being duly sworn and examined deposes and says:

Q What is your name, age, residence and profession?

A Charles C. Morhouse, age 58, residence No. 218 West 44th Street, and a physician by profession.

Q Do you know the defendant Robert C. Flower?

A Yes

Q Did you know a lady named H. E. Wright in her life time.

A I did about a week before her death.

Q Where did she die?

A 439 - 5th Avenue.

Q At whose house?

A At the defendant's house

Q Did you see her there on or about the 7th of November 1881?

A Yes. About midnight.

Q Did you see the defendant administer any liquid to her about that time?

A. I saw Dr. Flower give her two doses of fluid extract of Ergot.

Q Did he pour it out of a bottle into a spoon and administer it himself?

A. He poured it out of a small bottle into a spoon and put it into a little water and after putting it into the water he gave it to her.

Q Did he tell you what it was he was giving to her?

A. He told me it was Squibb's Ergot.

Q Was the lady at that time suffering from any disease?

A. She was sick at the time.

Cross examination by Charles S. Spencer. Counsel for the defense.

Q How long have you lived in this city?

A. About four years.

Q Where did you come from?

A. Cleveland.

Q How long did you live there?

A. Thirty two years.

Q Was you a Conductor on a passenger train at any time then?

A Yes.

Q Was you in the oil business?

A Yes.

Q Did you attempt to get discharged from bankruptcy but was prevented by your creditors?

A (Objected to)

Q Did you start there as a doctor claiming to be able to cure all diseases by the laying on of hands?

A I never started in the City of Cleveland as a Doctor of myself. ~~That~~ I manipulated one person there. but did not live there. I did not doctor by the laying on of his hands as I know of.

Q Was you a cabinet-maker then?

A That was the first trade I learned.

Q Is that your handwriting (showing witness an envelope and letter)

A Yes. That is my writing.

(Papers^{not} offered in evidence and marked Exhibit A 10 1/2)

Q. Did you write a letter of which there is a copy substantially in Dr. Morris's place. (Paper shown witness) (Objected to)

Q. Was you at any time in Dr. Morris's employment?

A. Was in his employment, called there to treat patients.

Q. Where was the house?

A. 439-5th Ave. I believe.

Q. When was you first called there?

A. The 7th of October I think it was

Q. Was it not November?

A. It might have been.

Q. Now that time may you called there at different intervals?

A. Every day.

Q. For how long?

A. About three weeks.

Q. Did you go to Dr. Morris and ask him to employ you?

A. I did not.

Q. Who paid you?

A. The defendant paid me.

Q. Did not you make an agreement with him by the week?

 A. I did.

Q. Then did you cease any connection with Dr. Flowers?

A. About the 14th or 15th of December.

Q. You was discharged wasn't you?

A. You may call it a discharge.

Q. How long after you were discharged before you wrote him this letter I have read?

A. The same evening.

Q. How long after that before you saw Mr. Ripley?

A. I have not any recollection when I saw Mr. Ripley.

Q. ~~When~~ when did you speak first about Dr. Flowers?

A. To whom connected with the authorities or medical men did you speak about Dr. Flowers?

A. I don't know that I spoke to any medical men: I talked with Brent first to the Board of Health to see if he was a registered physician: it might have been a month after he discharged: I did not know when I wrote that letter that he was not a registered physician: I felt that he was not: that is what I meant when I wrote in the letter that he "was amenable to the law": that is what I meant when I wrote "your peculiar circumstances": very likely I meant that when I wrote "endangering your own reputation".

Q Did you not mean by writing this letter - Exhibited - to frighten him into employing you again?

A No sir I did not want his employ.

Q Then if you did not want his employment what did you ^{mean} ~~mean~~ ^{by} writing this letter - Exhibited - to frighten him into employing you again? ^{I would not say words of provocation to the fact.} ^{intention of causing him to be harshly enhancing} the good name of your institution, and thus extending its influence, success, without endangering your own reputation.

A. I did not intend to go back to Mr. Flowers to work if he had taken me at any price - I meant that mode of treatment by enhancing the good of the patients by getting them out as soon as possible and causing a speedy recovery to health as possible.

Q. What did you mean by very mean treatment?

A. Without an explanation of his treatment to me - he rather mented me! I did not think to get even with him in this prosecution: After I went to the Health Department I went to the County Clerk to see if he was registered: I did not go to the Health Board or the County Clerk while I was employed by him: I then talked with Mr Ripley about it: the County Clerk sent me to Mr Ripley: when they found in the County Clerk's that Flower was not registered he said that was just the man we want: I did not go there for the purpose of having him prosecuted: I went there to see if he had a right to practice: I told Mr Ripley about the Ergot: Dr. Flower suggested that the Ergot should be given to the woman: I made no suggestion about giving the woman Ergot: Dr. Buchanan was not present: I might have suggested the giving of Ergot: the bottle of ergot was in the house; some had been used out of it:

Re-directly

Q At the time you were employed by Flower did he tell you he was a regular physician?
A He did.

Q What was the cause of the trouble between you and Dr. Flower?
A I didn't know that we had any particular trouble?

Q What was the difference between his mode of treatment and yours that you refer to in that letter?

A His mode of treatment was in giving baths and keeping patients there a very long time - my mode of treatment was with remedies, medicines and when I saw the necessity of manipulation I did it;
I said so to some of the patients and Dr. Flower objected.

- Q—Are you the Treasurer of the "Metallic Bond

- A—Yes Sir
- Q—Of which the previous witness, Mr Wood, is Vice President?
- A—Yes Sir
- Q—Did you pay any money to the "Sept."
(here present)?
- A—I did, Sir, in a check
- Q—How much?
- A—Twenty dollars
- Q—To whose order did you draw the check
- A—Mr. F. Edgar
- Q—Upon what representation did you give that check?
- A—He (Sept.) brought in an advertisement and said that he had put it in there, and completed his arrangement with Mr Wood
- Q—And you then completed his arrangement with Mr Wood?

A - Well, his contract

Q Did Mr Wood direct you to give him the check?

A - Not specially so

Q Did you have any personal conversation with him in relation to the business?

A - I was present at a part of the first interview with Mr Wood. Mr Wood had a previous conversation with him & I came in upon him.

Q What representations did he make to you at the time you gave him the check?

A - He said that he put in an advertisement as arranged with Mr Wood, & that it was now complete. I went around & read it through, and I saw that so far as I remembered the matter it was previously read to me, it was correct.

Q You mean the contract?

A - Yes, sir, the advertisement, the advertisement that Mr Wood gave this defendant Mr. Wood, the advertisement of the "Metallurgical Bureau Co." to be printed on their right fence of the rail road company

 : 2 Do you know anything about the hanging of it up in the depot?
 A yes sir, I asked him what right he had to hang them up, and he said that he had shown to the road his authority to hang them up.
 I asked if he was ordered by Court, if asked him if he had it he said he had it with him. I gave him the check for twenty dollars.

Q In full discharge for that payment or obligation?

A. Yes Sir

Q. How many days before?

A. I should think three days, I am not certain about that

Q. Now will you state to this Hon. what he (Ford) said in the first interview as you can

A. When he signed the programme, he said that he wanted an advertisement in the cars of the New York Central Rail Road, they were going to put them in all their depots

I said, you say the N. Y. C. & H. R. R. are doing this? and he said, "yes Sir"

He said that he was acting for the N. Y. C. & H. R. R., they were going to put these Card up in all the depots of their line. His price was twenty dollars for the card showing it will be 8 x 11 inches. I will make it clearer by showing their programme (produced). That is the card that he proposed to show. That the N. Y. & N. E. were having lithographed, & put up in all their depots. He said he would like it put up in all their depots for twenty dollars.

Q He said he was sure it would be put up?

A Yes Sir. I said so & I am sure it is so. My statement is correct.

Q What information have you that they left (and) had no authority from the N. Y. & N. E. to place those cards in the depots of the Company?

A My information on that subject came from Whanney Referr. He said it was not so. He referred me to the advertising agent, his name I have forgotten, and he said "There is no sum of money which will permit that to be done".

Q Have you any knowledge, except what you have stated to His Hon. on that subject?

A No Sir

The Complainant's Counsel, stated to the Court that my previous character was bad, this I beg most emphatically to deny, and can bring worthy citizens to prove that my character has always been good prior to this Charge. I was employed previously, firstly, by Garrett Hagle and lastly, by the Complainant, in whose employment I came to grief, it was my duty, to look after Repairs, and Collect Rents, in Houses of Assignment, in one of these houses, I became infatuated, with one of the inmates, whom, I being young and inexperienced, foolishly allowed to cause me to break from the path of honesty. I may here mention that the complainant paid me a salary of only $5.00 per week. I never was arrested before in my life, and never knowingly committed a wrong act.

I sincerely hope, considering the above circumstances, that your Honor will in passing sentence on me, deal as leniently as you possibly can.

City Judge

Sir

I take the liberty of writing to you in behalf of Joseph Ford who pleaded guilty before your Honorable Court a few days ago to the charge of Grand Larceny. I have known the young man since his infancy; he was in my employment about two years and I never heard or knew him to be guilty of a criminal act. Any clemency which your Honor may deem it proper to extend to him will be gratefully remembered by your obedient servant and his suffering family.

I have the honor to be

Very respectfully

Yours etc. Sarah

Hon Henry A. Goldensleeve, - City Judge,
Sir:

I take the liberty of addressing you in respect to Joseph's Ford, whose sentence for grand larceny was postponed a few days since, to next week. I can speak from personal knowledge about this young man, having lived with his mother, an excellent Christian, lady who now resides at 46, E. 10th St. for a period of about 9 years. I have known Joseph since he was a small boy, & previous to the present year, he was an honest, upright, intelligent and persevering young man. His mother had watched over him with great care and solicitude endeavoring to keep him under the restraining influence of morality and religion. I believe the offense for which he now stands committed to be due to some peculiar temptation which will not again occur. His mother's health is poor, and she is in a constant worry about her son. I sincerely trust, that whatever clemency you can consistently bestow will be extended to him, as it will aid in saving a worthy family from serious degradation.

Very Respectfully
Yours Obedt Servant
