RIVA ALBERT.

STATEMENT OF CASE.

The Defendant, Riva Albert, is indicted for aiding, participating and abetting with one John Gordon, who perpetrated the Crime of Rape on the person of Annie Albert, aged 15 years, on the top floor of the premises No. 193 Division Street, this city, which offense took place on Monday, Aug. 1st, 1892.

WITNESSES:

Annie Albert,
Sopie Albert,
Esther Friedman,
Yetta Rachenberg,
Sophie Rachenberg,
Sergeant McSweeney,
Officer Herlich,
W. Travis Gibb, M. D.

ANNIE ALBERT, aged 15 years on Feb. 7th, 1892, a native of Poland and a resident of this city since about December, 1891, will testify:

That about two weeks prior to August 5th, 1892, her step-sister, the defendant, Riva Albert, aged 16 years, who was then living immorally with one Isaac Levine, aged 23 years and occupying two rooms in the premises, 193 Division Street, induced her (Witness) to leave her home with her mother Sofie and step-father Michael Albert for the purpose of living with them, i.e., defendant Riva Albert and the man Levine, which she did. That no harm befell her (Witness) until Monday, August 1st, 1892, when a strange man, who later turned out to be one John Gordon, visited the rooms and solicited Witness to have sexual intercourse, offering her the sum of One Dollar; but that his offer was refused. That later, at about midnight of same day (Aug. 1st, 1892), after Isaac Levine, the defendant (Riva Albert) and Witness had retired to bed -- the three sleeping together in one bed -- the said Gordon rapped on their door and was admitted by Levine. That Levine was requested by Riva Albert (the defendant) to go and obtain some water. That the man Gordon soon after came to the bedside, sat on the bed and again solicited Witness to have sexual intercourse, offering the sum of $1.25, which was received by the defendant, Riva Albert; but that she (Witness) would not accede to his request. That Isaac Levine was at this time in another room. That Gordon placed a handkerchief over the face of Witness; that the defendant, Riva Albert, then placed a pillow under Witness' back; and that after this Gordon got on top of Witness and had sexual intercourse with her, which hurt her very much, causing her private parts to bleed and thereby soiling her night-dress, which latter she soon after threw away. That this was the first and only time she ever had sexual intercourse with anyone.

FURTHERMORE that her correct name is Annie Patuchin, but that she is known by her stepfather's name of Albert.

SOPHIE ALBERT, mother of Annie, residing with her husband, Michael, at 242 Cherry Street, will testify:

That daughter Annie was born on Feb. 7th, 1877; also that the defendant, Riva, enticed Annie away from her (Witness') home.

MRS. ESTHER FRIEDMAN, housekeeper at 193 Division Street, will testify:

That Isaac Levine, defendant Riva Albert and Annie Albert occupied two rooms on top floor of said premises on and about Aug. 1st, 1892.

YETTA RACHENBERG will testify in corroboration of the testimony as given by Mrs. Friedman.

SOPHIE RACHENBERG, residing at 193 Division Street, will also testify in corroboration of the evidence as given by Mrs. Friedman.

SERGEANT McSWEENEY, of the 7th Precinct Municipal Police, will testify as to the arrest of the defendant Riva Albert.

OFFICER HERLICH, of the 7th Precinct Municipal Police, will corroborate Sergeant McSweeney's testimony.

W. TRAVIS GIBB, M. D., of 365 Lexington Avenue, will testify to having made a physical examination of the person of Annie Albert and to having found evidence of complete penetration of her genital organs.

To Roswell P. Flower, Esq.,

Governor of the State of New York.

The petition of the undersigned, citizens of New York, respectfully represent; That on the 19th day of September 1892 Henry Gottlieb of the City of New York was convicted before the Court of General Sessions of said City, of forgery, and afterwards sentenced therefor to the State prison at Sing Sing for one term of five years, and has since served thereat so much of said term; that his conduct while in prison has been uniformly correct as will appear by proper certificates in that behalf by the Warden and Chaplain of said prison.

That his health during the interval of his imprisonment has been uniformly bad, inasmuch as the sight on one eye has been somewhat impaired <sup>and is now blind</sup> <sup>he has</sup> and been confined in the hospital of said prison for the last two months and upwards and is now so confined therein <sup>he is confined in his cell</sup> and wholly unable to labor or render any service to the state; that the nature of his bodily infirmities are set forth in medical certificates herewith.

That he has a wife and four children; the eldest nine years, and the youngest eleven months of age. That his family is utterly destitute and almost wholly dependent upon the charities of friends, for the common necessities of life, and the small earnings which she is able to make by sewing; that the health of his wife is not good and most of her time is required for the care of her children. That we are informed and believed that if said convict be required to remain under further imprisonment he will never be able to survive the period of his sentence. That his freedom would benefit his health and enable him to provide for his wife and children whose welfare is far more to be considered than any other condition in the premises. That society can sustain no injury by the release of the prisoner, for if the infamy which now is his, and which can only be effaced by his own better conduct in the future should not be an admonition to him to the latter course, he may be retained to further punishment for which he will deserve no clemency and will find himself wholly bereft of friends to solicit it.

WHEREFORE, out of compassion for the manifold follies, vanities, weaknesses and wickedness of the prisoner, which have led him to this disgrace, in the belief of his thorough repentance and intentions to reform, and in charity towards the unoffending wife and children whose necessities are far greater than his deserts, we implore the executive clemency in the behalf of Henry Cottlieb and petition that the unexpired of the sentence be remitted.

District Attorney's Office.

The substance of this complaint is that Gottlieb having forged a deed to himself (either with the connivance of a notary or also forged the acknowledgment) and thus being the supposed owner, obtained a loan on the faith thereof from the East Side Bank.

Of course while the record shows Gottlieb's fraud, yet I do not think from this letter the forged deed can be produced.

The letter wakes out several different good complaints against him.

Hon. Delancey Nicoll,
District Attorney.

Dear Sir:-

In accordance with the suggestion of Mr Henry W. Unger, to whom we have already stated the facts, we send you this communication in order that you may have the case presented to you fully. We desire to procure an indictment for forgery against Henry Gottlieb, who we understand has been practising law in this City for some time. The facts that we can place at your disposal are as follows:-

On July 20th, 1891, one Ignatz Kaufman made a contract with our clients, Mr Samuel Stiller and Mrs Theresa Stiller, to convey to them a house and lot known as No. 57 Pitt Street, in the City of New York. The consideration expressed in the contract was $11,100., $9,000. by assuming two mortgages aggregating said sum, and the sum of $2,100. in cash. Henry Gottlieb was selected as the attorney for the Stillers, and at the same time he acted as the attorney for Kaufman. The title was closed on the 28th day of July, 1891, in accordance with the terms of the contract, on which day a deed was executed by Kaufman to Samuel Stiller and Theresa Stiller the deed being recorded in the Register's Office on July 31st, 1891, in Block Series (Cons.) Section 2, Liber 5at page 189, and indexed under the block number 343 on the LandMap of the City of New York. The Stillers went into possession immediately after the title was passed, and have ever since continued in the possession of the said premises. A few days ago, our clients, the Stillers, hearing of other questionable transactions of Gotlieb, made inquiries about their property and learned, with our assistance, upon investigation, that Gotlieb had forged a deed purporting to have been executed by Samuel Stiller and Theresa Stiller to himself (Henry Gotlieb). This deed is a bargain and sale deed and from the record is dated August 18th, 1891, expressing a consideration of $12,000., and recorded September, 22nd, 1891 at 1:40 P.M. in Liber 5, Section 2, at page 348. The deed purports to have been acknowledged before one James F. Bigger, Commissioner of Deeds. We also discovered that Gotlieb made a mortgage on these premises to the East Side Bank to secure the sum of $1750. dated April 29, 1892, acknowledged the same day, and recorded the same day at 10:50 A.M. in Liber 14, Section 2, at page 191. The Stillers never executed any instrument of any kind affecting these premises to Gottlieb or to any one else, and the deed to Gottlieb is an unquestionable forgery.

We have documentary evidence in our possession which seems conclusively to establish that the Stillers could not have executed any deed to Gottlieb. On July 15th, 1892, a payment of $500. was to be made to the second mortgagee in pursuance of the terms of the mortgage, and Mr Stiller at that time not having the full amount, made an arrangement with Gottlieb whereby Gottlieb was to loan him $350., Gottlieb claiming that he controlled the second mortgage, and that he would thereby be secured. Mr Stiller gave him $150. toward the $500. to be paid on this second mortgage, and also gave him $60. interest, making in all $210. Gottlieb gave Stiller a check for $560. being made up of the $210. which Stiller had paid him as aforesaid, and the $350. which Gottlieb was to loan Stiller. This check was returned as "No Good", but the second mortgagee finally succeeded in collecting the $560. from Gottlieb. We hold the check in our possession which was given by Gottlieb to Stiller for $560.

On June 27th, 1892, Mr Stiller paid to Gottlieb $175. to be applied to the interest on the first mortgage of $7000., and Gotlieb on that day, to wit, June 27th, 1892, gave Mr Stiller a receipt which reads as follows:

"New York June 27, 1892.

Received of Samuel Stiller $175. for interest on first mortgage.

(Signed) Henry Gotlieb".

Gotlieb never turned this money over to the first mortgagee or his attorney, and these parties have now threatened foreclosure, and can of course testify that the interest was never paid over. This receipt shows that Gotlieb never ~~shows~~ claimed to be the owner of this property as against Stiller, and that Stiller always acted under the assumption that he was the owner.

We have also a water receipt from the Department of Water Works, dated January 9, 1892, showing that Mrs Stiller paid these rates on that day, this date being long after the alleged deed from Stiller to Gotlieb.

We also have in our possession tax bill showing that Stiller paid taxes on November 12, 1891, after the Gotlieb deed. We also can show that Stiller has always been collecting the rents of the premises and that Gotlieb never made any claim for any rents.

We think these facts sufficiently show that Gottlieb perpetrated a forgery in signing the names of Samuel Stiller and Theresa Stiller to the deed dated August 18, 1891, and in behalf of our clients we desire to have him indicted for forgery.

Will you kindly inform us what your pleasure in the matter may be. We will cheerfully render any assistance in the prosecution that you may request.

New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property, viz:Three Hundred dollarsthe property of Julia Raduziner but in deponent's charge and careand that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by Henry Gottliebfrom the fact that on said date deponent was induced to part with the above amount money in the manner following:
To wit: That said Gottlieb called upon deponent with two notes (here shown) one for $200 and one for $100 said notes purporting to be made by one Wolff
Rosenzweig of 134 Allen Street and endorsed by Max Muhlman of 650 East 7th Street said Gottlieb

Said mortgage being made by said Joseph Rosenzweig
