The People
v.
Phillip BehlertCourt of General Sessions. Part I Before Judge Cowing. June 15, 1913.
Indictment for attempt at robbery.

Peter Giovanni, sworn and examined, testified: I am a sailor and work aboard the ship Concordia; the Captain is the owner of the ship. Where did you reach port? The day when there was a festival. Do you mean Decoration Day the 30th of May? I do not know that day; there was a festival. Did you sleep aboard the ship while she was lying in this port? Yes. On the 7th of June in the city of New York do you remember whether you were in the vicinity of West and Wall streets in the day time? I do not know the streets.
On the 7th of June I saw the defendant in the street; there was five of them together.
I was standing waiting for a car. Another one of the five - not this one - came up to me, and he (the prisoner) came up also and he leaned against a pole there, and he says "money." I said, "I do not understand what he wants." I said in Italian, "I do not understand you." Another one came and had ten cents in his hand and showed me the ten cents and made some signs with his hands. I said; I dont understand you, I dont know. I had my hand on the lamp post; my handkerchief was sticking out of my pocket and another man pulled my handkerchief out, and he tried to put it into my pantalons pocket. I took the handkerchief out of his hand and put it back into my pocket. The car was going, and all five commenced to talk together. As I was in the act of going on the car then this prisoner came up to me and pushed me, another one gave me a push in the chest, and the others from behind caught my arms, and he (the prisoner) tried to put his hand into my pocket. I was about to run away, and then a policeman was coming and they ran away. Did you have any money in that pocket at that time? I had a pocket book at the time with about a dollar and eighty cents in it. The policeman had a club, and he caught this man; he said to me, "Come along," and I came along.

Cross Examined. I cannot tell whether it was a lamp post or a telegraph pole I had my hand on. I do not drink anything. I was sober. I slept on board ship the night before. He says the night before he got permission from the Captain to go ashore in the evening and he lost his way and was wandering around the whole of the night and could not find his way. Had you been drinking that night? At the Five Points I entered into a place; and then I left that saloon and I went around. I could not find my way to the ship, but I was not drunk. I never was in New York before. Were those young men whom you saw them first standing or walking? I did not notice them; they came up to me. I do not know what they did before. I was standing waiting for a car. I don't know where they came from. Tell the jury what was the first thing that the prisoner did? This young man was leaning against a post that was near by where I was standing and another young man talked to me and I could not understand him and the prisoner came up and gave me a push. Then the prisoner tried to get his hand into my pocket, but I prevented him and he could not do it, and then I commenced to run ~~up~~ to the car. He did not get his hand into the pocket. All he did was that he gave me a push and tried to put his hand into my pocket. The policeman came up and told me to come along with him. I have been nine days now in the House of Detention. I had a knife in my pocket, but it was closed and when the policeman came up I just took it out, but I had it in my hand shut. The time that he gave me that push I had the knife in my hand in my pocket, and when he gave me the push my hand came out and so I had the knife in my hand. I never saw these boys before. I never was in the city before. How can you distinguish this boy from the other four or five? He was immediately caught by the policeman. Then he was three or four days with me in prison. The defendant was running when the policeman caught him.

John M'Creagh, sworn and examined. I am connected with the Fifth precinct and was on the 7th of June. There was that boy on the morning of that day? At the Desbrosses street ferry. On the morning of that day I saw the complainant and the defendant on the corner of Matt and West streets about 15 minutes past five.

In the morning who else was there beside this defendant and the complainant? Three others. The name of one of the boys is Daniel Duffy. My attention was attracted to them because they were fooling around the Italian. One got behind him and put his two hands and arms up and pulled him back; one caught him by the throat and two went for his clothes.
As soon as I saw that I ran and then the four ran; two of them got through the Market some way, one jumped overboard and I got this man. How far was this man away from the complainant at the time that you caught him? About two blocks. He ran as ~~long~~ soon as I ran and I brought him back. The complainant identified him as the man who was there. Did you see a knife on that occasion? I did. Where was the knife? The knife was in the pocket of the complainant. Was it open or shut?
It was shut. The complainant could not talk English to me. I arrested the defendant. Did he say anything when you arrested him? He claimed that he was hungry and he had to do it.

Cross Examined. This conversation took place on the way to the station house. First I put the question to him, "This is nice business I caught you at?" He says, "I could not help it, I was hungry and had to do it." This occurred upon the corner of White and West street? Yes on the south east corner. I was at Desbrosses street ferry at the time inside the door and looking through the glass door. I could see them and they could not see me. How far is the ferry where you were stationed, where you were looking to where these men and the complainant were? One short block away. I could not say which one went in the pockets. One of the fellows caught him from behind and held him back and the other three fellows were around him. One had him by the throat and when they seen me coming they broke away from the man and ran. It was a very bright morning and I could distinguish three or four blocks away the same actions that those men were doing to this man. Previous to this these four fellows had been fooling around an Italian emigrant. I saw the defendant in company with three others attack that Italian.

Phillip Behlert, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified: I am nineteen years old and live in this city. My father is living here and my mother is dead. Have you been working? Yes. When did you work last previous to this 5th of June? In Twenty Fourth street and Tenth avenue at Mitchell and Vance's. When did you work last previous to this day of the arrest? Two weeks. Who did you work for? I worked for a brass moulder by the name of Illacernan. I was out upon that morning at half past five o'clock as testified to corner of West and Desbrosses street. I was going up to a restaurant to get my breakfast. Who were those boys you were with? I was with ~~some~~ fellow. I only was with him two or three times. One or two other fellows stopped us on the corner and told us to wait. We stopped there and I leaned against a telegraph pole and the Italian walked up and he leaned on the other side of the telegraph pole; and the other fellows were talking to him. When I came up to the telegraph pole. These people were fooling around him and one fellow grabbed hold of him and another fellow was standing in front of him and pushed him back. I was standing at the telegraph pole and the other one was trying to get into his pocket and the Italian was too strong for him and he drew a knife and he opened the knife with his teeth and he held it up in his hand to strike me. I ran on the other side and the officer came. Why did you run? I don't know why I ran - because other people ran. Did you put your hand in his pocket or attempt to do it? No. How long did you know those boys?

Since Sunday night. Did you assault this man at all or make any attempt to rob him? No. I did not make any attempt to rob him. Did you know of any intention on the part of others to rob him? I do not remember. I think they did have some intention to rob him. Did you have any knowledge of that intention? No. I did not have any knowledge until they grabbed hold of the man. That is the first I knew of it. Have you ever been convicted of any offence in this city? No. never was arrested before. I worked for a living ever since I was fourteen years old!

Phillips Behlert

Cross Examined. I was never convicted of disorderly conduct. I was living with my father in Twenty Seventh street. What were you doing down in the neighborhood of West and Wall streets at five o'clock in the morning? I wanted to go down aboard the boat to go up to New London to get a job on the Boston Boat in the Norwich line. That boat goes at half past five o'clock in the evening. I was down there from the night before. I had been out all night. I was up on a coal boat; it was tied alongside the pier in Desbrosse St. Jannelly was with me and no one else. I don't remember where the others were. I met them corner of Washington and West streets. I met the other fellow the day before at the Norwich line boat. I was on the freight boat Edward Clark. I was helping them to take off the freight. I live with my father; he keeps house. Why didn't you go up to your father's house? I did not want to go up home; it was too far away. I wanted to see about this job in New London to work on the boat. I wanted to see the first mate; his name is Casey; he did not come to New York. I saw Casey last about two years ago. I wrote a letter to him a week before I was arrested. I did not get an answer. How did you know he would get you employment? I was going to see him. Tom Parrell the second mate told me he was there. What was Casey's business on the boat? He was first mate. You want the Court and jury to understand that the first mate employs men? The second mate of the boat Worcester. He told me the Worcester was not running at that time. Was either of the boats running? Yes. How did you expect to get to New London? I expected to go up on the Boston. I did not have any money. How did you expect to go up there? To work my way up. The second mate told me he would let me do it. What kind of work? Helping to run out freight, pushing out freight. Five men were employed for that? Yes. I know the second mate of that boat. Why didn't you work steadily on that boat? I was working on the dock once before. Why didn't you work on the boat that goes to Boston instead of going to

New London to see your friend Casey, would not they employ you? No. I did not ask them. I made an honest living. I worked for Mr. Brady; he is agent of the Norwich line. I worked for Brady last two years ago. I left him because I got a better job with my father. I left my father six months ago; he works in Hall's boat works in West Tenth St. I left my father because I had a quarrel with him. I was working in the Mitchell & Vance brass foundry. About six months ago I started to work for them. I had a swelled finger and I left. I got nine dollars a week. After I left my father I went to work for Mitchell and Vance. I have not worked for anybody since then. I left Mitchell and Vance about two weeks ago on a Wednesday. Have you got anybody from Mitchell and Vance, or your father or Brady here in Court? No. Did you make any attempt to get anybody to swear to your good character? Yes. I told my aunt when she was here last week. I have been in the Tombs a week. I wrote two postal cards to my aunt and to my father. I told him

What I was charged with: On the 7th of June I got up about four o'clock. I was sleeping on a coal boat. Donnelly woke me up. I stayed there till a quarter to five o'clock. I went up to get my breakfast in Shradys restaurant in Washington street. I carried a package that morning to the Desbrosses St. ferry and got 25 cents for it. I saw the fellows catch hold of the complainant, but I did not take much notice of them. I did not see one of them put his hand to his throat. Did you see anybody lay violent hands upon him? Yes; when they laid violent hands on him he drew a knife and I ran. You thought he had pretty good reason to pull a knife when three fellows jumped on him? Yes. I did not do anything. They tussled with him about fifteen minutes. I was afraid he would stick me with a knife. He ran after us with a knife.

Agnes Bailet sworn I live at 534 West Twenty Seventh St. I am the aunt of the defendant and he has lived with me. He has always been a good boy. I have never known him to be arrested. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.

Sir:-

I beg to submit the following report in reference to HENRY BOWERS, who plead guilty before you :

I made inquiries in the neighborhood of where the burglary was committed, and was informed that he does not bear a good reputation.

About three years ago he was employed as a watchman in a building being erected. The tool house was broken into and the tools stolen. Suspicion pointed to Bowers, who left his position, and could not be found.

The accompanying papers show that he was previously convicted.

Respectfully yours,
