that on the 26th day of February 1890, at the City of New certain complaint of attempt at Burglary against one William R. Dabbe.

That one James H. Kane, a police officer was in possession of evidence tending to prove the guilt of the said defendant.

That the said Kane was not called as a witness

I declare the charge is well founded both in law and on the evidence, that justice requires that an indictment be found, and that there is reason sufficient to warrant the finding of an indictment

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, against

The District Attorney having heretofore, to wit: on the 26th day of February 1890, submitted to the Grand Jury of this County, empanelled in this Court for the February term, and then in session, a certain charge against the above-named defendant for an attempt to commit the and the said Grand Jury having, after a consideration of the evidence produced before it in support of the said charge, dismissed the same, twelve grand jurors of the said Grand Jury not concurring in

I had allowed him to remain on account of his having stated that he expected money from his family in England and more than that, he was promised employment in a leading First-Class Establishment in his line of business. In the first instance he had no necessity to steal the money as he was not pressed by me, nor did he liquidate his indebtedness after committing the theft. In the second instance after I had complied with the request of his letter and awaited the return of his clothing which he stated had been returned by a messenger, no force came I then got permission to see him and during my interview was told by him, in the presence of the Warden, that he could not eat the food given him of New York,

Thomas W. Dawson, Jr.

William S. Vinod.

The above named defendants and one Jacob J. Hayden were indicted under Section 435 of the Penal Code, for having on the 5th day of March, 1890, in this City, circulated false rumors with the intent to affect the market price of the stock of the Dawson Consolidated Stone Service Company.

The indictment was filed on the 22nd day of April, 1890, and on the same day the District Attorney applied for a requisition on the Governor of Massachusetts for the rendition of the defendant Vinod, who, after the day laid in the indictment had departed from this State (where he was at the time alleged), and was then in Boston, Massachusetts.

Governor Will issued the requisition and Vinod was arrested in Boston. At the solicitation of his attorney a hearing was had before the Governor of Massachusetts, under the laws of that State, for the purpose of determining whether the demand For Vinell's surrender ought to be complied with; and after a protracted hearing the Governor of Massachusetts declined to surrender Vinell, upon the ground that he was not a fugitive from justice within the Federal constitution and Act of Congress. A full report of the proceedings in Massachusetts may be found in the New York Sun of June 25, 1890, and also in Moore on Extradition, Vol. II, p. 900, §§ 570 et seq. -

The defendant Dawson was not in the State of New York at the time laid in the indictment, and therefore the District Attorney was unable to apply for his surrender, ^{in Boston} although he was, during all the time the proceedings in Vinell's case were pending in Boston, and attended in the Executive Chamber as a spectator at the various hearings.

The defendant Hayden was arrested in New York shortly after the indictment was found, and was subsequently released on $5000. bail. On the 24th of June, 1890, the District Attorney recommended his discharge and the dismissal of the indictment as to him, upon the grounds which appear endorsed upon the indictment. The court thereupon ordered the dismissal of the indictment so far as it related to him.

POOR QUALITY

Since the indictment is now in force as against Vinel and Sawson only, Vinel's surrender has been refused upon legal grounds, and Sawson is without our reach.
Neither of them can be tried unless he voluntarily comes within this state.

Nearly a year has elapsed and as yet they have exhibited no disposition toward such a course.

But aside from the inability to obtain the custody of the defendants I am informed that the Sawson company does not seek the further prosecution of the case. The chief interests of the People are connected more or less intimately with that company, and are principally residents of Boston (where the company has its main office) and its vicinity. Their attendance can not be enforced, and in the present attitude of the company it is not likely that they would voluntarily attend.

For the reasons stated herein, it seems to me the indictment is utterly useless, and its continuance can not serve the interests of public justice.

By its dismissal the People can suffer no possible injury, for in case the defendants should at any time hereafter be found in this state, a new indictment can be obtained, the others, certain false statements, rumours and intelligence in substance and to the effect following, that is to say, that by reason of the unbusinesslike management of the af-greatly and injuriously depreciated in value; that the said

Further swearing, deponent says that the father of the prisoner at the bar, died some years since, having been afflicted with total blindness, and that the mother of the prisoner, now a woman of advanced years, has by reason of her late husband's affliction been reduced from a position of independence to gain her livelihood by day's labor, and through the earnings of said prisoner.
