Michael Schwartzbinger

City and County of New York: Michael Schwartzbinger being duly sworn says I have been imprisoned herein since Dec. 2. last, and have had no examination or hearing except my own examination. I have always been ready and anxious to have either an examination or trial. I was not able to employ counsel and had none until about fifteen days ago when Mr. Cook took up my case. I am still sick and suffering I was confined for 71 days at Essex Market and was compelled to lie and sleep on a bridge of bare boards without blankets or mattresses in consequence of which my body got so that the flesh separated from the bones and if I had been kept there much longer I would have died. I am innocent of the charge preferred against me. The following is a true statement of the affair. One evening about Thanksgiving day I was standing in front of Mr Stolzenberger's store, for whom I worked when a considerable number ^{men} came out of a saloon next door and went behind Stolzenberger's wagon which had been newly painted and urinated Mr Stolzenberger and one Muller who is also in Stolzenberger's employ objected and a fight took place between Muller and one Voss. Voss was thrown down by Muller and whereupon all the rest of Voss' companions participated and helped Voss and attacked Muller. I became surrounded and was also attacked and I then merely ~~used~~ ^{used} my arms to protect myself and get out of the crowd and I finally succeeded. Then Voss and his friends left I did not then see or know Schmidlapp and did not hear of him until Dec. 2 when I was arrested and imprisoned. At the time in question I struck no one with my fist and I only used my arms to protect myself and to ward off the blows aimed at me by the others. The saloon referred to is the meeting place of socialists.

my son is now held. I found said said Schmidtapp boasted that as

His own doctor who is now attending him admitted that said Schmidtapp might be brought to Court in a carriage. My son while confined at Essex Market had to ~~lay~~^{lie} 71 days on a bare ~~floor~~ board bridge, without any mattress or covering and in consequence thereof his flesh commenced to separate from his bones and he would have died had he not been removed to the City prison. He is still suffering. Last week the case was put off ~~till today~~ on account of the absence of Officer Rott who was reported sick. That shortly after I left Court I met Officer Rott in the Bowery well and hearty. I have investigated the charge against my son and found that he is accused of having struck Schmidtapp with his fist in a row in which a number of men participated but I find that my son is innocent and I expect to establish his innocence on the trial as I am also advised by Mr Cook, as soon as my

The People vs Michael Shea Indictment for robbery in the second degree.

Court of General Session. Part I Before Judge Cowing. April 10. 1883.
William Collins sworn. I never saw the defendant before I saw him in the saloon on the night of the 7 or 8th of Feb. I don't know the name of the street in this city. I had a couple of glasses of beer and the defendant asked me if I would stand drink. I gave him a glass of beer and paid for it. I went out soon afterwards and walked up the side walk two or three hundred yards, and I was caught hold of behind by somebody by the neck and this prisoner came in front of me, put his hand in my pocket, and I swung out; then the prisoner hit me and gave me a black eye; he ran away and I followed him as far as I could and when I came up, the policeman got him.
The prisoner took four dollars out of my pocket.
I had been drinking, I was not sober and I was not drunk. I was sober enough to be perfectly conscious of what was going on. I had the money in my vest pocket. I paid for the drinks and the dollars were there.
Cross Examined. I am a laboring man and have been working in Plainfield N.J. for the Flint Co. I came to New York the day before. I don't know what

POOR QUALITY

hour it was when I went into that saloon. I stayed in there about half an hour. There were five or six men in there. I was not drinking with them. I did not talk to any of them. The defendant asked me to treat him. I have no idea what time it was when I left the saloon. I know it was not twelve o'clock or ten o'clock. I started to go out on the sidewalk with the intention of crossing to Jersey. It is not true that I was so much intoxicated that I did not know where I was going. The defendant was in the saloon when I left it. I did not say, "good bye" to him when I was going. I did not speak to him at all. I had seven or eight dollars when I was in Plainfield in my pocket. I stayed there two or three days after I got paid before I came to New York. I was sober when I came to New York and when this happened. When the defendant came up to me he never spoke to me. It is not true that I came to the defendant stepping along and said to the defendant the bartender had not given the right change in the saloon. I did not ask him to come back to the saloon and demand my money from the bartender. It is not true that he refused to go with me and that I then struck him.

ORIGINAL

0342

John O'Sullivan sworn. I am a police officer and arrested the defendant on the 7th of February at the corner of Mott St. and Chatham Square about eight o'clock in the evening. I saw him running through Mott St., and as he was just going passed me I put out my hand and caught hold of him. I asked him what he was running for and he said, "nothing." I said, "you must have done something." I saw the crowd running after him. He said, "I hit a fellow." Then this man Collins came up and he said that was the man. In the presence of the defendant I asked Collins what the prisoner said? He said he robbed him and struck him in the face. I asked him what he took from him? He says, he has got one dollar piece of mine. Is that all he took from you? says I. He says, "I don't know, I had some other money." I took the prisoner to the station house then and searched him; he made his complaint in the station house that he robbed him and struck him. I found one dollar piece and one cent in his pocket, and here it is (producing it) I did not find four dollars on the defendant. I asked him why he hit him, and he said the complainant called him a "bum."

Michael Shea, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I live in Brooklyn and was born in Ireland and am twenty four years old. I have been in this country three years, I have been working at grain since I have been in the country and Longshore I worked for Lambeer over in Brooklyn and for different people, and was working the day I was arrested. I think it was about seven o'clock in the evening when I met the complainant in this saloon; he asked me to have a drink and I treated him back. I had some money in my pocket; he was drunk. I left the saloon first. To the best of my opinion I met him afterwards about a block away; this was in the neighborhood of seven and eight o'clock; it was quite light and plenty of people were in the street. He stopped me in the street and said he lost his money in the saloon; he asked me to go down and bring an officer and have the bartender arrested. I said, "I did not know anything about it, I am going home;" he insulted me and called me the son of a ^{bastard} and ^{from} struck me. I then struck him, he halloed for an officer and then I ran away from him. I did not want to be arrested. I worked for Mr. Doolan and Mr. Donovan handling freight. The officer was recalled and said the complainant was not very drunk. The jury rendered a verdict.
