PRISON ASSOCIATION OF NEW YORK.

66 BIBLE HOUSE, ASTOR PLACE.

New York, Jan'y 28th 1880.

Ellen Waldron 17 1/2 years old, has been in this country 16 months. Her father died in Ireland and soon after this event she left home with several female acquaintances for New York.

She has no relatives here. From Castle Garden she obtained a situation at Yonkers where she remained 6 mo. with a family who treated her kindly and desired her to remain longer.

She assures me she can get from this lady a letter certifying to her honesty and trustworthiness in every respect.

She left this place to go home to Ireland on one of her deceptions. When she got to Castle Garden with only $15. they persuaded me to take another place and go.

She came to the City, obtained this place with the Comp^t 856-6 Ave ~~and~~ and her husband are in quite moderate circumstances. Ellen was the only servant, was socially one of the family and ate at the same table - both heads of the family used intoxicating liquors. Mrs. indulged most freely so that she was frequently "dismissed". The family lived so poorly that Ellen says she was frequently hungry. She says I took the Pocket book off the table in the kitchen, took it to the Cellar & took from it 25 cents to buy some cake to eat. I layed the book away in the Cellar intending to return it, to where I took it.

If I had desired to steal I could have done it many times as she left her pocket book about without much care of it, frequently with 30 or 40 Dollars in it. But I did ^{not} wish to take what was not my own - I rec^d my wages $6. per month, she only owes me $1.50.

When she missed her pocket book, she accused me, and I laughed and she went right down into the Cellar & found it.

If I am discharged I will go to Castle Garden and get another place, in the mean time I can stay with a friend Mrs. Richardson in Brooklyn who will keep me till I get a situation.

This is a simple minded unsophisticated girl. I don't think there is any thing bad about her. This will be a warning that will teach her not to take too much ^{freedom} with people, however intimate she may be.

The undersigned recommends she be discharged by suspending ^{Servant} Respectfully

States and will testify that Ellen Waldron came to visit them on Sunday Jan^y 18th inst and admitted having a sum of money which she said was her four months wages due her from Mrs Taylor of 856-6th Ave N^Y City and that she had not been able to get her wages from Mrs Taylor but called on Mr Caholly Sup^t of Labour Bureau Castle Garden and he came up with her and demanded her wages of Mrs Taylor that she paid them to him and she handed them over to her and told her to take care of them even if she had to put them in her boots the sum of $ 32. ⁰⁰ dollars that she staid at her house until the following Wednesday and returned to New York about noon and during the staid with her she spent money freely and bought articles of dress and other things amounting to about $ 54. ⁰⁰ dollars and the said articles are now in Mrs Maxwells possession.

Mrs Annie Maxwell was with Ellen Waldron when she bought the things at store Fulton St Brooklyn and the prices of the articles are what Ellen Waldron told her she paid for them and she believes the articles to be worth those prices.

Mrs Taylor always paid her her wages at the end of each month when due and as been with her when she spent them in buying clothing this week before she went to Brooklyn she spent her last month's wages on a suit & dress.

on Monday Morning Jan 7th a sum of Money $61.00 dollars was taken out of my pocket and I have not been able to find it and I have every reason to believe that Ellen Waldron took it and appropriated it to her own use.

Peepes vs. White

*Hon: Benjamin K. Peepes.
District Attorney*

Dear Sir

I find the facts about this case to be as follows.

1st *The name of the accused is entered on the books of the Company as G. P.
White - first name understood to be George -*

2nd At the time of the commission of the offense he was employed as a conductor by the Metropolitan Elevated Railway Company -

3rd The Company had, about the time of the facts hereinafter stated, ascertained through their detectives that a gateman at 42nd Street (named Aaron B. Rollins and convicted of petty larceny 0465

TORN PAGE(S)

0466 at Special Sessions a week ago today) was abstracting tickets from the boxes in which they were deposited by passengers landing at the 42nd Street Station on the East side of Sixth Avenue - Rollins is, or should be, now in the City Prison serving out a sentence of fifteen days.

4th The detectives of the Company were then set at work to ascertain what Rollins did with the tickets which he ~~stole and reported their~~ belief that the tickets were given to White for sale. They were unable to get any direct evidence to this effect however.

5th At about this time the officers of the Company received a letter from H. B. Smith residing at 888 9th Avenue and employed in a pattern establishment at 120 Chambers Street requesting an interview. An interview was given him early in November last at which Smith stated that he, while riding on one of the cars of the Company had had an interview with White in substance as follows:

Smith says to White: "I suppose that you fellows have no opportunity to knock down on this road?" To which White replied: "Oh, yes we do; the gateman gets tickets all the time" - Smith then said: "Can the tickets be bought for less than ten cents?" To which White replied: "Yes I can let you have some for seven". Smith says: "If you will bring a hundred to my office I will buy them of you at that price (Smith had been employed as a Special Agent during the war and states his motive to be the gratification of his detective instinct to convict White of stealing the tickets -)

During the latter part of October,

On the 29th, White came to Smith's office and sold him a hundred tickets at seven cents a piece. Smith, at his first interview with the officers of the Company, delivered to them these tickets and stated the purpose of his conversation. The officers of the Company requested Smith to buy some more tickets of White if he could.

Smith then had a second interview with White in which ~~he~~ ^{White} promised to bring him a hundred and fifty more tickets and on or about the 15th of November he brought these tickets to Smith's store and sold them to him at seven cents a piece.

Soon afterwards, on these facts, White and Rollins and a newsboy, who had assisted Rollins to sell his stolen tickets, were arrested and taken before Judge Smith at 57th St.

on charge of petty larceny; the accusation against White being that of ^{steal} selling a hundred and fifty tickets (the second lot above mentioned) - The complaint against the newsboy was withdrawn

6th. At the time of Rollins's arrest he took a number of tickets from his pocket and handed them to ^{the} ~~the~~ policeman ^{who arrested him} and requested him to hide them so that the Company would not find them on his person -

Col: McBook, of this firm, ^{had} an interview with Rollins at the station house immediately after his arrest in which he said to Rollins (referring to the tickets which Rollins had handed to the police officer) "These tickets are in just 0470 the same shape as those you gave to White" To which Rollins replied "Yes". Col. McBook then said "How often have you given tickets to White" To which Rollins replied: "Two or three times". Prior to this Rollins had confessed to Col. McBook that he had himself stolen the tickets from the box -

No charge was made against White for stealing the first hundred tickets as Mr. Smith was afraid that his motive in buying those tickets might be misconstrued and that that transaction might get him into trouble

7th White demanded an examination which was granted to him. On the examination, the company proved that the hundred and fifty tickets which he sold to Smith had been previously sold by the Company at ten cents each and showed by the marks on the tickets that they were sold at various stations below 42nd Street on various dates, leading to the conclusion that the tickets were all dropped in the box at 42nd Street. The Company also proved the facts above recited.

Judge Smith held that this was enough to put the prisoner upon his explanation as to where he got the tickets. White was put upon the stand and swore that he got the hundred and fifty tickets in question on the same day on which he sold them to Smith and that he picked them up on the street under the 33rd Street station door up just as they were when sold to Smith. On cross examination White testified that he had no conversation with anyone about these tickets except with Smith at the time when he sold him the tickets also that, although he knew them to be tickets of the Company, he did not take them to the Company or to any officer of the Company and made no effort to redeem them at the office of the Company.

The Company then proved that it was their universal custom to redeem tickets at ten cents each, whenever presented, either in large or small quantities.

On this evidence Judge Smith declined to hold Mr. White for larceny unless we would prove, what we could have proven, that on the day when White states that he found the tickets he was not at or near the place at which he says he found them. We decided that it was not worth while to prove this on the preliminary examination -

9th we then having proven that White had no authority from the company to sell tickets asked the court to hold him on the charge of selling Railroad tickets without authority under Sec 1 Title 23 Chapt 20 Part I of the N.Y.R.S. ^{2nd Vol.} Banks 6th Ed.
p. 1016
1 Chapt 470 of the Laws of 1857 -

This Judge Smith did and notified us that all ~~that~~ all the Evidence which had been taken under the charge of larceny should be sent down with the other papers when sending Smith's case to trial for selling tickets without authority 10th White gave bail and elected to be tried by a jury and Judge Smith informs us that the papers 0474 will be sent to the grand jury to find an indictment

11th In a conversation had by White with one of the officers of the Company subsequent to his preliminary examination he stated that he found both the first and second lot of tickets - that is all the 250 tickets at the same time under the 33rd station and that what he meant to say on his ^{preliminary} ~~cross~~ examination was that he found them on the day when he sold the 100 tickets (the first lot) to Mr Smith & not on day when he sold the second lot to Mr Smith -

If this is the testimony which he will give on his trial we can show that at the time when he sold the first lot of tickets to Mr Smith the second lot of tickets had not been issued from the office of the Company and that therefore

*Hon. B. K. Phelps
District Attorney
Dear Sir*

I should have added in my note to you of Saturday that our client is anxious that if White can only be indicted for one offence he should be indicted under the statute for selling tickets without authority, especially if evidence of larceny can be given to aggravate the offence and increase the ^{sure} ~~the~~ ^{full} penalty -

This is based upon the notion that a conviction under this statute would be a good precedent for the reason that the offence is so much more easily proven -

I may make this a suggestion 0478 leaving the matter entirely to your discretion -

Yours respectfully
