I regret, exceedingly, being

The People
vs.
Isaac Cooper.

Court of General Sessions, Part I.
Before Recorder Smyth.

January 11, 1886.

Indictment for forgery in the second degree.

Simon Epstein sworn and examined. I live 26 Henry St. in this city and do business at 99 Bowery, the firm name is Epstein & Co., house furnishing and carpets, I remember the 21st of May last, the defendant was in my store that day, I guess it was between two and three o'clock, he came into the store and asked my salesman for Mr Epstein, if he was in; he told him yes, he brought him into my office. He said do you know P. L. Jacobs? I said yes. He said, he sent me here, I want to purchase some furniture, he said that he took an office in 7th Avenue, I said, all right what is it you wish to get? He said, he took a real estate office in 7th Avenue. I called my salesman and told him to sell this gentleman some goods. Before he went with the clerk he gave me that check now shown. He purchased the furniture and came in; the furniture amounted I believe to eighty-one dollars and he asked me to give him the change. I said to the book-keeper, the check is certified, what do you think, can it be forged. He said no, I know the maker of the check, it is all right; so I told him to give him the change. The check was brought into the office and I gave him the change. When I went to deposit the check it came back. The defendant left the store after I gave him the money, I afterwards sent the furniture to the place and nobody was there. I deposited the check in the bank. I did not send the furniture because the next day was a holiday. I gave the defendant the difference between the amount of that check and the bill. He told me to send the furniture to 7th Avenue. The next day was a holiday and of course I could not send the furniture, so when I came to my office I received a postal card from the bank stating that the check was no good, I deposited it in the Lowery National Bank, I went to the bank and asked what was the matter with the check and they said it was raised. I made inquiries at 7th Avenue, I sent my man after I learned the check was no good and I went to the Police Headquarters and reported the case. The next I saw of the prisoner was when he was arrested which was last month, I identified the defendant as the man to whom I gave the money.

Cross Examined. I have sometimes made a mistake in the identity of a person, I never saw the defendant before the day he came into my store, he was in the back of the store, the store is lighted by three windows about ten feet in width each, my store is on the east side of the street and this was between two and three o'clock in the afternoon. I should think the prisoner was in my store twenty minutes and that we talked together most of the time. My son was not with me at Jefferson Market but my clerk was there, he went up first and came back and said to me they were looking for me, they had got that negro, so he took me there. I could not recognize him so well first off but afterwards when I looked at him good and had a few words with him I recognized him. The detective asked me if I could identify him and I said, I think so if I will see him, I believe they brought him out, there was no other negro there that I remember. I did not go to the place of a negro named Agnilla, I did not see a man of that name arrested by Officer Vallely, I went to a cigar store 15 Sixth Avenue, I believe the name is Agnilla but he was not arrested. I do not remember the number in 7th Avenue where the defendant said the goods were to be sent. The day after I sold the furniture a negro who keeps a cigar store in Sixth Avenue came into my store and showed a bill to my man, I was not there. Did not you accuse that negro of being the one that passed the check on you, the one in Sixth Avenue? No sir.

Adolph E. Thimig sworn. I live 233 Atlantic Avenue, Brooklyn and am in the bottling business with my father, I remember the 18th of May last, I saw the defendant between eight and nine o'clock in the evening at 233 Atlantic Avenue. He stated to me that he would like to have a check for five dollars. I asked him why I should give him a check and he told me that his wife was sick down on Long Island and he knew that our firm was well known down there as we shipped goods down there and he would like to have a check to send down that evening as the post-office was closed, he gave me five dollars and I gave him a check. I made out the check and my father signed it. This is the check now shown me. The date May 18 is not my writing; the words four seventy-five were not written by me, the signature to this check is my father's genuine signature, I make out checks once in a while and he signs them, I do not know William Ferguson and on the 18th of May I did not make out a check to the order of William Ferguson, I did not on that day make out a check for a $4.07 for any one, I had not seen the defendant before that day and the next time I saw him was at the Jefferson Market Court where I identified him as the man to whom I gave a check for five dollars on the 18th of May. The filling of that check is not in my father's hand-writing nor that of any employee in our place, sometimes out book-keeper, Mr. Bass is authorized to fill checks but this check is not in the hand-writing of the book-keeper; the check for five dollars never came back but all the other checks came back as I can show by the check book. The check in question was numbered 3506 and payable to Henry D. Smith for five dollars, that was the check I gave the defendant and it has never been returned; the checks preceeding and succeeding that have been returned by the bank in the usual course of business; I have no stub on the check book corresponding with 3506; the blank on which this raised check is drawn is one of our blanks.

Cross Examined. I have been mistaken sometimes in my identification of a person, the defendant was in my place this evening about fifteen minutes. The defendant was the only colored man that I saw when I identified him. The man who got the check had no beard, his face was closely shaven, he looks differently now, he had no moustache then but I have not the slightest doubt but that he is the man.

Herman Thimig sworn. I live 288 Atlantic Ave. and am in the bottling business, I remember seeing the defendant at my store about eight o'clock in the evening on the 18th of May, he was speaking to my son who told me that the man wanted a check for five dollars. He said he wanted to send some money to his wife in the country and it was too late to get a registered letter and too late to send money by mail, I said to my son, we will make a check out for him and he gave me five dollars in silver. I recognize the signature on the check shown me as mine but I never signed a check to the order of Ferguson but to the order of Henry O. Smith, I saw the defendant next in the Jefferson Police Court. I never authorized any one to make out a check of the kind shown me. I never saw the defendant before the night he came into my store. I believe the man who got the five dollar check had a moustache. I recognized him in the Police Court, not the face alone, I recognized his voice.

Thomas Murray Sworn. I am a detective sergeant connected with the central office in this city and arrested the defendant on the corner of Garaine and Elecker Streets upon the 28th of November on a charge of forgery and took him to the central office and from there to the Jefferson Market Court, I was present in the Police Court when Simon Epstein was there and Adolph and Herman Thimig and I saw them identify the defendant, I searched him and found nothing on him. When I arrested him I told him what I arrested him for and he said he did not have anything to do with any checks. At the time this defendant was identified by the witnesses there were no other colored men standing about. The defendant had no beard but had a moustache.

The Case for the Defence.

Maggie Banks sworn. During the month of May last I was living at 63 West 10th Street New York, I got acquainted with Isaac Cooper the latter part of April, he told me that he was going to Richmond, Virginia and I did not see him all summer long until August; in August he turned up and said he had been to Richmond and that is all I know about it.

Jesse Thomas sworn. I am acquainted with the defendant, I suppose I have known him for two or three years, I don't know anything of his whereabouts in May last, I saw him in May last but I do not remember exactly the part of the month, I think it was about the middle of May I saw him in New York. His custom was to wear his moustache, I never saw him without one, I do not think he wore a beard under his chin. Look at him now and see if his face is in the same condition as it was at the time you saw him in May? All with the exception of the beard, he had a moustache though to the best of my knowledge.

Maggie Banks recalled. I know Henry Hooper, I was entrusted with a subpoena to serve upon him, I gave it to a young man that handed it to him in my presence and he left word last night when I last saw him that he would be here this morning. That was Saturday night, I have known Henry Hooper about five or six months, I was standing at the corner of Eleecker and Thompson when the subpoena was given.

The Jury rendered a verdict of guilty.

STATE OF NEW YORK,

City of New York ss.:

358 Washington Street
Charles Sears, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

That he resides in the town of Brooklyn in the County of Kings and State of New York, and is 41 years of age, and is an Agent appointed by JOSIAH K. BROWN, New York State Dairy Commissioner;

That on the 28th day of October, 1885, in the store occupied by him, No. 907 North Third Avenue street, in the City of New York in the County of New York and State of New York, John Corbett and Joseph Corbett, against the form and statutes in such cases made and provided, and in violation thereof, and against the peace of the people of the State of New York, had in his possession, with intent to sell the same for Butter made from unadulterated Milk or Cream, a number of pounds of a substance, product, manufacture and compound, which was not

Butter made from unadulterated Milk or Cream, but had been made by manufacturing, mixing and compounding with and adding to a small quantity and proportion of natural Milk, Cream or Butter a large quantity and proportion of animal fats or animal or vegetable oils, and was a manufactured oleaginous substance not produced from Milk or Cream; that it had been and was colored with some coloring matter whereby the same was made to resemble Butter.

the product of the Dairy, and was so colored thereby, in semblance of and resembled Butter, and did resemble Butter the product of the Dairy; that the said John Corbett and Joseph Corbett offered said substance, product, manufacture and compound for sale as and for

Butter made from unadulterated Milk or Cream at such time and place, with intent to sell the same as and for Butter made from unadulterated Milk or Cream, and did sell some considerable portion thereof, to wit, one found as and for Butter, the product of the Dairy, and represented the same to be Butter at such time and place; that the said substance, product and compound was not natural Butter produced from pure unadulterated

Milk, or Cream of the same, and was not Butter the product of the Dairy, and was not made exclusively from Milk or Cream, or both; that it contained some substance for the purpose and with the effect of imparting thereto a color resembling that of yellow Butter, and was in imitation and semblance of natural Butter produced from pure unadulterated Milk or Cream of the same, and was colored by some substance to resemble yellow

Butter, and was in semblance of natural Butter; that the same was a substance known as Oleomargarine; that it had been made, manufactured and rendered after April thirtieth, 1885, out of some animal fat, or animal or vegetable oils not produced from unadulterated Milk, or Cream of the same, in imitation and semblance of natural Butter, produced from pure unadulterated Milk, or Cream of the same, by mixing, compounding with and adding to a small quantity of Milk, Cream or Butter a large quantity and proportion of some animal fats or animal or vegetable oils not produced from Milk or Cream, with design and intent to render, make and produce an article, substance and human food in imitation and semblance of natural Butter. That the same was not manufactured, or in process of manufacture on April thirtieth, 1885, but has been rendered, manufactured, compounded and mixed since

April thirtieth, 1885, as deponent is informed and believes; that said John Corbett and Joseph Corbett did offer and permit their agent and agent Charles Sears to sell to deponent the said substance that the tubs in which the same was contained did not have the words "Oleomargarine Butter" upon the top or side thereof, and such words were not burned in or painted thereon with permanent black paint, in a straight line not less than one half inch in length, where deponent could see such brand, that no printed label, bearing the words "Oleomargarine Butter" was delivered therewith to the purchaser thereof.

Deponent further says that on said 28th day of October

1885, he went to the said store of said

John Corbett and Joseph Corbett in said City and County, and told said Charles Sears that that he wanted to buy some Butter; that said Charles Sears offered deponent a number of pounds of the said Oleomargarine hereinbefore mentioned, offered the same to deponent for sale, and sold the same to deponent; that he so sold to deponent one found thereof, and deponent then paid to him therefor the agreed price thereof, amounting to the sum of $ twenty cents.

that, as deponent believes and charges, the said John Corbett and Joseph Corbett at the time of so offering and selling the same, well knew that it was Oleomargarine, and had been manufactured and colored as hereinbefore stated; that he did not tell deponent at any time that the said Oleomargarine so sold to deponent was not

Butter, the product of the Dairy; that deponent saw the tubs in which the said Oleomargarine was contained, and no printed label bearing the words "Oleomargarine Butter," was delivered by said John Corbett or Joseph

Corbett or Charles Sears to deponent with the Oleomargarine sold to him; that on October 29th, 1885, deponent delivered a sample of such Oleomargarine, so purchased by him as aforesaid, to Edmund G. Rose a chemist of the city of New York N. Y., and caused the same to be analyzed by such chemist, as shown by the annexed certificate of such chemist.

Wherefore, deponent prays that a warrant may issue for the arrest of the said John Corbett and Joseph Corbett and that he may be dealt with as the law directs.
