Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK,

against

Charles Miller

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

of the CRIME OF SELLING INTOXICATING LIQUORS AND WINES AS A BEVERAGE ON SUNDAY, committed as follows:

The said

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the twenty-eighth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, at the City and County aforesaid, the same being the first day of the week, commonly called and known as Sunday, with force and arms, certain intoxicating liquors and certain wines, to wit: One gill of wine, one gill of brandy, one gill of rum, one gill of gin, one gill of whiskey, one gill of cordial, one gill of bitters, one gill of ale, one gill of porter, one gill of beer, one gill of lager beer, and one gill of a certain intoxicating liquor to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, unlawfully did sell as a beverage to one

James G. Cooper, the younger and to certain other persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid by this indictment further accuse the said

of the CRIME OF KEEPING OPEN ON SUNDAY a place licensed for the SALE OF STRONG AND SPIRITUOUS LIQUORS, WINES, ALE AND BEER, committed as follows:

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, the same being the first day of the week, commonly called and known as Sunday, being then and there in charge of and having the control of a certain place there situate, which was then duly licensed as a place for the sale of strong and spirituous liquors, wines, ale and beer, with force and arms, at the City and County aforesaid, the said place so licensed as aforesaid unlawfully did not close and keep closed, and on the said day the said place so licensed as aforesaid unlawfully did then and there open, and cause and procure, and suffer and permit, to be open, and to remain open, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

Thuders Hogan, patrolman, 11 precinct. On the 30th of November, 1888, at about seven o'- clock in the evening, while on duty between Brown and Canal Street, in the Bowery, I was called on by Robert Stanton to arrest a man at 137 Bowery, for having robbed his comrade, the complainant herein, of seven dollars.
I arrested the defendant. On the way to the Station House, he said, that he did not take the money, but if ~~we~~ we would let him go, he would get the complainant his money back. He was searched in the Station House, but no money was found on him.

George Reese, pupil on the School Ship St. Mary. On the 30th of November, 1888, at about five o'clock in the afternoon I received from the Quarter Master of said ship the sum of $11, which had been resmitted to me by my parents. At about six o'clock P. M., same day, I left the ship with Robert Harlow, a shipmate, to get a watch out of pawn and to take a stroll through the city. After having discovered the said watch from a pawnbroker in Third Avenue, near the 18th Street, we took the car and rode down to the Bowery. Between Broome and Grand Street, we jumped off the said car, and, perchance, went into the saloon at No. 137 Bowery. In there I met the defendant whom I have known for the last four years and I invited him to a drink. In the same moment I took my money, consisting of one $2 and five $1 bills, out of my pocket, and the defendant, when seeing it, snatched it out of my hands. I saw the money in his hands, and I demanded its return from him. He replied, that he did not want anybody to cling any money in his face like that I again demanded from him the return of the money, and took hold of both of his arms. He retorted that he had not the money. Afterwards he said that Pete had the money.

Robert Haulson, pupil on the School Ship Mary. I was in complainant's company during the whole of the above related transaction. I saw the defendant take the said money and pass it over to another man.

in the City and County aforesaid, the said being a two story brick building the first floor of and which was occupied by deponent as a tailor's workshop and in which there was at the time a human being, by name were BURGLARIOUSLY entered by means of forcibly breaking the screw-eye fastened in the door and the case ments of the door leading into said apartment and removing the lock and entering said apartment on the 8th day of December 1888 in the night time, and the following property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz: A quantity of unfinished coats in the course of manufacture consisting of ninety one coats and a quantity of trimmings all of the value of One hundred and seventy five dollars the property of Suskinner and Lussor and in case of deponent and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen, and carried away by Augustus L. Moore & Charles Faber both now here for the reasons following, to wit: That on said day the doors and windows leading into said premises were securely locked and fastened and the said property was therein. That at about the hour of six o'clock in the evening of December 7th 1888 the doors were securely fastened and locked in the presence of deponent and under her direction and the keys thereof were handed to deponent. That at about the hour of five o'clock a.m. on the 7th day of December 1888 deponent was awakened and discovered the said entry and burglary as aforesaid. Deponent is informed by Detective Sergeant McCanley (now here) that he McCanley found a quantity of unfinished coats in the apartment of one Millie Daly at 119 Ludlow Street and deponent has since seen said property and identifies the same as being a portion of the proceeds of said burglary. Deponent is further informed by Millie Daly (now here) that on the morning of said burglary she Daly was awakened and found the defendant Moore with whom she was co-habiting, in her ^{in her apartment} bed, and the defendant Fater lying on the floor thereof. Said Daly further states that in a short time thereafter she Daly saw the said property concealed in a closet in her apartment.

0809

Wherefore deponent charges the defendant with acting in concert with each other did break and enter said premises and take, steal and carry away said property.

Katie Porter will testify that she keeps books for her father at Delaney St. and that on the night of Dec 7 bet 5 & 6 PM she saw the premises which were burglarized securely locked by one of the workmen and the keys given to her by him —

That early next morning she was awake by a Roundsmen of Police and her attention called to the Workshop which had been broken open ^{& property valued at $175 stolen} & she went to 11 Precinct Station House & identified a portion of the stolen property which was found in the possession of one Wm. Stewart arrested by Officer Snyder of the 11 Precinct — (Stewart pled guilty & was sent to State Prison)

Also on Dec 8 or 9 she went to Police Hdqrs. & identified pair of shoes, Clock & balance of property stolen from said premises found at 119 Sullivan St. in Room occupied by Moore & Faber.

Officer Snyder of 11 Precinct will testify that he met three men coming through Hudson

Street, carrying a bag, and when he arrested one (W. Stewart who carried the bag) the other 2 men ran away. He now positively identifies Chas. Faber as one of the men who ran away when he arrested Stewart.

Det Sgt. Brown will testify that in company with Det Sgt. McAulley & Crowley, they arrested Aug. L. Moore & defendant Faber in room at No 119 Ludlow St and found concealed in closet about a portion of stolen property also that when property was recovered Moore was handcuffed to Faber and said to Millie Daley his mother - "It is all up with us."

Det Sgt. McAulley & Crowley will corroborate P.B.

Millie Daley will testify that both men left the room No 119 Ludlow St together about 9 P.M. Dec 7 and when she awoke early next morning they were both in her room and slept.

against

Augustus D. Moore

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this Indictment accuse

of the crime of Burglary in the third degree, as a SECOND OFFENSE, committed as follows:

Heretofore, to wit: at a court of General Sessions of the Peace, holden in and for the City and County of New York, at the City Hall, in the said City of New York, on the Twenty-seventh day of September, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, before the Honorable Henry J. Henderson, Judge of the said Court of General Sessions of the Peace, and Justice of the said Court, the said Augustus D. Moore, by the name and description of Charles Smith was in due form of law convicted of a Felony, to wit: of knowingly receiving stolen property upon a certain indictment then and there in the said Court depending against him the said Augustus D. Moore by the name and description of Charles Smith as aforesaid,

and one Charles Wilson, for that he and the said Charles

Wilson,

then both late of the City of New York 0025

Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the second day of September, in the year aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, about the house of Ludue, a house in the night time, of the same day, the dwelling house of one Louis Leroy, there private, feloniously and unlawfully did break into and enter, there being then and there some persons being to wit, the said Louis Leroy within the said dwelling house, with intent to commit some crime therein to wit, the goods, chattels and personal property of the said Louis Leroy, in the said dwelling house then and there being, then and there feloniously and unlawfully to steal, take and carry away, each of them the said Charles Smith and Charles Wilson being then and there assisted by a confederate actually present, to wit, each by the other, and also by that they the said Charles Smith and Charles Wilson, on the date of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit, on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, in the night time of the said day, with force 0026 and arms, three coats of the value of fifteen dollars each, of the goods, clothes and personal property of one Nathan Culverman, and one pair of trousers of the value of six dollars, of the goods, clothes and personal property of one Morris Bacharach, in the dwelling house of the said Louis Sung, there situated, then and there being found, from the dwelling house aforesaid, then and there gloriously did steal, take and carry away.

0027

And Thereupon, upon the conviction aforesaid, it was considered by the said Court of General Sessions of the Peace, and ordered and adjudged that the said Augustus D. Moore, by the name and description of Charles Smith
as aforesaid,
for the said felony whereof he was so convicted as aforesaid, he imprisoned in the State Prison at hard labor for the term of two years, as by the record thereof doth more fully and at large appear.

And the said Augustus D. Moore, late of the Seventh Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, having been so as aforesaid convicted of the said felony in manner aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the twenty fourth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty eight, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, a certain riding shoe store, to wit: the factory of one Israel Rosenthal, feloniously and unlawfully did break into and enter, with intent to commit some crime therein, to wit: with intent the goods, chattels and personal property of the said Israel Rosenthal, in the said factory store and there finding, steal and take feloniously and unlawfully 0020 to steal, take and carry away, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.
