The People of the State of New York,

against

: Before

: Hon. Fred'k Smyth,
: and a Jury.

Indicted at New York, May 11, 1894.

Indicted for a Violation of the Police Law.

New York, May 11, 1894.

A P P E A R A N C E S:

For the People,

Assistant District Attorney, Davis;

For the Defendant,

H. J. Coleman, Esq.

JOHN O'NEIL, a witness for the People, sworn, testifies:

I live at 31 Cherry Street. I saw the defendant on the 81st. of March 1894 at an Italian bar. It was in the afternoon. I saw a lot of us boys together. The boy went to a window and I ain't sure if it was him or not. There was a crowd of citizens along with him. I was cut. I was right alongside of this man at the time I was cut. I saw this man put his hand in his pocket. I could not tell you what he took out in his hand. I was cut in my shoulder. I saw him run away. I did not see any knife in his hand at the time he was running away. I made a complaint against this defendant in the Police Court and signed my name to it. There I stated that he did cut me. The knife was found in the possession of the defendant and there was blood on it. When I was cut I told the policeman who was standing on the corner what had happened. He ran after the defendant, arrested him, and brought him back to me. He was taken to the Station House.

Cross-examination:

I saw the defendant running in the Station House and a knife was taken from him. I did not have the knife before that.

FREDERICK COMES, a witness for the People, sworn and testified:

I am a Police Officer attached to the Fourth Precinct. I arrested this defendant on the day in question at about 2 o'clock. He had been stabbed by a crowd of citizens at the time I arrested him. I found the jack-knife which I now produce in his pocket. It was closed at the time. There was indication of a little blood on it when I examined it. The boy pointed out the defendant as the man who had stabbed him, and on that identification I took him to the Station House. I examined the boy's shoulder and found that he was cut and bleeding.

DEFENSE.

GIOVANNI ROBERTO, the defendant, sworn, testified:

I don't remember the day of this occurrence, but I was coming from Brooklyn. When I was passing through this street I received a kick on my back. I turned my face. I was frightened. As I turned this boy who was on the stand hit me a lot on the back. The knife that has been produced here I found on that very day and my object was to give it to my father. I found the knife in Brooklyn on the very same afternoon. A lot of these boys commenced to beat up and to complainant ran after me and wanted me to fight. I took out the knife and held it in my hand in order to frighten the boys but I did not strike any of them.

Cross-examination:

I took out the knife while the boys were fighting me. I could not say if anybody else had a knife or not.

JOSEPH G. EFFARRI, a witness for the defendant, sworn, testified:

I am a law student at the New York Law School. I have been in this city about seven years. I know the defendant very well. His character for peace and quietness is good.

The Jury returned a verdict of guilty of assault in the second degree.

Indictment filed May 4-1892.

INDICTED FOR ASSAULT IN THE SECOND DEGREE.

INDICTMENT FILED MAY 17TH, 1892.

TRIED MAY 25th, 1892.

APPEARANCES:

ASSISTANT DISTRICT ATTORNEY BEDFORD FOR THE PEOPLE.
JOSEPH F. MOSS FOR THE DEFENSE.

A N N I E R O C K, called by the People, being duly sworn, testified that she was the wife of the defendant, and that she lived in Sixtieth street. On the 15th of May, he , the defendant, struck her, the witness, on the left side of the head with a pitcher. She, the witness, had not been well since and her teeth ached her.

In cross-examination the witness testified that she was drunk at the time. She did not strike her husband on the nose, and did not knock him on the nose. She did not hit him on the head with a knife. It was not a fact that he, the defendant, pushed her from him when she was drunk and she fell against the stove.

J A M E S B R A D Y, being duly sworn, testified that he was an officer of the Twenty-fourth precinct. With another officer he arrested the defendant. He saw the complainant at the time and she did not appear to be drunk to him, the witness. She was about as sober as she was on the witness stand. She had a cut or gash across the left side of the head. She claimed that the defendant had struck her on the head with a pitcher. The defendant did not deny that he had hit her. The defendant told him, the witness, that she had been drinking the night previous and he, the defendant, went home and had some trouble with her. The defendant had been drinking but was sober as far as he, the witness, knew. The defendant was arrested on the same morning as the alleged assault. Mrs. Rock did not look or act drunk. The defendant had marks on him, but the scrath on his, the defendant's, nose, was an old one.

PATRICK ROCK, the defendant, being duly sworn,
testified that he was a hod carrier and was twenty-three years old. He had been married six years. The trouble that he had with his wife was that his wife was drunk and lay on the floor when he came home. The child lay on the other side of her. He, the witness, lifted up the child and put it on the rocking chair.
As soon as she saw the child taken from her, she picked up a glass and hit him, the defendant, on the nose.
Then she ran after a knife and cut him on the hand. He,
the witness, did not hit her with the pitcher. He gave her a shove and she fell against the stove. He, the witness, was not drunk.

Court of General Sessions. Part ^{7th} I
Before Judge Leving. May 10 1892

Indictment for burglary in the third degree.

George W. R. Glass, sworn and examined.

I am a bookkeeper for my father at No. 24 New Chamber street. The building that was robbed was No. 26 Rose street, another building of ours. What was in that building on the night of the 26th of April? Those plates that I found in his possession, electro. stereotyped plates; the 27th of April I missed them. The lowest value of the property missed was two hundred and fifty dollars. When did you discover that the property was missed? One man discovered it before me. I came at nine o'clock in the morning; he was there at 8 o'clock and saw the door had been pried open. When I discovered the theft had been committed I went around to the office and waited and saw this boy the defendant. I saw him from my window coming out of No. 55 Rose street with this package of plates with another little boy. I immediately ran out of the office through New Chamber st. going around the corner off the Newsboys' lodging house. I stopped him on the sidewalk.

with the same plates that had been stolen. What did you say to him, if anything, when you stopped him with this stolen property? I examined them right away. I says to him, "I want you." What did he say? He said it was not him, it was other boys, but he was only selling it for him. That is the explanation that he made. He also told me that they had broken it open with an iron bar, but I did not see any iron bar and no one else except this boy and another one. What else took place? Then I gave him to an officer on New Chambers street and he took him down to the station house. It was on the evening of the 26th that the building was robbed and on the morning of the 27th, between ten and eleven o'clock I saw him with a portion of the stolen property. He took me to a junk store where they sold for $1.80 $100 worth of property. The man said he paid three cents a pound for them. The prisoner took me there with the officer who is present. The property was in my care and I am responsible for it.

Cross Examined. I am positive that the building was robbed on the night of the 26th between six o'clock and the next morning. because we go in there every day. Were you in there that night? No, I was not in there that night. How long previous had you been in that place? I was not in that place probably for a month. You do not know

 do you, if it was robbed the night before?
 I did not see any one rob the building.
 Now the statement is not true that you made a few moments ago is it that you know positively that that place was robbed on the 26th of April? Certainly.
 Do you recollect the morning of the 27th
 when you met this boy in company with another boy? Certainly. Do you recollect the conversation had between you and this boy? I recollect some conversation. I saw him in possession of some lead plates and I said, "I want you."
 And then all he said was, it was not him, but he was only selling it, and that they broke open the place with an iron bar, is that all the conversation
 was had between you and this boy?
 Yes. Besides that you say he showed you where he had sold $150 worth of the stuff? Yes, that boy took me up on the roof of No. 55 Rose street.

By Counsel

with an officer, who is present, and got some fifty dollars worth more.

Do you recollect him stating how he came in possession of these lead plates? The boy said that he was getting the odd cents for selling it. If they got 18 cents he was going to get three cents and the other boys were to get the 15 and to divide. Didn't he tell you he was going to make five cents by going and selling this to the junkman? Not to my recollection. Did he say anything about making any money? The part that I told you, he got the odd cents. Why didn't you state that before when you were asked the question if that is all he told you? I do not remember all that the boy told me. Is there anything else that you recollect? No, I do not. Did not he tell you where all those lead plates were? He took me with the officer. How did he come to take you there? That was done through the sergeant at the Station house, not through me. Did not you ask him where he could find the other lead plates? No. Did he volunteer that information? He volunteered it. He took you to the place and you found the property.

nearly all the lead plates that were stolen?
I guess I have not got near it, and what I did get is ruined.

James H. McCrory, sworn and examined.
By Mr. Bedford What precinct are you connected with?

The Fourth. Did you arrest this boy? Yes, Mr.
Claro turned him over to me. Did you go to this junk shop with the last witness and the boy? Before I went to the junk shop I went to No. 55 Rose street. I asked the boy where was the rest of the stuff, and he told me; he told me there was some stuff
there on the roof, and I found some stuff there. He said there was some more round in a junk store in Elm St. We went around and got sixty six pounds there. Was the stuff which you got on the roof and the junk shop recognized by the complainant as his property? Yes, sir.

By the Court That is, it was recognized as part of the proceeds of the stolen property? Yes sir.

By Mr. Bedford What else, what other conversation did you have or did you have with the prisoner?
I asked the boy was that all? He says,
"yes, that is all," he was selling it for the other boys. He said he was selling it for the other boys? Yes sir.

Do you know of your own knowledge what he got for it at the junk shop? No sir, I do not.

By the Court Did he say the other boys broke in with a crowbar? He said the other boys broke in with a crowbar, and he was to sell it and get the odd change.

Cross Examined. Do you recollect what you asked the boy where he told you that? When I got him in the station house I asked him where was the rest of the stuff? and he told me there was some on the roof in Rose street. After we got it all, I asked him if that was all of it? Do you recollect telling the boy to tell the truth? O yes, I told the boy that. I recollect that. And he told you everything that he knew? I think he did. Yes sir. He told you that he met these boys and they told him to carry these lead plates? He did not say he met the boys. He said the boys told him to sell the stuff and they would give him the odd change. Did not he tell you that he did not know it was stolen? No sir, he did not.

By Mr. Bedford. As I understand he said that the boys broke in with an iron crowbar and that he took the stuff and was selling it for the boys and he was to get the odd change. That is what he said, he was selling the stuff and got the odd change.

Charles Rosenthal, sworn and examined in his own behalf, testified. How old are you? Fourteen years old. but I could not tell you where. You do not know where your birthday is? No sir. Where do you live? No. 434 Pearl St. How long have you lived there? About two years. Is this the first time you have ever been arrested? Yes sir. Are you working? Yes sir, I was working in an engraving place. What at? Running errands. How long were you working there? About six months. Who do you live with? My sister. Is your sister in Court? Yes sir. How much do you earn a week? I earned three dollars a week.

Were you working all day previous to your arrest? I was not working that time.

You were not working that day? No sir.

What were you doing on New Chamber street the day you were arrested? The policeman brought me around New Chamber street. How did you come in that neighborhood? I used to play around there. Is that near your house? Yes about Halpa Hock. Tell the jury how you came into possession of these electro plates? The three boys, James Connors, Willie Farrell, and Charles McDermott told me if I carried this lead around to a junk store

 that they would give me the odd money.
 The junk store was in Elm street, then when I brought it around they got 18 cents for it. I could not tell you how many pounds they had; they got 18 cents and I only got 3 cents for carrying it around.
 I thought that I would not get arrested.
 They brought it on the roof about one o'clock in the morning and at nine o'clock they went up and took it again and then I carried it down. I was not with them at one o'clock in the morning. How did you know it was up there?
 They told me. I did not think I would get anything done to me so long as I did not steal it. I knew it was stolen; they told me it was stolen.
 The defendant by advice of Counsel pleaded guilty to receiving stolen goods.
 The Court sentenced him to confinement
 in the Catholic Protectory.

In the case of the People vs. James J. Diery, Reported in 13-Mincollaneous Reports, p. 516, the learned Court concludes as follows:
"That the Ives Pool Law repealed the provisions of the Penal Code relative to pool playing and book making and the adoption of the new Constitution abrogated the 'Ives Pool Law', and at the time of the commission of the offenses named in the indictment (while the same were made unlawful by the terms of the Constitution), no punishment was prescribed for such offenses, and the subsequent amendment of the Penal Code cannot effect the defendant for the reason that its provisions, in so far as they relate to the crime charged in the indictment, are ex post facto."

In view, therefore, of the foregoing, I recommend the discharge of the defendant's bail.
