said, "I have not much money left. I think I will have to pawn my watch tomorrow. We got talking about watches and the result was we made a bargain to exchange watches and I gave him my watch and ten dollars for his watch. I gave him ten dollars in bills. He treated afterwards and he took a woman up to the bar and treated her. He went back and sat down beside her and put his arm round her waist. ^{He} ~~He~~ ^{went out with her.} ~~He~~ ^{Donald} and I were starting out of the side door and it was dark. I heard a voice in the hallway saying, "Where are you going?" I saw two officers. Brandt seemed to be very drunk, he was staggering. They took us back and commenced to take my watch. He took it off me and they arrested us and took us to the station house. I paid $18 for my watch six or eight months in the Brewery. I did not steal his watch and chain or money.

Cross Examined: My right name is Joseph Moran.

Henry C. Bischoff recalled. I heard the defendant answer the usual questions to the Magistrate. He made no explanation except to say he was not guilty. Nobody prevented him from making an explanation. The complainant had only a few pennies in his pocket for he turned out his pockets. The reason why I did not take the chain off Brandt was because I thought it was his. There was no woman with the complainant when he left the saloon; there was no other party in the street but these three men. I can see from one end of my post to the other.

Jacob Brandt recalled. I made no bargain with the defendant about watches and I had no woman with me when I left the saloon. It is all untrue what the defendant says on those points. I was not drunk when I came out of the saloon, but I was dizzy. I went round the corner to where the policeman was. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of grand larceny in the first degree. He was sent to the State prison for seven years.

VERSUS

Susan Minor

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself and for the further reason that I was as much to blame as the defendant, as I had no business to enter her apartment at the hour of one o'clock in the morning - I cannot positively swear that she (the defendant) assaulted me with a knife - I fell against some panes of glass which got broken and I may have cut myself with some of the broken pieces - she (the defendant) has been locked up about a month and I think she has suffered enough for her ~~an~~ foolish act in quarrelling with me. so far as I know she is a decent woman and I therefore hope she may be discharged
