THE WORK
ASHORE AND AFLOAT,

BEING THE THIRD REPORT

The Berachah Mission

NO. 463 WEST 32D STREET,

NEW YORK,

From Sept. 1st, 1887, to Nov. 1st, 1888.

Founded Nov. 1st, 1885.

Incorporated April 9, 1887.

MR. & MRS. HENRY NAYLOR,

FOUNDERS AND MANAGERS.

BERACHAH MISSION
ANNUAL REPORT.

Introductory Remarks.

We have arrived at the end of the third year of our labor for our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, and we feel that both time and circumstances demand a record of our battling for God. It may seem a small thing to record simple facts, but when we would commence, so large a number come to hand and so many witnesses rise up and ask a place, that we scarcely know which to take and which to leave. One thing is certain—though at times the struggle has brought its anxieties and seeming difficulties—it has proved a year of blessing and victory, not only in our own souls, but to those amongst whom the Lord has called us to labor. The victory appears to be the greater when we consider the locality, poverty-haunted and crime-stained as it is.

It would be as well, perhaps, to give a brief description of the quarter of the city where have raised the banner of the cross, as this report will find its way into the hands of many who are unacquainted with our surroundings. The locality especially reached by the efforts of the mission has become so notorious that it has been named and is inhabited by vast numbers of poor fallen specimens of humanity, who seem to have become the special prey of Satan.

The Founders

Hell's Kitchen,

The district lies on the west side of the city, and covers several blocks between Thirtieth and Fortieth streets, and takes in also the North River front, a queer mixture of saloons, warehouses and tenement houses, into many of the rooms of which the sun never shines, and rear buildings hid away behind these wretched habitations called homes. When one, in visitation, goes into them, how stifling, filthy and stenchful they are, abounding in human life. One can scarcely help wondering how it can be expected that anything pure and good can exist or come out from such incongenial surroundings.

If its history could be written it would appall the stoutest heart, for the little that is known of its record is made up of robbery, outrage and murder. It is a horrible, desperate, brutal neighborhood. The city authorities have frequently sent a detachment of police to invade it and capture some criminal who has been preying outside its borders.

It is in the center of these evil surroundings that this mission has been planted. The actual results accomplished, the devotion and ceaseless labor of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Naylor and the band of devoted men and women they have gathered round them, most of whom brought to Jesus through their instrumentality, eternity alone can reveal. Who could have hoped that out of such small beginnings such blessed results would have been secured? It only shows what the devoted labors of only one, when undertaken in the strength of Christ, will accomplish.

During the past year the work and truths of salvation have been carried on and preached to nearly every class of the community, special efforts having been made to reach the seamen, for whose benefit services are held during each week on board the ships lying in dock, and for whose use reading rooms have been opened both at the mission and 481 Canal street. The railroad men, street-car men, firemen and police officers have also had special care and attention, and we give a few statistics to show in some slight degree what we have by the strength of God been enabled to do.

Number of *meetings held	1,480
Total number of attendances of Voluntary Workers taking part in the meetings	7,160
Number of individual attendances at all meetings	195,863
Number of visits made	3,509
Number of testimonies given	9,122
Number of persons deciding for Christ, and anxious inquirers	1,594
Number of Scripture invitations, books, cards, pages of tracts, Scriptures, etc.	221,954
Letters written for unemployed men	150
Spiritual counsel given to inquirers, Supt's office	200

*These meetings include street, indoor and Evangelistic meetings, special gatherings for railroad men, policemen, firemen, Hebrews and children, and weekly sewing meetings for women.

Yours in His service,

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. BLANDY,
Resident Superintendents, 463 W. 32d St.

Street Services.

It is a noteworthy fact that among the floating population of our great cities a large proportion of the masses of humanity cannot be induced to enter the churches of the present day, or any place of worship, and were it not that God had raised up means to erect missions in the neglected but crowded thoroughfares, this great body of people seemingly indifferent to their eternal welfare, through the allurements of the gilded saloons and dens of vice, and the many so-called worldly pleasures that the devil is constantly placing before them to lure them on to ruin, would have as little prospect of hearing the gospel as the heathen in far-off lands. But these little oases in the great desert of sin have been instrumental in bringing the story of Jesus to these perishing masses, and through the infinite mercy of a loving God who wills that none should be lost, have also been the means of bringing to the notice of the consecrated workers who have given their lives to this neglected branch of the Lord's work, and who are ever watchful of any and every means of reaching these poor souls, that there is still another and lower strata in the religious scale of indifferent ones, who can only be reached by going lovingly to them in the streets, and in thunder tones proclaiming God's love to a lost and ruined world, and fully and completely carrying out the wishes of that tender, loving Christ who said, "Go ye out into the highways and byways and compel them to come in that my house may be full." And what an errand of love it has been. Truly our little band of workers are amply repaid as they witness the rapt attention and wistful looks of the throngs that stop to listen to the story of Jesus' love, and whose very countenances betray the fact that they are hungering and thirsting for these very truths, and although our hearts have been gladdened by the redemption of many from sin, and are now telling their story of freedom to others—the true result will never be known until we meet in eternity. We simply rest on the promise "My word shall not return to Me void," and as the workers gather at the mission at 7 o'clock for a meeting of prayer, to be led by the Holy Ghost and rise from their knees going forth in the strength of the Lord, singing "Follow, follow, we will follow Jesus, anywhere, everywhere, we will follow on," they are perfectly satisfied of the victorious results of their labor on the street before the commencement of the services inside. The average attendance at 32d street and 8th avenue is about 350; but on Sunday evenings as many as 600 gather around the ring and listen attentively to the singing of the hymns and the testimony of the redeemed ones. God is so wonderfully blessing this branch of the work, that on Sunday evenings we are able to hold the fort at the corner of the following streets : 32d street and 8th avenue, 34th street and 10th avenue, and from the mission steps, all led and carried on by the converts of the mission. A volume of interesting incidents might be written of the cases that could only be reached by these street services, but space here will not permit; one or two, however, might be mentioned. One evening after the services of the mission were over, and the usual earnest appeal made to the unsaved to come forward and place themselves at the feet of Him who said: "Whosoever cometh unto me I will in no wise cast out," a nice looking young man raised his hand and was led by a loving worker into the Inquiry Room, and there on his knees he told how the arrow of conviction had come to his heart as driving past the corner of 32d street and 8th avenue, while the street service was in progress, he stopped to hear what was going on, and the forcible words of the speaker stamped the truth of them so visibly, that he felt condemned, and the ending words of the speaker, "prepare to meet thy God," kept ringing in his ears, and although he drove off to the stable and put up his horse to go home, the words would not cease and gave him no peace, but forced him from his room where he had already taken off his coat preparing to retire, to the mission; here, at the foot of the cross he cried for mercy, and arose from his knees relieved of his burden of sin, and rejoicing in his pardon. So we have come to at last find out that, as the storm-tossed and shipwrecked soul cannot or will not come to us on account of their self-degradation and lost condition, we must go to them and bring to their saddened and discouraged hearts the truth of the Saviour's pity and love for them, and that he came to save to the very uttermost.

Street Marches.

When our Saviour uttered the command "Go ye out into the highways and byways and compel them to come in," there was no intimation that it should be singly and not in bands, but we do know that His great heart of love reached out for any and every means that would be instrumental in drawing the crowds to Him. Acting on this belief, and after much prayer, a little band of consecrated workers at times start out to march for Jesus, and as the parade before the opening of the circus is for the purpose of alluring and enticing the crowds that witness it to the show that is to follow, so this little band of God's devoted children, to the sweet strains of Gospel music and song, march through thoroughfares where sin predominates and even into the very heart of "Hell's Kitchen," (that location bounded by 35th to 40th street and between 10th and 11th avenues), the name of which is synonymous of its character, for the purpose of drawing the poor abandoned wretches and outcasts from the dens of infamy back to the Mission, where they could hear of the love of Jesus, and be released from the chains the devil had wound around them. And although this little band have been the victims of much persecution, and at times the targets for bricks, stones, and missiles, yet, as in ancient days, when Paul and Silas were compelled to bear the lashes of the cruel Roman lictors, and suffer imprisonment, that the Jailor and his family might be reached and brought to Christ, so this little band of consecrated ones are willing to stand the epithets and stones from the hands of these sin-bound ones that they come to in love, to lead them to their Saviour, and like Paul they will one day receive the Crown that awaits them. That the dear Lord leads us is proved by the results, as some of our best workers, who are now fully consecrated and following Jesus "anywhere and everywhere," to lead precious souls to Him, are the outcome of these marches, and to His honor and glory be all the praise.

M. J. H. F.

Evangelistic Meetings.

Walking down Thirty-second street any evening throughout the year after 7 P. M., as you near 10th avenue, you will see a large and brilliantly illuminated sign projecting over the entrance, with the words "Berachah Mission" showing brightly; arriving beneath this you will look up a broad flight of stone steps into a well-lighted and cheerful vestibule, on the walls of which passages of Scripture stand boldly out ready to catch the eye; your ear is caught by some pathetic song of praise or supplication as the workers are preparing for the evening public meeting by holding their prayer service, at which Divine direction and help is sought

AS TO HOW TO GET THE CARELESS IN.

A little later and the broad steps will be thronged by a devoted band, who, with cornets, songs and exhortation endeavor to arrest

the careless and godless passers by, who are invited at 8 o'clock to the public meeting, to which all, old, young, rich and poor without distinction are welcomed. Here Gospel songs with salvation truth instead of mere sentiment are sung, such as "My Lord, what a mourning, when the stars begin to fall," or, "Have you been to Jesus for the cleansing power," "Christ receiveth sinful men," "Ye must be born again," etc., followed by several prayers from those whom the Lord leads, portions of Scripture are read and commented upon; a solo, followed by a short exhortation or address, after which comes that which always cheers the heart of every earnest worker, viz.: the testimonies from those who have proved the power of God to save and keep and who once were among the most degraded of sinners.

Having got them into the building our next object is to which we accomplish by making the meetings as bright and full of variety as possible; this is by no means an easy task, for what a cosmopolitan crowd they are—half a dozen nationalities at times being represented—the expression on their faces being quite a study; every shade from the grave to the gay are there, some sorrowful, their pinched pale faces and sunken eyes telling a tale of misery and want; some cheerful, apparently without a care, although, alas, marching on with the sinning multitude towards destruction; again, others are anxiously enquiring; here and there those under the influence of liquor or quite intoxicated, having been attracted in by the cornets, the marching or the singing on the streets, and as each face is, to some extent the index to the heart, we seek to so conduct the meetings that some portion shall fit the needs of each case; some drop in from curiosity, some for a shelter if the night be stormy; others again have been known to seek the cheerful service to escape from the power of some pressing temptation; here a group of bronzed-featured men from the "fo'castles" of the ships that be at the many docks on the North River, or from the Atlantic Mail Steamers; there, a poor battered specimen of humanity turned from the rum shop because his last cent is gone. At times the would-be-suicide on the way to the dark river has been gathered in, we ever seeking at these meetings to make it plain that in Christ every sinner can find all they need.

We have no particular set form of service; the Lord leads us night by night, and we are ready to change the meetings at any moment, as the Spirit shall direct, often stopping in the middle of an address or song to commence a prayer meeting, that we may help some seeking one to find the Saviour, our object being

TO CONVINCE ALL

of both their danger and their duty. The testimony meeting is a powerful factor in this direction; often, as we watch the audience, we see the tear brushed quickly aside, as some prodigal is reminded of home and mother's prayers by these little "heart talks," the silent tear indicating the opening of the flood-gates of the soul and repentance, the first step towards the Cross; as the testimonies proceed how the faces change; note the rebellious unbeliever who looks with scorn at those who rise and say "They are saved and know it." See that "proper" person, who never did anything wrong—a member of the too-good-for-anything school, and as for getting drunk or anything of that kind, is far too respectable; but see the look of scorn on the faces of these modern Pharisees as the saved drunkard tells of what he was before redeeming grace claimed him as a trophy, how he used to beat his wife, how his children had to hide from him, how he drank and drank till finally he became a victim of the "jim-jams," but now, says the saved one with beaming face, "instead of a blow it is a kiss, the children now run to me instead of from me, and my nights, instead of being spent in the saloon, find me at the Mission, saved and happy." Thank God, these testimonies, in spite of scorn and unbelief, are not in vain, for over yonder, dejected and despairing, with his eyes fixed on the speaker, is a poor one suffering from the same vice; the tears will flow, and you can tell by the wistful look in his eye that his heart is saying, "Perhaps there is some hope for me; that man was once as I am, and if God could save him, why not me?" Despair turns to hope, longing changes to seeking, and as soon as the invitation is given, those who desire to lead a new life make their way either to the penitent rail or the inquiry room, where loving hands are extended toward them, and tenderly and yet plainly the way of salvation is pointed out, our desire being at every meeting to lead men and women, then and there, to turn from sin and no meeting being considered a success unless sinners are convicted and some wanderer gathered into the fold.

DECIDE TO SERVE CHRIST,

Such is an outline of our Evangelistic meetings. Do they succeed? The facts and figures in this report will, we feel, answer that question for us. We rejoice exceedingly at the blessed results we have been permitted to see, night after night. A further source of great joy being that most of our devoted and voluntary workers have been led to the Saviour and to sanctified service through the instrumentality of the Mission. We are filled with thanksgiving to Him who has given us the victories of the past, and who, we believe, if we remain true and faithful, will continue to give us even greater victories in the future.

The Gospel in Song.

He appointed singers unto the Lord, that should praise the beauty of holiness, as they went out before the army, and to say, Praise the Lord; for His mercy endureth forever. And when they began to sing and to praise, the Lord set ambushments against the children of Ammon, Moab and Mount Seir, which were come against Judah; and they were smitten. II Chron. xx: 21, 22.

Our Wednesday evening sacred concerts have been a blessing in many ways. They bring in those who would never have come but through some extra inducement, and after coming once it is an easy matter to secure their attendance again. The Dear Lord has said, "My word shall not return unto me void," and if we cannot get them to listen to preaching, we can give them the Gospel in Song. Very often the heart is reached through the ear. Many a time we hear these people singing some of these songs upon the streets, hardly knowing that they are using words of eternal life.

Our work is to sow by all waters and leave the word and the harvest in our Master's hands. Frequently has some poor, worn, wretched wanderer heard the sweet strains of a hymn which he has not heard since he knelt at mother's knee, that mother who has long since gone home, but whose prayers are following the erring one. His hard heart is melted, visions of the past, mother's words, days of purity, and now the days of degradation and sin rise up before him. It is not a hard matter to lead this now broken and tender heart to the Great Physician, who blotteth out all our transgressions, and now to him old things pass away and all things become new, and he can sing the new song.

We have found that there is much talent for music among these rescued ones, and we are trying to encourage this talent, and so at these Wednesday evening Services of Song, duetts and solos are frequently sung by those who but a few months before only opened their lips to blaspheme the name of the Lord they are now praising. Music will reach the hardest heart. As the little downy balloon of the thistle carries its seed to distant and barren wastes, where it finds a lodgment and springs into fresh life, so some little gospel strain may carry the blessed message of salvation to barren souls, and there in the very midst of the sterile soul, cause it to give forth its life and blossom into praise.

Christ has said, "Behold I and the children which God has given me, in the midst of the church will I sing praises." Blessed thought, for the Lord in the midst of thee is mighty.

We shall never know all the good done by these meetings of song until we stand before the throne, and we hear, as it were, the voice of a great multitude, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thundering, saying Hallelujah, for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth!

The Inquiry Room

was instituted for the purpose of dealing with and praying for those who were deeply interested in their soul's salvation, and it has been the scene of many a poor, anxious, sin-burdened one crying for mercy. It is the birth-place of the majority of the converts. No sooner is a man or woman ushered into the Inquiry Room, than he or she becomes conscious of the presence and power of God, and they soon realize that He is not only searching the heart and showing it to be deceitful above all things and desperately wicked, but He is revealing His love and willingness to save, through the power of Jesus' blood.

A man came into the Inquiry Room one night and made a most remarkable confession. (He had been passing down the street in company with some friends, when he was attracted to the mission by the singing on the stoop.) He stated that he was the son of an Episcopal minister. When he was a child his parents had endeavored to instill truth and right into him and teach him to love and serve God; but on one occasion he told them a lie, which was the beginning of an evil career. He ran away from his home while he was yet very young and became involved in great troubles. He became acquainted with and married a beautiful young lady, but after living with her two years had to separate from her, owing to his drinking and making himself most abusive. He left his wife and a beautiful little boy, and had neither seen or heard of them for more than thirty years. He had served many years of his life in the penitentiary for crimes that he had committed. He said he only came with his companions into the meeting for the purpose of disturbing it and to have a little fun; but God's Spirit took hold of him, and strove mightily with him, and after a long agonizing struggle, which lasted till long after midnight, the poor man's heart was melted, and the blessed Holy Spirit spoke peace to his soul. He arose from his knees and walked out of the Inquiry Room filled with joy, praising God for His mercy.

In addition to the many souls that are nightly saved in the Inquiry Room, it is often the scene of many wonderful outpourings of the Holy Spirit upon the workers who frequently congregate in it for seasons of prayer and praise after the meetings are all over. Many times the dear sailors have been invited in, when they were on the eve of sailing from our city to foreign ports. On these occasions God seems to open the flood-gates of Heaven and pours out blessings that there is not room enough to receive. The Inquiry Room is a great blessing to all the converts and workers. Indeed, they regard it as the most sacred spot in the Mission.

The Sabbath School.

This, though considered by some to be only a small department of our work, is not by any means the least important. There are many difficulties in the way of successfully carrying on this work, such as a Catholic neighborhood, scarcity of consecrated teachers, etc., but God, in His great goodness, has seen fit to bless our efforts in this direction.

When I say it is not the least important, I mean that as we look to the children of the present as our citizens and lawmakers of the future, their efficiency as such depends, to a great extent, upon the training they receive in youth, therefore our endeavors are not mainly to impress upon them the fact that the Sunday School is a good place to come to and to get the truths of the lessons into their heads, but to strike at the root of the matter and lead them to give their hearts to Him who has said, "Suffer the little children to come unto me and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of Heaven."

Our hearts go out after the poor neglected little ones of this dark, sin-cursed district, who seldom hear the name of Jesus except in oaths and curses, and we seek to teach them the preciousness of that name which is so dear to every believing heart.

As we observe what surprisingly bright intellects some of them have, which, if trained for the King of Kings, would doubtless redound to His honor and glory, and the salvation of many souls in the future; and then realize that they are being brought up, as it were, in the school of vice and sin which exists to an alarming extent in this portion of the city, we feel like exclaiming, "O, that we might just take them for Jesus," and we are doing our little best with God's help, to bring this about.

Our hearts are often pained, as we pass up and down the streets, to hear even the youngest, some of whom being scarcely able to utter more than a few words, already blaspheming the name of Him who died for them, and we feel the necessity of real, consecrated service for God to gather in these precious jewels, that they may bedeck the diadem of Him who loved them and gave Himself for them.

It has been a source of much pleasure to us to observe the marked spiritual growth of some of the scholars, several of whom who have never opened their lips for God before having lately begun to praise His name, not only in song, but by word of testimony, telling of His power to save. We also find that some of them are blessed with excellent voices, and we have striven to instruct them that this talent should be used for the honor and glory of Him who gave it, with the result that a number have rendered very valuable assistance at some of our Wednesday evening Song services. We praise God that He has manifested His power, and that He has enabled us to hold our own so well. Our membership roll reaches in the neighborhood of one hundred, although during the very warm months of the summer the attendance was somewhat below that figure, but now that the cooler weather has arrived, we find it gradually increasing.

We cannot close without expressing our heartfelt gratitude to the teachers who have so nobly and faithfully remained at their post during the hottest weather and under the most trying circumstances, and feel confident that God will reward them for their faithfulness and devotion.

G. F. B.

The Free Dispensary.

When we first came into this neighborhood we were met with distrust and suspicion. But God told us to go forward, looking to Him alone for guidance. He gave us love, the greatest power in mission work, and faith, that this barren place would blossom as the rose. The sad homes, the weary faces all went to draw our hearts out to these people. But how were we to win their love and confidence? How enter the houses where the doors were shut so tightly through suspicion and superstition was the problem. We saw so many suffering from sickness and injuries, and no means to get a medical attendant. The thought came, could not this be made an entrance to their hearts and homes? God sent Dr. Dowkout of the Medical Mission to help in this emergency. After we had fitted up a suitable room in the mission, he sent one of his Dr. Missionaries to give medical care and also tell them of Jesus. This branch of the work has been a great blessing (the medicine and attendance being free). It has indeed been a highway to grateful hearts, for sickness is the time when the heart is softened to drop the seeds of the gospel of Jesus Christ, and, praise God, in the past year we have seen much fruit come of it, and we are much impressed with the fact that the Doctor's medical knowledge alone has gained us the ears of many of the patients; they give attention to the "old, old story" solely because of what they receive in return. Under other circumstances such a subject would be met with a storm of abuse. In this way many who could never be induced by ordinary means to listen for a moment to the gospel of Christ, give respectful, and often earnest attention. If our space would permit we could give many testimonies of dear ones rescued through this branch of the work. It is winning the hearts of the people we so desire to reach, for they see we have come amongst them solely to do them good. The dear doctor has been faithful and untiring in his endeavors for the souls of this neighborhood. May the Lord bless and reward him! The dispensary is opened three days in the week for the purpose of giving medicine and advice to any who may apply, and one of the workers is there to give a friendly word of encouragement to each case and say something about Jesus.

Mothers' Meetings.

One afternoon every week during the winter was devoted to the mothers of the neighborhood. Cutting, sewing and the putting together of all kinds of wearing apparel is taught by a number of ladies who are familiar with family needs. Mrs. Henry Naylor and Mrs. A. B. Simpson had charge of this meeting. Simple Gospel services are always held in connection with these gatherings, which will be continued this winter.

Day School.

Under the care of "The Female Guardian Society" of this city, a Day School is held in the basement of the new building, and nothing better could be conceived to meet the wants of the neglected juvenile population than the provision made by this philanthropic and Christian society. The young mind is imbued with useful knowledge; the little body is saved from hunger and from cold, and the precious soul is early directed to Jesus.

Special Festivities.

Besides the ordinary meetings, we have been enabled to hold with much spiritual blessing, Special Gatherings in the shape of suppers, which the bronzed-faced seamen have attended in great numbers. Also, a very enjoyable season was spent when a company of police officers met, and at which addresses were given by Sergeant Tims and others.

THE SECOND ANNUAL GATHERING.

The days of all days in the year, which we looked forward to with joyful and prayerful anticipation, came bright and clear, and the workers and friends gathered to praise God for the victorious march of another year. The series of meetings arranged for anniversary gatherings commenced on Saturday, November 5th, and lasted until Monday, 7th. It was a glorious sight to see so many who, during the year, had learned to love and serve the Lord Jesus. It was a great sorrow for those who had been led into the light through her instrumentality, that Mrs. Naylor was sick, and many fervent prayers were offered up to the Great Healer for her restoration. The first meeting was well attended; many ministers, superintendents of Missions, and workers were present, most of whom addressed the meeting. Between one and two hundred sat down to a sumptuous banquet, and a most profitable time was spent. The great day of the feast was Monday, when about four hundred workers, converts and friends gathered to praise God for His goodness to us. Sixty-three testified, and between 200 and 300 sat down to supper. THE CELEBRATION OF THE BIRTHDAYS of the founders, and Mr. Onderdonk, one of the Trustees, were times of special blessing; the men and women whom they had been the means of leading to the Saviour, showed their appreciation by giving them flowers, volumes of books and other presents; all thanked God for these natural hirthdays, but much more for the spiritual birthdays that sealed these honored servants the Lord's and on which they consecrated their lives for the benefit of others.

CHRISTMAS FESTIVALS:

At this gathering the building was crowded with the Sunday School children, teachers and parents. How the faces of the young beamed as they gathered around the Christmas tree, which reached up to the ceiling and was loaded down with presents for each and all. The children sang and gave recitations, after which spiritual advice and instruction was given, and they trooped joyfully home looking upon it as one of the brightest days in the year.

THE CHILDREN'S MAY PARTY

was another red letter day. The little ones paraded to the cars, and on arriving at Central Park enjoyed themselves with many childish sports, and sitting on the grass were all supplied with ice cream and cake.

Mrs. E. B.

The Button.

Our little button, by which a Berachah Mission convert is known, has been the means of fellowship to men in all parts of the world. It is only a bit of royal purple and crimson ribbon, but O, how much it means to the wearer; the precious blood of my crucified Lord has not only made me free, but put me into the royal family of the Heavens and made me an heir of God and a joint heir with Jesus Christ. What a change had to take place in the lives of these converts to enable them to put on the emblematic colors! Is it wonderful that we are proud of this expression of our standing and sorrowfully and yet gladly wear the emblem of His sacrifice and death, humiliation and ascension to glory, where He ever standeth before the throne to make intercession for us?

These are the days when badges in the shape of buttons are proudly worn by all men to designate their political party or club. They belong to all worldly parties. They are willing to sacrifice money, time, and many even honor for their colors, and are proud to wear them. No man thinks himself demeaned in wearing the colors of his candidate, and no labor too hard which would tend to the success of the cause he has espoused. Then why should we not be proud to wear the colors of our King? To be sure, He is now rejected by this world; to be sure, by wearing the colors we show that we are only pilgrims and strangers here below, and that we are not citizens of this country, but of the one to come, but we proudly wear our colors, though He, our Lord, seems to be a losing candidate, but, glory to God, He will soon reign and we with Him! For the time cometh when the heavens shall depart as a scroll rolled together; every mountain and island shall be moved out of their places. The kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, shall cry to the rocks and mountains to fall on them to hide them from the face of Him that sitteth on the throne. For the great day of His wrath cometh, and who shall be able to stand? But they which have overcome by the blood of the Lamb will have no fear, for God will be with them and shall wipe away all tears from their eyes, and they shall have no more pain, for former things will be passed away; for He has said, "Behold I will make all things new."

We gladly answer the question so often asked us in the cars and upon the street, "What party do you belong to: your button and colors are not familiar?" The blood and royalty of Jesus have never been familiar to the world at large, and we can answer joyfully that we belong to the party of Heaven, and though our colors may not be well-known, those who know them love them and are not ashamed of them, for He has said, "Whosoever shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in Heaven."

VOICES FROM THE NEIGHBORHOOD.

A Swearer Stopped.

Mr. G. M. says: When the corner stone was being laid I did not think my wife and I would be converted in this mission. With the window open we listened to the singing. I drank some, but was never known as a drunkard, but I could curse and swear till the air seemed blue all around me. On September 26th, 1887, I came into this mission in my sins but went out a saved man. My wife was converted the same evening. I am a railroad man, and have been for twelve years, but all who know me know now that I am converted. The Lord is keeping me true day by day, for which I thank Him and this mission.

Testimony of an Old Sailor.

I have travelled almost around the world and have been rescued eight times from a watery grave. I was a hard sinner. The workers from the mission came aboard our ship and held a service; I was attracted by the singing, and when they invited us to come to the mission, I said to some of my mates, "Let's go for a lark." So we all came, but when we got inside the lark was all gone. I did not know why, but all they seemed to say to me was "Seek the Lord;" so I did, and three more followed. When I arrived home, my wife said, when she saw the button on my breast, "I knew the Lord would answer my prayer."

W.

Mrs. E— says: I have not been a drunkard, but I did not think a mother could serve God with a family of little children, but now have proved Him to be a blessed helper, and I pray for grace and wisdom to bring my children up for God, and I ask you to pray that those belonging to me whom I love may be brought to the Dear Saviour who I have found so precious.

A Brand Plucked from the Fire.

I thank the Lord that I ever came to the Berachah Mission and got saved, and I have never felt sorry since. I tell you how I came; on the sixth day of December I started out on a drunk with $9.39 in my pocket. Of course it was the liquor that did it, and by seven o'clock at night I was drunk, and I was looking for a friend of mine in West 33d street, but when I came they told me that he had moved next door to the Salvation House; so I went there and found him, of course. The first thing was to get a banner of beer, and another, and then another, so by that time the mission workers were out singing on the stoop. As drunk as I was I went in, and I got saved that night, and not only myself, but the rest of my money, which I had left, was saved too, and I thank God for it. I have been able to get my coat out of pawn and shoes for the children's feet, and O, how glad the children were to see papa sober once. It was quite a new thing to them. Instead of running away they ran to me. The wife was so surprised in getting the first week's money that she didn't need much persuading to come herself. I brought her to the Berachah Mission and the Lord sweetly saved her, and my home is quite a paradise on earth.

P.

Thank God I am saved! But this I could not say a few days ago; for I was sitting in a gambling den playing cards, and as though someone spoke, a voice said "Come to Jesus."

I was not thinking of the mission, but I could not go on playing, so I let go what I had won and got up and walked round to this dear Berachah Mission, and the Blessed Lord saved my soul.

J. E.

My life has been an awfully black one. Drinking, cursing and the like was all the religion I had. I went to board with that man (pointing to a convert of the Mission), and came with him to the meeting. I came three or four times and saw my great need every time, but one night I bowed at the Cross, and God, for Christ's sake blotted out my sins, and now I am happy and He keeps me, bless His name.

C. L.

W. A. said:—I have been a wicked man. I am 39 years old and have never been in the Christian way before. I didn't believe in God or think about Him, but I was on the Avenue one night and saw these people playing and singing, and followed them to the mission, where I heard them tell of men like me being changed. I heard some testimonies from saved drunkards and hard cases, and I thought there was a chance for me, so I went to the altar and had a drink of salvation, and I have not wanted beer, liquor or sin ever since. I can fool you people and myself, but I can't fool that man up there (pointing toward Heaven). It was so good for me that I stayed home to mind the children and sent my wife, and she got converted too.

"Behold the arm of the Lord is not shortened that it cannot save."

"Now is the accepted time."

A Dying Drunkard.

A man we were called to visit on his sick bed on last Thanksgiving Day had indulged in what are called the enjoyments of life, and if ever a serious thought obtruded itself upon his mind, it was immediately stifled. But sickness stopped him in his mad career and now on the brink of eternity he views his wasted life. Oh, what a look he gave us! We can never forget it. The feelings we endured throughout this painful interview are beyond description. It is impossible to give even a faint idea of the agony and terror that harrowed his soul whenever the thought of death flashed across his mind. The wife and four little children stood around the comfortless room weeping; the poor woman took hold of us with a convulsive grasp and cried, "Save, Oh, save him before he dies! He has been so wicked." We prayed and endeavoured to draw his attention to Jesus, the Mighty to Save, even in this, his last and awful hour, but he stared wildly and said, "He is coming," meaning death; then, as though he would fortify himself against death's power, he drew from under the bed-clothes a bottle of rum, which the wife told us "He made her get refilled each time he emptied it." We asked him to let us have it, but he held on to it like a drowning man would to a rope, making us understand between his dying gasps that unless he drank he'd die, and he kept saying, "I won't die." Throwing ourselves on our knees we prayed; it seemed useless to talk to him, so we talked to God for him; he became calm, and then we kept whispering "Jesus" in his ear. At last conscience made its voice heard and he began to cry, as well as his failing breath would allow him, "Oh, God, save me." It may be his prayer was answered; we can only hope so, for soon after he became unconscious. A few short hours closed this painful scene. Truly, a sad end to a sinful life.

Her Life Was a Sad One.

E— was in her youth a lively young woman. She had the advantage of a godly mother, but while young she cast off all parental restraint, and soon with many others drifted into the stream of iniquity. Her motto was "Freedom," and charmed by the tempter she soon drank the bitter cup. Sin and suffering were ever before her. She would not be seen by those whom she had forsaken, and those she had sought had deceived her. Consumption had now taken hold of her, and in this condition we found her, only a young woman, but dying. We read to her of Christ seeking her and asked her to seek Him at once, which she did, and God in His wonderful mercy saved her. She lingered a few days and welcomed death, and she said, "It will take me to that blessed Jesus who has washed away the sins of my wicked life." She asked us to sing "Safe in the arms of Jesus" for her.

At the funeral service, as we sang the hymns she had learned to love and repeated her dying request, in which she entreated her dear sisters and brothers, who she said had been so kind to her, to meet her in Heaven, all were melted to tenderness and sobbed aloud, and at the Mission meeting the same night her four brothers and two sisters sought the Saviour. Praise the Lord!

There's no one like Jesus.

I've travelled the rough paths of life in my day,
But Jesus He met me upon the broad way;
He pardoned my sins, my soul He's set free,
And the broad way to death is now vacant for me.

CHORUS:

There's no one like Jesus can cheer me to-day,
His love and His kindness can ne'er fade away;
In winter, in summer, in sunshine and rain,
My Saviour's affections are always the same.

The joys of this world I have left far behind,
They brought to me sorrow and care to my mind;
The heart that was once in misery and pain,
To-day is rejoicing in Jesus' sweet name.

Oh, turn sinner, turn ye, for why will ye die?
'Tis Jesus, your Saviour, is asking you why,
For now He is waiting your pardon to give,
Oh, turn, sinner, turn, unto Jesus and live.

The Sufferings of the Poor.

The mass of poverty, wretchedness and sickness one sees in visiting is heartrending. Vast numbers have no permanent homes, and very often through drunkenness or other crimes have to flit from cellar to cellar and from tenement to tenement, but there are great numbers who are poor and hard pressed. Want, misery, sickness and despair, speak indeed before the poor, burdened ones begin to pour out their tale of woe. What can be done! Is there no one to pity and help these poor lonely ones? Yes, thank God, in some measure there has been, for some hundreds of dollars have been used for Rent, Groceries, Meals, Loans to assist redeemed men, and Lodging for the unemployed. Also, between two and three thousand articles of clothing have been given away, and yet what is this amongst so many; we mourn the fact that we cannot half supply the great need.

We just give the description of a few cases out of the great number which come under our notice while visiting from house to house:

* * * * *

One poor old man I went to see was dying, and I found that he had to be left alone for hours while his child went to work to earn enough to keep herself and keep the little room over the dying father. He said to her, "I thought I should have gone some hours ago with no one to speak a word or wipe the death sweat from my brow." Notwithstanding these most trying circumstances, he rejoiced in Christ his Saviour, and it was a pleasure to listen to him giving vent to his joy in the possession of a hope beyond this vale of tears. He was not permitted to suffer much longer, however, for God, a few weeks later came and took him to Himself.

* * * * *

A dying woman, by the bedside of whom as I entered the room sat a little girl crying, was in very destitute circumstances. When I inquired the reason for her grief, I found that the dear dying woman had been asking for ice for hours, and they had not a cent with which to get it. She thanked me as I had some brought to her, and it seemed to bring her back to life for the time being. A few days later she passed away, happy in her Saviour, who had pardoned all her sins.

"Will you come and see mother, we do not think she can live very long?" inquired a little girl at the Mission one day, and Mrs. Naylor, who is ever ready to lend a helping hand to those in distress, hastened to her bedside and did all she could to allay her suffering and give her spiritual consolation. The dear woman and her husband had been brought to the Saviour through the instrumentality of the Mission. Previous to their conversion the husband had been a hard drinker, and her life had been one of hardship and sorrow. Many times she found it necessary to walk miles to earn enough to keep soul and body together, and even sometimes had to beg bread to keep the little ones from starving, frequently not breaking her fast for a whole day, all this doubtless being the cause of much of her present agony and suffering. Looking at her husband and two little children, she asked God to care for them, and after much excruciating pain, she, with her infant, went from her bed of suffering to be with Jesus. Her funeral service was conducted at the Mission and a lasting impression was made upon all who were present.

Who will help?

NEW YORK, October 30, 1888.

DEAR BROTHER BLANDY:—

Brother A has been out of employment for a long time. He is very destitute, and his children are sick. He is very anxious to get work of any kind that will enable him to support his family. Can you not find something for him to do?

Yours truly,

A SYMPATHIZER.

Letters of this kind are constantly coming to us from all quarters of the City. Will God's dear children kindly aid us in finding employment for these poor people, many of whom are converts of the Mission? By so doing they will be lifting a great burden that has long troubled us. We have mechanics of all kinds; also, sewing women. Money, clothing, tracts, books, etc., are needed for these poor and destitute ones, and may be sent to the Superintendent who will gratefully acknowledge same.

These should always be accompanied by name of donor.

Echoes From the Testimony Meeting.

No. 1. I am a converted gambler, and all the clothes I had on when I came to the Lord were not worth five cents. Now I have four coats, and my house is a little flower garden. Ask my wife and she'll tell you all about it, and its all because I have given up sin and trusted in God, and I invite every one to come and try it.

No. 2 testified as follows: To-night I thank God I know I am saved. I feel as though I was made all new. These are the first two days in ten years that I have spent without liquor. I am away from my father's house where there is bread enough and to spare, where I also had the privilege of a good education. For the past ten years drink has had such possession of me that I have not been able to hold a pen sufficiently steady to write my name so that anyone could read it, but to-day I wrote it as I did before the drink-curse had possession of me, and I am looking forward to the time when I shall be able to present myself at my father's house and enjoy the home-circle once again.

Now a young man rises and says: I do not think there are many who have been so vile a sinner as I for my age. When I came into this Mission only twelve weeks ago, I was in a sad state. My face was bruised and cut, and I was under the influence of liquor. I had followed the occupation of a detective. I had to mix up with the worst of characters to get the evidence for the cases I was engaged on. This kind of life was the means of making me a slave to rum and gambling, but when I came as a guilty sinner to Christ He took away the desire for all sin. I gave up my business, and trusted God with my earthly needs, and bless His name, He has supplied them all, and these past twelve weeks have been the happiest of all my life.

Another followed, saying: Well, my dear friends, I have never been a drunkard nor a very desperate sinner, so far as committing these outward and so-called vulgar sins are concerned, but I was a proud, self-righteous young man, and in the sight of God a sinner just the same as the rest; but I did not realize this fact until I came here last New Year's Eve. I then found out I was blind and could not see my lost condition, but when I understood just my state, I like the vilest, became anxious about my soul's salvation, and when the invitation was given I went forward, and kneeling amongst drunkards and gamblers who were seeking the same Christ, I asked for and received pardon, and the Lord has kept me sweetly trusting ever since.

A converted Dane testifies thus: I thank God for saving me and keeping me. Now I tell you the reason why. I was a broken-down miserable drunkard and sinner for 32 years, and thought there was no power in heaven or hell that could save me and make a man of me; but I came in here and heard the testimony of that old gentleman sitting down by the door (pointing to one of the old converts). He said he had lived the same kind of life I was living, and had been saved. I thought I would try the same dose of medicine, and trust and believe; I did so, and was saved. My health was ruined, my mind nearly gone, and my life was like living in hell, but now I feel like another man altogether. The devil didn't want to lose such an angel as I was, but he had to. God has wonderfully kept me right straight along, and is giving me strength day by day to help me overcome the devil, and I intend to serve Him to the end.

A man then rose and said: They say the days of miracles are past, but I say they are not, for I stand here to-day a living miracle. Only three days ago I was as near death and hell as it was possible for a man to be; my constitution wrecked, and I seemed to be possessed by a host of devils. I was suffering from an attack of what is called the "jim-jams;" I blush to have to acknowledge it. My dear old mother, who thought I was dying, came to this Mission at 8 o'clock in the morning. She was told the doctor was not there, but that she could have some one to come and pray with me. The Superintendent came over at once and prayed for me. Oh, I do rejoice over that blessed time, for, as he prayed, I became calm, and that night I came here and sought the Saviour, who blotted out the sins of a life-time, and I mean, by the grace of God to be faithful to the end of the journey.

The plaintive voice of a woman is now heard, saying: I am so glad the Lord can save old people. I thought I was too old and too wicked for Him to have anything to do with me. My life had been a very sad one, and I was very lonely, but one night, as I sat in my room, with neither hope nor ambition in life, a band of people came singing past my house. The refrain rang out, "I'll stand by you till the morning, I've come to save you, do not fear." I went to bed that night wondering if the Lord would do anything for me. While I pondered over this I dropped off to sleep, but was awakened suddenly, and as I wondered what could be the cause, a voice seemed to say to me as clearly as possible, "Yes, I'll stand by you; I've come to save you." I heard no more, but I joyfully received the message, and then and there I accepted Christ fully, never to doubt Him any more, and now my only desire is to serve and follow my dear Lord and Master.

I'm Satisfied With Jesus Here.

Oh, no! there's nothing more I seek,
With Jesus ever near;
My lips I feel are frail to speak
His love to me so dear.
From day to day He strengthens me
With never-failing grace;
To be with Him is enough for me,
To see His blessed face.

I'm satisfied with Jesus here,
He's everything to me;
His dying love has won my heart
And now he sets me free.

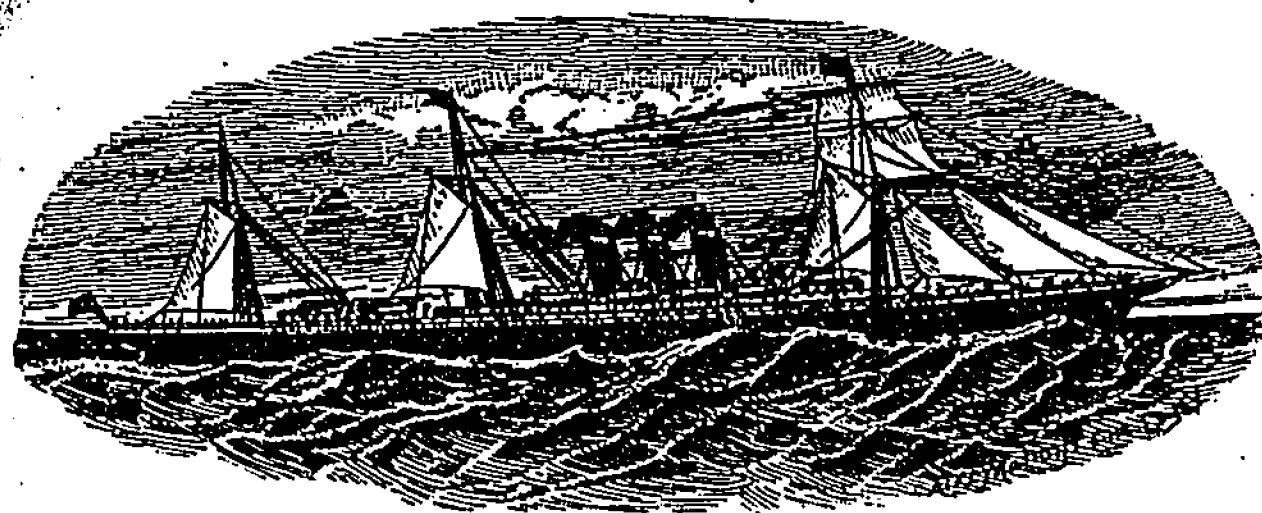

They tell me I am happy now,
I'm happy all the day;
But they forget the reason why,
And heed not what I say;
It is because the aching void,
And bitter, long regret,
Is filled with love that's unalloyed,
Such love I ne'er forget.

THE WORK AFLOAT.

The importance of the work amongst the seamen need not be written here. The heart of every true child of God beats in sympathy with those whose lives are spent on the ocean. How great the hardships they at times have to endure. How many dangers they are called upon to face. Their pleasures and enjoyments are so few, their lives so full of danger and privation; but in spite of all this beneath the jackets of blue beat noble and tender hearts. Only those whose hearts have been touched with love for them, and pass time enough amidst their rough surroundings to really learn to know them as they are, can have any conception of their needs, worth and nobleness. Almost every one of them have had dear old praying mothers in the little home across the waters. This is a tender cord that ever vibrates to the loving touch. God bless the mothers! Go on praying for your wayward boys, for God will never let your believing prayer be lost. We look upon this branch of the Mission as one of the most important, and we praise God for the blessed encouragements He has given us in carrying it on during the past year, and we start on a new year of work with large faith and more extended plans, and feel sure that He who holds the sea in the hollow of His hand, and to whom alone we look for guidance and direction, will give us a blessed and successful future. At present we have two reading rooms specially fitted up for the use of the seamen. One in the Mission, No. 463 West 32d St., and the other at the Bethel, 481 Canal St.

THE WORK AFLOAT.

The importance of the work amongst the seamen need not be written here. The heart of every true child of God beats in sympathy with those whose lives are spent on the ocean. How great the hardships they at times have to endure. How many dangers they are called upon to face. Their pleasures and enjoyments are so few, their lives so full of danger and privation; but in spite of all this beneath the jackets of blue beat noble and tender hearts. Only those whose hearts have been touched with love for them, and pass time enough amidst their rough surroundings to really learn to know them as they are, can have any conception of their needs, worth and nobleness. Almost every one of them have had dear old praying mothers in the little home across the waters. This is a tender cord that ever vibrates to the loving touch. God bless the mothers! Go on praying for your wayward boys, for God will never let your believing prayer be lost. We look upon this branch of the Mission as one of the most important, and we praise God for the blessed encouragements He has given us in carrying it on during the past year, and we start on a new year of work with large faith and more extended plans, and feel sure that He who holds the sea in the hollow of His hand, and to whom alone we look for guidance and direction, will give us a blessed and successful future. At present we have two reading rooms specially fitted up for the use of the seamen. One in the Mission, No. 463 West 32d St., and the other at the Bethel, 481 Canal St.

The latter place has been opened but a short time, but the success has been great inasmuch as numbers of seamen have accepted

Christ at the special services conducted every Sunday afternoon by Mrs. H. Naylor. Both rooms are open daily as writing and reading rooms, the Missionary specially retained for work amongst the seamen being in attendance. There is a plentiful supply of good spiritual reading matter, which can be read either at the rooms or taken on board the vessels with them. Our hearts are rejoiced to see those who are brought to Christ, praying for and earnestly seeking to bring their shipmates. As an illustration of this, we might mention that one afternoon two seamen from one of the Atlantic liners having given themselves to the Saviour, brought fifteen of their shipmates up to the Mission at night; another belonging to a sailing ship brought five of his shipmates, one of whom decided for Christ; two others also brought eight comrades from their ship, of which number two were converted, and so the spread of salvation amongst the sons of the sea goes on, for we seek to not only exercise a personal influence, but to show each one as they accept the Lord that it is their duty to act, as far as possible, as Missionaries on board their ship, and in spite of the many temptations and difficulties surrounding seamen who profess to belong to Christ, yet we rejoice that a very large percentage of those brought in, stand true. The field is large, and we are led to ask if the staff of Sailor Missionaries were increased to ten, or even twenty, what glorious results we should be able to record. We are looking forward to the time when we may be privileged to announce that the staff in this branch has been increased at least tenfold.

Services on Board.

Salvation Meetings are held on board the various ships, and it is by this means that we are able to reach the men with divine truth when it would be impossible for them to get on shore to attend any place of worship. Sometimes as many as twenty workers, helped by cornets and songs, gather on decks or in fo'castle and what an attentive audience we have, how they appreciate our songs, and although we know something of the blessing received it remains for eternity to reveal the actual results. At these services as much variety is imported into them as possible, testimonies from the seamen themselves forming an important part. It is impossible to go into all the details on account of want of space, but the following figures will give some idea of what has been done:

No. of Ship Services held	166
No. of Seamen who attended the same	5,833
No. of Seamen who attended Services at the Mission	4,000
No. spoken to about their souls	12,000
No. of visits made to vessels by Missionary	1,772
No. who testified for Christ	682
No. who fully decided for Christ	306
No. of Bibles and portions of Scriptures given	34,987

We have now been at work upon the Wilson Line for two years, and have been cordially received by Mr. Phillips and the officers on the ships, and to-day, we can say, "Praise God for the work He has permitted our eyes to see." We begin the new year with new courage; within the past six months we have enlarged our place or tent, stretched forth the curtains of our habitation, lengthened our cords and strengthened our stakes, by opening the new reading room in Canal Street, through which we desire to reach the men on the large passenger lines near by, and we have already much to thank our Father in Heaven for. We have been received with courtesy by the officers of the Inman, Anchor and Guion Lines. Three officers on these lines found Him whom even "the winds and the sea obey." The men listen with interest and attention, frequent our reading rooms, and enjoy the meetings at the Mission. We thank God, and take courage. Friends, pray for us, that the dear Lord will greatly bless this part of the work amongst those we think are the most neglected of all God's inheritance. They are so much of the time on the "Great Deep," away from all good associations, and when in port are but the prey of vile men. Ask that God will break their bands in sunder and bring them unto their desired haven amidst the quiet waters of His love.

We have now saved men wearing the purple Button upon them in many parts of the globe, and what a time of rejoicing it is when one of these vessels arrive with some of the saved boys aboard. They are at the Mission as soon as they can get ashore, and it is indeed a foretaste of "When we get home to 'Glory Land,' free from our sorrow and care; praises we'll sing to Jesus our King, a ransomed and glorified band."

How their testimonies ring out in their hearty sailor manner, to

WILLIAM BEADHAM testifies: Whereas, once I was blind, now I see, and I thank God that He ever led me to the Berachah Mission, where I heard the words of love and compassion which opened my eyes. I was brought up in Sunday School, and was there taught what the Lord did for me, and that the Saviour had died for me. I had a Christian mother who taught me to love God, but I forgot my early teachings and the strivings of the Holy Spirit in my heart, and became a drunkard, blasphemer and scoffer at religion and those who were serving their Master. I tried to think I was an atheist. But the workers of Berachah Mission came aboard our ship to hold a service one night in May. God bless and reward them! I was not there, but through their coming I was led to the Mission. I only went up to have a laugh and a bit of fun, but I could not laugh much, but I promised myself I would not go again. But I did go the next night, and conviction that all was not right entered my heart. We were all paid the next day, and my mates were boasting that they were going to get drunk. I put my money in my pocket, thinking I would wait until Sunday, then have "a day of it," but it did not come off. That night I came up to the Mission, and, thank God, a light was thrown across my path, and I saw the road I was traveling on; the misery and sin that was in my heart, the "bottomless pit." Oh, the awful sorrow that took possession of me!

The question arose in my heart: "What shall I do to be saved? The precious words, "I am the door. By me if any man enter in, he shall be saved," greeted my ears; and Oh, the joy and peace they brought to me. After some hours of struggle the scales fell from my eyes and I could see. Glory be to His blessed name! On Sunday morning we had to start to work at six o'clock; so I went to the fore-castle door, and as the crew came on deck I told them all what the Lord had done for me. That the blood of Jesus had washed all my sins away, and that I was free. I was laughed at and called a fanatic, and told I would be as bad as ever in a few days. But the dear Lord said, "Child, lean hard upon me," which I did, and He has kept me now 14 months, and I believe He will keep me till the end. There are many praying for and blessing Berachah Mission in England for the good it has done them, and may God bless the founders and workers is my prayer.

Hospital Visitation.

In addition to attending upon seamen sick on their own ships, and taking such little delicacies as might prove strengthening and beneficial, which they could not obtain on board, there are many constantly sick or disabled in our hospitals that require our attention.

"I was sick and ye visited Me."

We will mention two striking incidents connected with this visiting: A young sailor, belonging to the Wilson Line, came into the Mission one Saturday evening, was convicted, and yielded his heart to the Lord, and, strange to say, he fell from the topmast yard-arm, a distance of seventy-five feet, just as poor John Lawson, who was buried from the Mission, did, a year ago. The young man was picked up unconscious and taken to the hospital. His first words were, when he regained consciousness, "Praise God, it is settled; if I die, I am going home." The doctor said there was no hope of his recovery. His skull was fractured, and five of his ribs were broken; only at intervals was he conscious. At these times some of the Mission workers were by his bedside. He would smile and say, "Thank God, I am saved!" then his little strength would be gone, and he would again sink into unconsciousness. He lingered for many weeks in this way, but, much to the doctor's surprise, he recovered sufficiently to be sent home to his dear old mother in England. When next we shall see him it will be around the "Great White Throne." We believe that God heard and answered our prayers, and raised him up for His glory. In the same ward in the hospital lay another seaman, who had had his hip broken by accident, on one of the Cunard steamers, and when he saw how wonderfully God had dealt with George, his brother sailor, and was told by us that Jesus was no respecter of persons, he accepted Christ as his Saviour, and on his recovery also went home to England, a new man in Christ Jesus.

MR. AND MRS. M. MCPHERSON,
Seamen's Missionaries.

A Word of Thanks.

As we looked out upon the great needs of the sailor work one year ago, and saw ourselves powerless to meet the needs of the increasing work, we asked our Father, who owns the cattle upon a thousand hills, to help us. He spoke to one of His own consecrated children, Mrs. F. V. C. Bishop, and she, always ready to listen to the call of the suffering and do the will of Him whom she serves, came nobly to the rescue, and has been the chief supporter of this glorious work for the past year, giving over eight hundred dollars, which has put into the field two workers for sailors, in the persons of our Sailor Missionary and wife. May the dear Lord bring other consecrated stewards to help us in the increasing needs which the soul-saving work is daily pressing upon us.

Consecration.

The Lord has led two of our workers, Robert A. Henck and M. J. H. Ferris, to consecrate their lives to the special work of winning this "Neighborhood for Jesus," and on the first of July last they were set apart by the Rev. A. B. Simpson, of the Gospel Tabernacle Church, for this specific purpose.

Extension.

We thank God, Berachah and its consecrated workers are being used as an inspiration for others of God's children to go and do likewise. Nightly, on West Street, Pittsfield, Mass., the same story of Jesus' saving power is told. As we see the Berachah transparency over the door, and stepping in, behold, the banner, red and gold, with "Jesus Only" on it, (a present from the converts of old Berachah), and the crimson and purple badges upon the workers, and hear the old, old story of "How I was a drunkard, but praise God, Jesus has taken the appetite all away," we feel as if we were in the old Mission at home.

There is also a live man and a live Berachah in Penacook, New Hampshire, and many souls are finding their way to Christ. God grant that this good work may go on, from Hull (Eng.) to every city in the Union. And in each, may there be a Berachah (The valley of blessing) to every sin-sick soul.

"He that hath pity upon the poor lendeth unto the Lord; and that which he hath given will He pay him again."—Prov. 19, 17.

BERACHAH SONGS.

(ORIGINAL AND SELECTED.)

The Neighborhood for Jesus.

(Our Motto.)

Tune:—Sweet Bye and Bye.

1. We've enlisted to fight for the King,
And the neighborhood for Jesus to win;
"Victory" is the song we shall sing,
For in conflict we'll never give in.

Chorus:—

I am sure we shall win,
For we fight in the strength of our King.

2. We're a band that shall conquer the foe,
In "Hell's Kitchen" the devil's stronghold;
Out upon the highways we go,
To bring sinners into the fold.

3. Through the blood of the Lamb who was slain,
Our sins have been all washed away;
From our hearts He's removed every stain,
And clothed us in royal array.

4. The cross for King Jesus we'll bear,
Our badge in the streets we will wear,
Of crimson and purple to show
The blood makes us royal we know.

(Original.)

Our Prayer.

Oh, thou Lord of every nation,
We do for thy presence call,
Be in us full consecration,
With thy power baptize us all.

Bless our mission, bless our mission,
With thy power baptize us all,

Fill us with thy Holy Spirit,
Make our workers white as snow,
Bring the neighborhood to Jesus,
Satan's kingdom overthrow.

Bless our mission, bless our mission,
Send us where we ought to go.

Give the church more holy living,
Fill it with abundant power,
Give the mission more thanksgiving,
Greater victories every hour.

Bless our mission, bless our mission,
Fill it with abundant power.

Bless our teachers, bless our scholars,
Bless our managers as well;
Bless our workers, bless our converts,
We will of thy goodness tell.

Bless our mission, bless our mission,
In thy fullness with us dwell.

He saved a poor sinner like me.

Tune:—He pardoned a rebel like me.

I heard of a Jesus so loving and kind,
Who from bondage and sins would set free;
He bled and He died and He was crucified,
To save a poor sinner like me.

Chorus:—

He saved a poor sinner like me,
He saved a poor sinner like me,
He bled and He died and He was crucified,
To save a poor sinner like me.

I came to this Jesus with penitent heart,
Believing He'd save even me;
My burden was lifted, my heart became light;
And now, bless the Lord, I am free.

I'm glad I can tell you this Jesus is mine,
He has set me at full liberty;
And now I rejoice in my Saviour divine,
For saving a sinner like me.

So come now poor sinner, take Him as your friend,
All things will become just like new;
He'll wash you and cleanse you and keep to the end,
And save a poor sinner like you.

(Original.)

No, Never Alone.

1. I have seen the lightning flashing,
And heard the thunders roll,
I have seen sin's breakers dashing,
Trying to conquer my soul;
But I heard the voice of my Saviour,
Telling me still to fight on,
And He promised never to leave me,
Never to leave me alone.

Chorus:—

No never, no never alone,
No never, no never alone,
He promised he never would leave me,
No, never alone.

2. When this world's winds are blowing,
Temptations sharp and keen,
I feel a peace in knowing
The Saviour stands between—
Stands to shield me from danger,
When earthly friends are all gone,
For he promised never to leave me,
Never to leave me alone.

3. When in affliction's dark valley,
Treading the foot-paths of care,
My Saviour helps me to carry
My cross, when heavy to bear;
When my feet are entangled with briars
Of sin, to tumble me down,
My Saviour then whispers His promise,
Never to leave me alone.

4. For me he died on the mountain,
For me they pierced His side,
For me He opened the fountain,
The crimson blood's sin cleansing tide;
For me He's waiting in glory,
Seated upon his bright throne,
And he promised never to leave me,
Never to leave me alone.

No never, no never alone,
No never, no never alone,
He promised he never would leave me,
No, never alone.

A little talk with Jesus.

Tune:—Footsteps in the Snow.

While fighting for my Saviour here,
The devil tries me hard;
He uses all his mighty power
My progress to retard;
He's up to every move,
And yet through all I prove.
A little talk with Jesus puts it right.

CHORUS:

A little talk with Jesus puts it right,
Though trials of every kind,
Praise God I always find
A little talk with Jesus puts it right.

Tho' dark the night, and clouds look black
And stormy overhead;
And trials almost of every kind,
Across my path are spread;
How soon I conquer all,
As to the Lord I call;
A little talk with Jesus puts it right.—CHO.

When those who once were dearest friends
Begin to persecute;
And more, who once professed to love,
Have silent grown and mute;
I tell him all my grief,
He quickly sends relief;
A little talk with Jesus puts it right.—CHO.

When'er the fight seems getting dull,
And weariness draws nigh,
And Satan in his craftiness
Whispers, "No longer try,"
I fall upon my knees,
The devil quickly flees;
A little talk with Jesus puts it right.—CHO.

And thus by frequent little talks
I gain the victory;
And march along with cheerful song,
Enjoying liberty;
With Jesus as my friend,
I'll prove until the end,
A little talk with Jesus puts it right.—CHO.

My Beautiful Home.

Above the waves of earthly strife,
Above the ills and cares of life,
Where all is peaceful, bright and fair,
My home is there, my home is there.

CHORUS:

My beautiful home, my beautiful home,
In the land where the glorified ever shall roam,
Where angels bright wear crowns of light,
My home is there, my home is there.

Away from sorrow, doubt and pain,
Away from worldly loss and gain,
From all temptations, tears and care,
My home is there, my home is there.—CHO.

Where living fountains sweetly flow,
Where buds and flowers immortal grow,
Where trees and fruits celestial bear,
My home is there, my home is there.—CHO.

Beyond the bright and pearly gates,
Where Jesus loving Saviour waits,
Where all is peaceful, bright and fair,
My home is there, my home is there.—CHO.

Trim your Lamps and be ready.

Rejoice ye saints the time draws near
When Christ will in the clouds appear,
And for His people call.

Trim your lamps and be ready
For the midnight cry.

The trumpet sounds, the thunders roll,
The heavens passing as a scroll,
The earth will burn with fire.

Poor sinners then on earth will cry (While lightning flashes from the sky),
"O mountains on us fall!"

Then on a sea of glass shall stand
King Jesus with His conquering band,
Safe housed above the fire.

Come, comrades all, and let us try,
To warn poor sinners, and to cry,
"Behold the Bridegroom comes!"

Let the Lower Lights be Burning.

Brightly beams our Father's mercy,
From His light-house evermore,
But to us He gives the keeping
Of the lights along the shore.

Chorus:—

Let the lower lights be burning!
Send a gleam across the wave!
Some poor fainting, struggling seaman
You may rescue, you may save.

Dark the night of sin has settled,
Loud the angry billows roar;
Eager eyes are watching, longing,
For the lights along the shore. CHO.—

Trim your feeble lamp, my brother,
Some poor sailor, tempest-tost,
Trying now to make the harbor,
In the darkness, may be lost. CHO.—

'Twas a very happy day.

Before I got salvation, I was sunk in degradation,
And from my Saviour wandered far astray;
But I came to Calvary's mountain, and I fell into the fountain,
And from my heart the burden rolled away.

Chorus:—

'Twas a very happy day and no mistake,
When Jesus from my heart did take
The load of sin that made it ache,
And filled my soul with joy.

Since I have been converted, and the devil's ranks deserted,

I've had such joy and gladness in my soul!
For Jesus I've been fighting, and in the war de-lighting,

And now I'm pressing on towards the goal.

If faithful to my Saviour, I shall enjoy his favour,
And He will keep me safely to the end;
And when I cross the river, I'll live with him forever,
And one eternal day of glory spend.

Come to the dear loving Saviour.

Tune:—Jesus is strong to deliver.
I've wandered from home and the Saviour,
For many long years in sin;
I'm filled with dismay,
And darkness to-day,
And Satan is ruler within.

CHORUS:

Come to the dear loving Saviour,
Take Him just now, take Him just now,
Come to the dear loving Saviour,
Down at his feet humbly bow.

I say, "I have been far too sinful,
And nothing can me now reclaim;"
But to save the lost,
Him His life-blood it cost,
Oh, come now to God in His name.

The Angel said, "Jesus" we'll call Him,
His people from sin He will save;
Though vile you may be,
You can be made free,
No need to be longer a slave.

He tells you, "My grace is sufficient,"
"I never will leave nor forsake;"
If you turn from the past,
And in Him stand fast,
Your life one of joy He will make.

Original.

Oh! what a Christ have I.

I've found the pearl of greatest price,
My heart doth sing for joy;
And sing I must, a Christ I have,
Oh, what a Christ have I.

My Christ, He is the Lord of lords,
He is the King of kings;
He is the Sun of righteousness,
With healing in his wings.

My Christ, He is the Tree of life,
Which in God's garden grows;
Whose fruits do feed, whose leaves do heal,
My Christ is Sharon's rose.

Christ is my meat, Christ is my drink,
My medicine and my health;
My peace, my strength, my joy, my crown,
My glory and my wealth.

Christ is my Father and my Friend,
My Brother and my Love;
My Bread, my Hope, my Counsellor,
My Advocate above.

My Christ, He is the Heaven of heavens,
My Christ, what shall I call:
My Christ is first, my Christ is last?
My Christ is all in all.

Calvary's Stream.

There is a cleansing current,
It flows from Calvary;
'Twas opened by the Saviour,
From sin each soul to free;
And now His voice is calling,
With accents, oh! so sweet:
"Come to the cleansing river Down at the mercy-seat."

CHORUS:

Calvary's stream is flowing,
Calvary's stream is flowing,
Flowing so free for you and me,
Calvary's stream is flowing.

Though worn and heavy laden,
And burdened with your sin,
There's virtue in the river—
Oh! will you enter in?
There's healing in its waters,
There's cleansing in its stream;
Then look away to Calvary,
Where mercy's light doth beam.

This stream of life eternal
For you is flowing free;
Oh, bow yourself for cleansing,
And gain your liberty;
Then Christ shall be your Saviour,
And out of you shall flow
A life of peace and heaven,
God's Paradise below.

My Lord, what a mourning.

You'll hear the trumpet sound,
To wake the nations under-ground;
Looking to my God's right hand,
When the stars begin to fall.

CHORUS:

My Lord, what a mourning!
When the stars begin to fall.

You'll see the great White Throne,
And stand before it all alone,
Waiting for the King to call,
When the stars begin to fall!

Before the Judgment Seat,
Your sentence will the King repeat!
Terror will you then enthral,
When the stars begin to fall!

You'll see the King come forth
To judge the nations in His wrath!
Sinners to the rocks will call
When the stars begin to fall!

You'll hear Him say, "Well done!"
To all who have the battle won:
Oh, that He may claim us all,
When the stars begin to fall!

Beckoning Hands.

Beautiful hands at the gate-way to-night,
Faces all shining with radiant light;
Eyes looking down from yon heavenly home,
Beautiful hands they are beckoning come.

CHORUS:

Beautiful hands, beckoning hands,
Calling the loved ones to heavenly lands;
Beautiful hands, beckoning hands,
Beautiful, Beautiful, Beckoning hands.

Beckoning hands of a mother whose love,
Sacrificed life its devotion to prove;
Hands of a father to memory dear,
Beckoning up higher the waiting ones here.

Beckoning hands of a little one see,
Baby voice calling, oh mother, to thee;
Rosy cheeked darling, the light of our home,
Taken so early, is beckoning come.

Beckoning hands of a husband or wife,
Watching and waiting the loved one of life;
Hands of a brother, a sister or friend,
Out of the gate-way to-night they extend.

Brightest and best of that glorious throng,
Center of all and the theme of our song,
Jesus, our Saviour, the pierced one stands,
Lovingly calling with beckoning hands.

We are out on the ocean sailing.

We are out on the ocean sailing,
Homeward bound we swiftly glide;
We are out on the ocean sailing,
To our home beyond the tide.

CHORUS:

All the storms will soon be over,
Then we'll anchor in the harbor;
We are out on the ocean sailing,
To our home beyond the tide.

Millions now are safely landed
Over on the golden shore;
Millions more are on their journey,
Yet there's room for millions more.

Come on board and ship for glory;
Be in haste, make up your mind;
For our vessel's weighing anchor,
You will soon be left behind.

You have kindred over yonder,
On that bright and happy shore;
By-and-bye we'll swell the number,
When the toils of life are o'er.

Spread your sails while heavenly breezes
Swiftly waft our vessel on;
All on board are sweetly singing;
Free salvation is the song.

When we all are safely anchored
Over on the shining shore,
We will march about the city,
And we'll sing for evermore.

The Lord is Nigh.

TUNE:—"While the days are going by."

Sinner, you may have salvation,
While the Lord is passing by;
If you'll leave sin's degradation,
While the days are passing by.
Oh, He waits to set you free,
From sin's dark misery,
Won't you come and happy be?
While the Lord is passing by.

CHORUS.

The Lord is nigh,
The Lord is nigh,
Sinner won't you to him fly?
While the Lord is passing by.

He can still the troubled ocean,
If you'll only to Him fly.
He will calm the heart's commotion,
If you only to Him fly.
Yes, He'll quickly send relief,
Banish all your fear and grief,
For He saved a dying thief,
When he unto Him did cry.

Oh, He wants you in His vineyard,
For your time is passing by,
To win souls now for the kingdom,
While the time is passing by.
You may bear the tidings true,
To the many or the few,
When the Lord has pardoned you.
Come, the time is passing by.

(Original.)

Prepare to meet your God.

Your garments must be as white as snow,
Prepare to meet your God!
For to His throne you'll have to go!
Prepare to meet your God!

Chorus:

Prepare me, prepare me, Lord!
Prepare me to stand before thy throne;

Get washed from every stain of sin;
Prepare to meet your God!
You must God's great salvation win;
Prepare to meet your God! CHO.

Prepare me now, prepare me here,
To stand before thy throne;
That I, without a doubt or fear,
May stand before thy throne. CHO.

Lord cleanse my heart and make me pure,
To stand before thy throne;
My pride and self and temper cure,
To stand before thy throne.

Safe from Every Storm.

Tune:—"No, Never Alone."

Sinners on life's stormy ocean,
Your weak, frail barque is tossed,
Threatening every moment
To sink, and your soul be lost.
Take Jesus on board as your pilot,
He'll steer your vessel safe home,
In the haven of rest to be anchored,
In safety from every storm.

CHORUS.—Safe, safe from every storm,
Safe, safe from every storm,
Anchored with Jesus in heaven,
Safe from every storm.

The winds and the waves they are dashing,
Driving you nearer your doom,
Soon on sin's rocks you'll be crashing,
And hell everlasting your tomb.
Oh! cry unto Jesus to save you,
Ere you perish and all hope is gone;
He'll rebuke the winds and the water,
And still the raging storm.

The billows around you are surging,
And death is drawing near,
Very soon you will be sinking
Down into the gulf of despair.
Oh! listen to the sweet voice of Jesus,
Calling the wanderers home,
In His loving arms He will shield you,
In safety from every storm.

Our Sailor Song.

Tune:—Lily of the Valley.

There is a gospel lifeboat, 'twill safely bear us o'er,
To the land where stormy winds can never blow;
But where celestial sunshine and summer never end,
Smoothly sailing to that harbor you may go.
Oh seek salvation's lifeboat, there's room for all within,
Hark! they hail you, can't you hear the earnest cry?
Wait not a moment longer, leave every doubt and sin,
Your time and chance is gliding swiftly by.

Refrain:—

Oh seek salvation's lifeboat, there's room for all within,
Your time and chance is gliding swiftly by;
Life's voyage will soon be over, Eternity begin,
Are you ready if this day you're called to die?

Though trials hard may press you and storms rage
loud and long,
And through breakers wild you're drifting straight ashore;
Run up the danger signal, seek help while it is near,
Ere you sink, a ruined soul to rise no more.
Then step into the lifeboat and join the happy crew,
Whosoever will may take their place within;
The Saviour now is calling, Oh hasten to obey,
Leave at once the sinking wreck of self and sin.

Though stormy winds are blowing, and waves run mountains high,
What care we if we've Jesus at the wheel;
Though lightnings flash and thunders roar and clouds are overhead,
'Twill be calm, for He will whisper "Peace be still."
Then waves subside and winds will hush and all be bright and clear,
We'll have music, laughter, gladness, joy and song;
For with Him, the heavenly pilot, no danger need
we fear,
For the heavenly host will shout the welcome home.

At the Cross.

When my heart was so hard
That I nee'r would regard
The salvation held up to my sight;
To the cross when I came
In my darkness and shame,
It was there where I first saw the light

Chorus:—

At the cross, at the cross,
Where I first saw the light,
And the burden of my heart rolled away,
It was there by faith,
I received my sight,
And now I am happy all the day.

For my blindness I thought
That no power could have wrought
Such a marvel of wonder and might;
But 'twas done, for I felt
At the cross, as I knelt,
That my darkness was turned into light.

Then the gloom had all passed,
And, rejoicing at last,
I was sure that my soul was made right;
For my Lord I could see
In His love died for me
On the cross, where I first saw the light.

Choruses.

I will follow thee, my Saviour,
Thou hast shed thy blood for me,
And though all the world forsake me,
By thy grace I'll follow thee.

I have a Saviour whose mighty to keep,
Mighty to keep evermore.

Oh! I am so happy, Oh! I am so happy,
All the sins I had He's washed them all away.
He's washed them all away, He washed them all away,
And I am going to glory upon the crowning day.

All I want, all I want, all I want,
Is a little more faith in Jesus.
All I want, all I want, all I want,
Is a lot more faith in Jesus.

I knew the deceased quite a number of years. I associated with him, I know his brother Frank very well. I met Frank McLaughlin on the curb at 32nd St + 10th Ave. I saw the witness Bussang but did not speak to him. McLaughlin did not say who was laying for him with a base ball bats. I saw his brother the deceased walking ahead of us. I did not see a crowd at the other side of Mission. I saw a crowd when they came out of the hallway with base ball bats. Deceased was just outside the Mission when Kelly came out. I did not see McLaughlin have anything in his hand. Did not hear of a knife being found there. I saw no provocation ^{giving} to Kelly by the deceased. I have been arrested 3 times. First in '79 for stealing money I was tried + convicted + sent to Elmira Reformatory. I was arrested twice for going in swimming + once for assault + fined $10.00 I have tried to lead an honest life since I came from Elmira. I was the distance of 3 or 4 houses from deceased when he was taken before me was struck. I am not a member of the "Damen" Gang or any other gang. James Casey being duly sworn says he resides at 437 W 26 Street this city and that he is acquainted with the defendant and also the McLaughlins.

That on the 7th day of July 1888 at about the hour of half past ten O'clock at night on corner of 37 Street & 10 Ave he first saw Chas McLaughlin Frank McLaughlin & Geo Brady. Chas McLaughlin came over to me and asked me who hit my brother last night, and I said I did not know anything about him or his brother and then he said if he found out who it was he (McLaughlin) would put his head between his legs. They then started to go up 10 Ave and as they did Frank McLaughlin said George watch the Kid meaning me, they walked up 10 Ave to 33 St & then towards 11 Avenue.

I stood on corner talking and said
there was going to be some trouble with the W. Laybline. After standing there about 10 minutes it being then after 11 P.M. I saw Chas
W. Laybline coming up from 11 Ave towards 9 Ave. and noticed them just about under electric light, they walked up towards Mission Chas being first Frank W. Laybline was second and Brady behind him also Johnny Rodgers & Benty Gallen were to follow coming up behind Brady.
I started to walk up on South side of 34 St, and when about opposite Mission, I saw Chas
W. Laybline reach about the middle of Mission on the street and a man who I do not remember, struck him with a bat previous to the blow being struck I saw Chas
W. Laybline raise his hand in a striking uplifted position and saw a knife in his hand.
After being struck he fell in the street after staggering, and Frank W. Laybline commenced yelling, and Brady & Mr. Laughlin both then came up. After the blow was struck, the bat was thrown away, and man run away.

At the time I first saw Chas. Mr. Laughlin he had a knife then in his hand.

I made the above statement to Deputy Assistant District Attorney Foster ~~in the District~~ at the District Attorney's Office about two weeks ago, when I was sent for and brought to him, and made this the same statement to Mr. Meyer after he was assigned to me as Counsel in a burglary case upon which I was locked up and acquitted.

I am satisfied that no conviction could be had and further I do not believe from the examination I have made that the defendant is guilty of the charge. The complainant is unable to identify him. There was a general fight that night the complainant and his party being apparently mistaken for the political opponents of the attacking party and the only evidence of a larceny or an attempt at one is that in the fight the complainant had his watch chain broken. I once got six months for petty larceny. That was four years ago. I am now twenty-two years of age. Since I left the Island I have worked steadily as a truck driver and fireman. I fired on one of the Old Dominion steamers. The night in question I was coming up West Street toward Hubert to go home. I lived at No. 155 Hudson St. I was coming from a political meeting. Between Beach and Hubert Streets in West St. I saw the complainant and four or five men whom I did not know in a fight. I stood and watched the fight. I had been standing there a short time. The men all struggling together came from the street onto the side walk and there the complainant seized me and grappled with me and I broke away from him and went up (walked) to the corner of Hubert and West streets and stood there until the complainant came up with a policeman and had me arrested. vs

1860

Leopold Kossuth

Att. of def.

Court of General Sessions of the Peace in and for the City and County of New York

The People of the State of New York upon Complaint of Abraham Binder against Siegfried Kinski

William

City and County of New York ss:

Siegfried Kinski being duly sworn deposes and says that he is 24 years old resides at No. 114 First Street in said City;
that he is the defendant in the above action charged with having stolen certain ladies trimmings from the Complainant and has since been indicted for Grand Larceny; that defendant has now been confined in Prison over two weeks.

That the true facts of the case are as follows
to wit:

This defendant was formerly employed with the Complainant herein, in the Capacity of a bookkeeper and Salesman,
as will be seen by the Certificate of said Complainant hereto annexed. That among other things it was the defendant's duty to go about the City and Solicit orders for his employer; that some time during the month of September, 1888 he succeeded in getting an order from the firm of Meyer and Jonas for Sixty four dollars worth of Ladies Brimming; that defendant reported said order to his employer the said Complainant, and in about a week or so defendant received from his said employer the goods for Messrs Meyer and Jonas; that defendant went to said Messrs Meyer and Jonas to deliver the goods when to defendants surprise the partners of Messrs Meyer and Jonas Mr Martin Cohen refused to accept the goods, saying that the firm could not then use the goods, but that he would inform defendant when he would have use for them; that said Complainant told frequently upon several occasions, complained that business was not good, and that defendant must try to sell more goods or the Complainant could not afford to keep him. defendant was timid about taking back the goods to his employer the Complainant, in fear that he would lose his position, so he thought that he would take the goods to his home and when Messrs Meyer and Joss would inform defendant that they ^{were} ~~would~~ ^{use} ~~use~~ them he would debtor them to said firm; That in the mean time Complainant discharged defendant for the reason that Complainant could not afford to keep defendant; That defendant had kept said goods at his home several weeks when on or about September 10th 1888 his board bill became due, and defendant having no other means or property to raise any money in his district and scheme partly pledged the goods of the Complainant for seven dollars with some Pawn broker upon First Avenue near South Street to pay his board, thinking that as soon as he would succeed in getting the amount of money together he would redeem the goods and either sell them to Messrs Meyer & Joss and pay over the money, or return the goods to the Complainant; That defendant was found $32 worth of goods and immediately sent the other portion with words to what he had done with the balance to said Complainant and fully apprised him of the act, and stated him that he would redeem the goods in a short time;

That defendant however was unfortunate

so that it was impossible for him to get the money together so as to redeem the goods in the mean time weeks sold on until he was arrested in this action.

That it never was his intention to either steal convert or keep the goods nor did he have any idea of pledging them until he was without means and did not know how to help himself so as to prevent him from being put into the Street, and then he and my brother took one half of the goods and redeemed the other half to said Complainant.

That defendant never was in trouble before in his life. never was arrested either in this Country nor his own always made an honest living and used every effort to get work until the goods were pledged so as to redeem them but always failed to get enough to do to pay the sum necessary to redeem said goods. That he has been in this Country but nine months during all of which time he has conducted himself lawfully and tried to make an honest living until this unfortunate affair as aforesaid.

That he is not acquainted with the laws of this Country and was not aware when he found the goods that he was committing a crime. That when defendant was arrested he immediately informed the detective of the whereabouts of the goods and left nothing from the police but told the whole truth as he is stating the same here. That defendant begs the Pardon of the Court for another opportunity to reform and in view of the fact that the goods are found and defendant's friends will make restitution to the owner of the goods he has advanced upon them he asks for a lenient sentence.

vs

Leopold Kurtz

Charged with Larceny Before
Honble Daniel O.
Rielly Police Justice
Oct 19-1888

Grace Examination of the complaining witnesses by Mr Adolph Lohr:

Q Can you say how many shoe ramps
you lost?

A From the first of September when I noticed I missed them I lost from 100 to 120 pair

Q How many know they were missing? what way have you of determining that you lost them?

A We generally have an account of what goods come down for a whole week, and we know how many are finished and how many are left over. ^{and these} are not skinned yet, and it shows that they were taken out of the cutting room before they are taken down?

Q. Then of your own knowledge you don't know anything about it except what your women tell you.
A. They don't tell me I don't ask them.

Q. How many workmen do you employ?

A. 15 or 20.

Q. Then you are not there during all the time they are cut?

A. No sir I go. When say a dozen calf skins ^{and} that is figured out that they cut so many pairs ^{and} so many uppers, and so many are to come down
those are a part of the uppers and are cut by different parties and they come down skinned to the store and after that they are given to the fitter, so, but then on the upper to connect them get how many of those ramps. do you get per day out of your factory

3

A well about 100 to 150 a day.

Q Between September ²⁴ the time you arrested the defendants at the rate of 100 pair a day it would be quite a large quantity wouldn't it amounting to thousands of dollars?

A Yes Sir

Q Don't it a fact that it not only depends upon the weight of the calf skin how many ^{pair} you get but also of the size ^{of} the particular skin you have?

A There is out of a certain weight of calf skin you can cut a number of pair, but we know how many pair exactly they will give Q If you sent to your factory say a 100 pound of calf skin do you state now to the court that 4 out of every 100 pounds of calf skin you sent up stairs they must give you the same exact number & size.

A. Not exactly.

Q. Then that depends upon what?
A. Well the calf may be a whole it might vary from 2 to 5 pairs in a dozen or 2 dozen.

Q. Then there may be a difference of five pairs to a dozen, or two pairs as you say depending upon the quality of the leather & the thickness of the skin.

A. This has nothing to do with the calf skin.

Q. Will you state now that all the calf skin you sent up to London these kind of ranges
all are exactly of the same thickness?

A. A skin of 30 pounds will not cut as much as a skin of 50 pounds need not be measured.

as much from a skin of 30 pounds as we do of 50 pounds
we require from a skin of 30 pounds we demand 70 pair from a skin of 50 pounds we demand 90 pair; proportionally we bring out the same number of that is a case of 5 pair or 2 pair to 2 dozen?

Answer,

Will you please state how you mean these goods to be yours?

As you have a hundred manufactures in New York City every one will know his own style every body has his different marks on them. There for instance is a mark & that is the private mark you will find every other manufactures figures different from the others, that is my mark. I identify them by the mark and shape & style
that is the mark,

6

Q The size

Q Then to mark you have on here
no 8 that is the size of the ramp?

Answer, and every sized ramp has a different number

Q Now will you state that after manufactures do not use that style of figure?

Answer.

Q Then you recognize it by the peculiar style of handwriting

A I recognize it by the handwriting style & shape.

Q And you know whose handwriting that is?

A My name Jake Wade

Q And that you swear positively to?
Answer he has been with me
long enough to know it

Q And are you willing to swear that without seeing any figure from the ramp and without seeing the letter that having seen the 8 that that is yours

7 man Jack Wades handwriting

a you seeing the leather & style and more, I have never seen his handwriting on paper or anything else

If you again would you think wherever you saw that figure & no matter where you found it, on leather, paper or stone that it was Wades handwriting
a No. 1 do.

If you now state Mr. Packer that if a piece of leather was banded to you any ordinary piece of leather with an S on it that you would be willing to swear that that was an S put on by Mr. Wade's Agency

Defendants Counsel

Is there is a difference for these various vamped
I offer them as evidence
Ex 1, 2, & 3.

8

Q Are you an expert in handwriting analysis?

A And still you swear that you could recognize that & to be your portion & on any piece of paper any one this man would for me for 12 years. I know my shape and style.

Q Will you swear that no manufacturer has that style whose you have?

A I will not swear to that.

Q Then the only way you positively identify it is by the handwriting?

A Yes by the shape.

Q Then you are not willing to swear that no other manufacturer has that shape?

A I don't know of any.

Q Then it may be possible?

A It may be possible.

Q You stated a little before that that there may be a difference of 5 pairs to one or 2 dozen

9

Now if you manufactured from the 1st of September when you began to miss these goods those ramps until the 16th of October that would be about a month and a half for about 30 working days and you said you manufactured about a 150 day that would be about $1500 pair would it
Cyril Sii

Q Now when day in believed the dependant stole these goods?

A No I don't believe it

Q Now did the dependant have any opportunity of getting goods out of your place or taking them?

A Not that I know of

Q Besides the dependant there may be any number of your workers who would have gone to your place and taken these goods?

Cyril Sii

Q And if they were taken from 10 you they could and might be stolen by some of your workmen might they not?

Answer

Q And your opinion is that some body employed by you stole them and not the defendant?

Answer

Q And you state to the Court that he stole them?

A I don't state that, I said I was informed so. I did not state that he stole them. That he bought the stolen goods I said,

Q And you or did you not state that you believed the defendant stole those goods?

A I did not

Q Then that is an error in your affidavit?

Answer That is an error

By the Court

Q The goods were stolen?

Answer

11

Q and they were sold to the defendant
Answer: -

Q and you identify this property as being yours?

Answer:

Q and it was stolen from you?

Answer:

Q and you were informed by Mr Buttner that he bought this property from the defendant?

Answer:

Q and you swear to this affidavit
on information received from Mr Buttner?

Answer:

Q what is the value of these uppers and cents apart we value them at some cost 35 and 37 1/2 cents
they cannot be made for less than 35 to 37 1/2 cents but our figure is 40 cents

than a male out

how many pair can you cut?

A pair in general

Want is the value of the calf skin

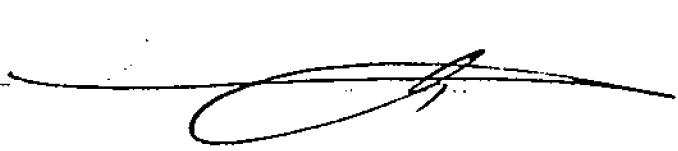

A 60 cent a pound

Want how many to the hundred
