Grand Larceny, Second degree [Sections 528, 581 and 550, Penal Code.]

0456

City and County of New York.

Tried, January 9th., 1888.

Assistant District Attorney Bedford, for the People;
Mr. Jacob Berlinger, for the Defence.

GEORGE ATWATER, testified that he was a truck-driver, and that he was driving a truck on the 15th. of December. He was at the corner of Courtland and Washington Streets and he had on the truck 5 half chests of tea, they were valued at $30 a chest. The chests were in his custody. He saw some of the tea in the possession of the defendant on the following day. He was out last before that day about half past three on the 15th.. He permitted no one to take it from the truck.

UNDER CROSS-EXAMINATION. He testified that he missed the tea at the corner of Courtland and Washington Streets. It was about half past three o'clock on the afternoon of the 15th. of December. He saw it again in the morning in the station house. He got the value of the tea from the house that employed him to cart the tea.

OFFICER DANIEL BOYLEN testified that he was attached to the Second Police Precinct. He arrested Stanley on the evening of the 15th. of December in a hall-way. It was about five minutes to four o'clock. It was in the hall-way of No. 36 Washington Street. About three blocks from the corner of Courtland and Washington Streets. He saw the defendant coming into the hall-way with the tea-- with a chest of tea, and he followed him and the two men got to the head of the stairs, one flight up, and they put it in a closet, and when he got there they went into the yard and into the cellar, and he, the witness, went in after them and could not find them and he went outside and fifteen minutes afterwards, they came out of the same cellar and walked down towards No. 26 Washington Street. He followed them, and they went into a stable. He went down as far as Battery Place and got his side partner and they came back up Washington Street and Stanley and Nagle crossed the street and went into Callahoun's Soda Water Bottling establishment, and about 5 minutes later, Stanley passed up Washing ton Street, and when he saw him, the witness crossed to the other side of the street. Then a police officer in citizen's clothes came along, and he, the witness, told him about the matter. and they went into the hall-way and waited to see if they would come for the tea, and Stanley came in just as they were taking the tea out of the closet, and Officer Welsh was there, and he told the officer to hold Stanley, and he, the witness took the tea down stairs and left it in the store and waited for the other man. The other man came around. The other man came around and he, the witness, called him over and he said, " Go to----- you have got to give me a chase first before you will get me" So, he, the witness, gave him a chase and ran him into the hall-way of No. 38. There was a way of crossing into West Street and it was impossible to catch him. The defendant said that he knew nothing about the tea. He, the witness, saw him

assist in taking it up stairs.

UNDER CROSS -EXAMINATION He testified that the man with the defendant was intoxicated and the defendant was helping him to carry it upstairs. The man with the defendant had the chest of tea on his back, and the defendant was holding it on. It was a very wet day, and he, the witness, had a rubber overcoat buttoned down to his feet, otherwise he would have caught the defendant at once. He believed that he didn't work in that neighbourhood. He believed that the bottling establishment was at No. 24. He believed that the defendant worked in that bottling establishment. He said that he was in the building where he, witness, saw him to deliver a message from Mr. William Callahoun, the man next to the bottling establishment.

ATWATER identified the tea in the Station House.

FOR THE DEFENCE. ANTHONY STANLEY testified that he lived at No. 26 Washington Street, and that he lived there with a man for whom he worked, William Calahoun. He had nothing to do with the stealing of the tea. He was in the building where the officer said that he saw him on an errand. He had quitted work at four o'clock on that day, and he was met by a gentleman who accosted him and asked him if he knew where a man named Michael Harne lived and he said yes, and he asked him if he would not go upstairs and ask his wife if he, Harne was in, and he said, "Yes" and, when he got up the first flight of steps, the officer accosted him and asked him if he knew anything about the tea, and he said, "No" and the Officer said, "Where are you going" and he said, "On an errand", and the officer said to the other officer, "You had better take him" and the other officer put handcuffs on him and he was taken to the station house. All that day he was working for William Callahoun who kept 7.

the bottling establishment. He had worked for him for three weeks.

UNDER CROSS-EXAMINATION. He testified that he had not been in State prison. He was not tried and convicted of robbery before Recorder Smyth on the 5th. of September 1884 he pleaded guilty. He was with another man and he was charged with taking away a watch as a pickpocket, a and the other man took it. He, the witness, was only an accomplice. He was only with the man at that time when the deed occurred. He pleaded guilty, because he saw no chance for him. He didn't help to take the chest of tea upstairs. He didn't put a hand on it. He didn't see it going up stairs, or at all until after he was arrested.

For the Defendant Hon. John Hardy.

Charles Herrmann, a witness for the People testified:-

I keep a saloon at No. 319 West 38th Street in this City. I know Mr. Otto Myer. I know the defendant William Stock. The defendant is the driver of a beer wagon for Mr. Myer. On the 7th of October I owed Mr. Myer $38. for beer which had been delivered to me and I paid that money to William Stock the defendant on the 24th of October. He put the money in his pocket and left the store. A couple of weeks later another collector came around and asked me for the $38. and I told him I had paid it to Mr. Stock.

Cross-Examination.

Mr. Stock was a little drunk at the time I paid him the $38.00. He had a good load on. Stock has been collector on the wagon for about a year, and during that time has collected the money from me.

Otto Meyer, a witness for the People testified:-²

I am a dealer in lager beer. I know the defendant and he has been in my employ for several years. I recollect that on the 7th of October last I had a customer named Charles Herrmann and he owed us the sum of $38. I remember that Mr. Stock delivered beer at this place on the 24th of October and was told to collect $38. from Herrmann.

Q Did he ever give you this $38. A.. No sir.

Q Did you ever authorize him to keep it? A. No sir.

Q You have never had that money since? A. No sir.

Cross-Examination.

In the Harlem Court Mr. Stock offered to let us take the $38 out of his wages if we would employ him again.

Re-Direct Examination.

Since the 7th of October how long has hee been in your employ? A. About 6 weeks

Q Has he ever told you about that time that he collected this money from Herrmann? A. No sir.

DEFENSE.

William Stock, the defendant testified:-

I was formerly in Mr. Meyer's employ. My duty was that of a collector and driver.

Q Do you recollect the circumstance of receiving $38. from Mr. Herrmann? A. I could not tell exactly; I dont recollect. I see that I signed a bookm for that amount and when I found that out I was willing to settle with

M-

Mr. Meyer. I have been out of employment since I left Mr. Meyers place. I have worked for other firms and have evidence of good character.

Cross ~~X~~-Examination.

I dont recollect exactly getting any money from Mr. Hermann I went to about fifty customers on that day, and found my way all right. I told Mr . Meyer about the money the next day, that I received it. I told him I lost it, and that I was willing to pay it.

William O'Meara M. D. being duly sworn, says:
I have made an autopsy of the body of Frederick Michel now lying dead at St Vincent's Hospital and from such examination and history of the case, as per testimony, I am of opinion the cause of death is

Shock from rupture of intestine & stomach, resulting from external violence

William O'Meara
M. D.

The Autopsy revealed no external marks of violence, except an ordinary contusion and ecchymosis of the left eye. On opening the body, a stream of blood issued from the abdominal cavity, resulting from a rupture of the large intestine two inches above the ileo-caecal valve; considerable clotted blood was attached to the laceration and in the immediate vicinity. The stomach was also ruptured, and the fluid contents considerably extravasated. Peritonitis was, generally, apparent. The other organs were in normal condition.

Death was due to rupture of stomach and large intestine, with consequent haemorrhage and peritonitis.

To whom it may concern: -

I do hereby testify that I have known Richard H. Steevil for some six years, during which time I have been intimately acquainted with him and his family. I have had both social and financial dealings with him in which he has proven himself to me to be a young man of good principle and honest and straight forward disposition, and I know that his wrong doing has brought great remorse upon himself and family who are people of the highest standing and knows that he is affectionate and dutiful to his mother and feel that this being his first wrong doing, it will make a lasting impression on his future and that he will never be led into temptation again. He still holds the confidence which I always placed in him and I feel sure that he will not abuse it. Very Truly
