John J. Brennan
of No. 51 1/2 Avenue Street, aged 32 years, occupation Stevordore being duly sworn deposes and says, that the premises No 52 1/2 Hudson Street, in the City and County aforesaid, the said being a one story brick building

and which was occupied by deponent as a stable and in which there was at the time no human being, ~~by name~~ were BURGLARIOUSLY entered by means of forcibly Cutting through a partition separating deponents stable from an adjoining stable on the 10th day of February 1889 in the Night time, and the following property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz:

one bag of Oats of the value of one + 25/100 dollars.

(N^o 1,25)

the property of Deponent
and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen, and carried away by

Thomas W. Mahan (Unsub) for the reasons following, to wit: ~~From the fact that at~~ About the hour of 8 O'clock P.M said date deponent caught the said deponent in the act of leaving deponents stable with said bag of Oats in his possession. and when deponent examined said stable he discovered that said partition had been broken as aforesaid. Wherefore deponent charges the said deponent with

Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK against

Anna Meyers

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

Anna Meyers

(Sec. 322, Penal Code.)

of the CRIME OF KEEPING AND MAINTAINING A COMMON BAWDY HOUSE AND HOUSE OF ILL-FAME, committed as follows:

The said

late of the 14th Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the eighteenth day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, and on divers other days and times, as well before as afterwards, to the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, a certain common bawdy house and house of ill-fame, unlawfully and wickedly did keep and maintain; and in the said house divers evil-disposed persons, as well men as women, and common prostitutes, on the days and times aforesaid, as well in the night as in the day, there unlawfully and wickedly did receive and entertain; and in which said house the said evil-disposed persons and common prostitutes, by the consent and procurement of the said Anna Meyers on the days and times aforesaid, there did commit whoredom and fornication; whereby divers unlawful assemblies, disturbances and lewd offences on the days and times aforesaid, as well in the night as in the day, were there committed and perpetrated; to the great damage and common nuisance of all the good people of the said State there inhabiting and residing, in manifest destruction and subversion of and against good morals and good manners, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

Anna Meyers

(Section 385, Penal Code.)

of the CRIME OF MAINTAINING A PUBLIC NUISANCE, committed as follows:

The said

Anna Meyers

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the eighteenth day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, and on divers other days and times between the said day and the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, unlawfully did keep and maintain a certain common, ill-governed house, and in her said house, for her own lucre and gain, certain persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, as well men as women, of evil name and fame and dishonest conversation, to frequent and come together then and on said other days and times, there unlawfully and wilfully did cause and procure, and the said men and women in said house, at unlawful times, as well in the night as in the day, then and on said other days and times there to be and remain, tippling, drinking, gaming, cursing, swearing, quarreling, making great noises and otherwise misbehaving themselves, unlawfully and wilfully did permit and suffer, to the great annoyance, injury and danger of the comfort and repose of a great number of persons, good citizens of our said State there residing, and passing and repassing, to the common nuisance of the said citizens, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

0345

THIRD COUNT—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

Anna Meyers

(Section 322
Penal Code.) of the CRIME OF KEEPING A DISORDERLY HOUSE, committed as follows:

The said

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the eighteenth day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight and on divers other days and times between the said day and the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, unlawfully did keep a certain ill-governed and disorderly house, the same being a place of public resort, and in the said house and place of public resort, for her own lucre and gain, certain persons, as well men as women, of evil name and fame, and of dishonest conversation, to frequent and come together, then and on the said other days and times, there unlawfully and wilfully did cause and procure, and the said men and women in her said house, at unlawful times, as well in the night as in the day, then and on the said other days and times, there to be and remain, drinking, tippling, gambling, rioting, disturbing the peace, whoring and misbehaving themselves, unlawfully and wilfully did permit, and yet continues to permit, by reason whereof the peace, comfort and decency of the neighborhood around and about the said house were, and yet are, habitually disturbed, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse Simon C. Myers of the CRIME OF Grand LARCENY, in the second degree, committed as follows:

The said Simon C. Myers, late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the Twenty fifth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty eight, at the City and County aforesaid, being and as such clerk and servant then and there having in his possession, custody and control certain moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said

George S. Tisdale, the true owner thereof, to wit: the sum of sixty two dollars and twenty five cents in money, lawful money of the United States, and of the value of sixty two dollars and twenty five cents, the said Simon C. Myers afterwards, to wit:

on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, did feloniously appropriate the said sum of money to his own use, with intent to deprive and defraud the said George S. Tisdale, of the same, and of the use and benefit thereof; and the same moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said George S. Tisdale did then and there and thereby feloniously steal, against the form of the statute in such case in the City and County aforesaid, the said being a four story brick tenement house and which was occupied by deponent as a dwelling house and in which there was at the time no human being, by ~~name~~ were BURGLARIOUSLY entered by means of forcibly prying open a window leading from the hallway on the 2nd floor of said premises into a bed room on said 2nd floor with a jimmy or chisel

on the 24th day of February 1889 in the Night time, and the dollars one gold watch, and wearing apparel. All of the value of about one hundred and twenty five dollars

and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen, and carried away by

Jacob Miller (now here) and another man, whose name is unknown and not ascertained for the reasons following, to wit: that at the hour of 7:50 o'clock P.M. said deponent locked and secured fastened the doors and windows of his apartment which is the 2nd floor of said premises and in company with his wife, went out, leaving his apartment alone, and in good condition, and as deponent was in the act of leaving said premises he met the said defendant, and another man at the doorway of said premises, the defendant asked deponent for a job. deponent told him he had no work for him when he walked away. deponent is informed by Christian Gemmer, who works for, and lives with deponent, that at about the hour of 1:30 o'clock P.M. said date, he came into deponent's apartment and there found the said defendant and said unknown man not yet arrested, in the front room of deponent's apartment. he Gemmer then called police when the said defendant and said unknown man jumped through said bed room window and ran down stairs. deponent is further informed by Officer John J. Klein, of the 20th Precinct that he saw a man run out of said premises. closely followed by the said defendant and that he caught the defendant and placed him under arrest, while the said unknown man made his escape.

Wherefore deponent charges the said defendant and said unknown man not yet arrested with being together and acting in concert with each other and burglariously entering said premises as aforesaid with the intent to steal.
