New York, June 15th 1881

D. District Attorney Bell.

Esteemed Sir!

We both earnestly hope and beg of you, to have the same pity & compassion for our unfortunate boy, who done a bad act in a most ~~detached~~ state of mind; as the District Attorney Mr. Rollins has extended to his mother after allowing her a hearing. Mr. Henderson, who first signed his name, had the order from his principal, Mr. James P. Farrell for over a week past, to have the first complaint definitely & totally withdrawn, as solemnly (promised) say assured <sup>to</sup> his mother, after having been fully acquainted with the boy's former character & testimonials, as unblemished and honest. Mr. Rollins said, that all would come out well, but Mr. Henderson came before at the wrong time, & the next day the papers were out of Mr. Rollins hands and functions. It is the boy's first wrong act against the law. The boy, if this first time forgiven, would have to go on board a ship of war, or West & begin almost life & death. —
The unfortunate father & mother. —
