of No. Andrew Mc Carthy 626 Clinton Street Brooklyn Street, being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 29 day of March 1892 at the 6th Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, from the person of deponent, by force and violence, without his consent and against his will, the following property viz:

fourteen dollars good and lawful money of the United States or very near that amount of the value of about fourteen Dollars, the property of deponent and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by force and violence as aforesaid, by James Hines and Charles Watson (both now here) and one other person not yet arrested who was acting in concert with them. For the reason that on said date while deponent was in Mulberry Street he had the above described property in the pockets of his trousers then on his person.

While the defendant Hines held deponent by the shoulders, the unknown man held both deponents arms, the defendant Watson inserted his hands in the pockets of deponent's trousers and did take therefrom by force and violence and without the consent of the deponent the aforesaid property. Wherefore deponent charges the two defendants with robbery.

I called at 130 West Street in the City of New York, the alleged promised residence of Raphael Capozzi the complainant herein, to serve him with the annexed subpoena, and was informed by the Proprietor of 141 Mott another place of residence given by Raphael Capozzi that he was in Westchester County in the State of New York and that he did not reside at 130 Mott St as I found a large building in course of erection where no one resided

I made enquiries at 1247 Mott for Philip Bivoli at 1247 Mott St and was informed that he was in Schenck County New York and would not return to the City
