After examining this case I have doubt as to the guilt of defendant
Kelly. He was found at the time I then not satisfied that he guilty of the acts constituting the crime.

Witnesses: His reputation is excellent.
I believe no good and can be

I therefore recommend the

Hon. Randolph B. Martine,

District Attorney,

Sir :

The defendant in the above entitled matter is indicted for embezzlement from his employer.

He is a lad of some twenty years of age, residing with his parents in Brooklyn, and appears to have committed the crime in question, through the temptation to which he was exposed, by intercourse with companions of bad character and extravagant tendencies. Affidavits herewith annexed are submitted on his behalf for a suspension of sentence. One, is the affidavit of the complainant, testifying to his belief of defendant's former good character, and the fact that he is the part support of his widowed mother; that his present confinement is a sufficient punishment for the offense committed, and that he requests he be leniently dealt with. The other affidavit is of Edward C. Sands, defendant's brother-in-law, speaking substantially to the same facts, and offering himself as responsible for the future good conduct of the prisoner.

POOR QUALITY

I have conversed with the prisoner. From that in-terview and the facts stated in the affidavits, I am of opinion that the case is one in which leniency would be wisely exercised; and I accordingly recommend that if the prisoner will plead guilty, sentence should be suspended.

Yours respectfully,

William Hauchhaus of said city being duly sworn says that he is a member of the firm of Peck and Hauchhaus of No 691 Broadway in said city that upon deponents complaint the prisoner was arrested some three weeks ago and has since been confined in the City Prison and is now awaiting trial under an indictment for Grand Larceny in the second degree for stealing some two hundred dollars while in deponent's employ.

That deponent is informed and verily believes that this is the first, that said Jones has ever been in trouble or arrested and has been heretofore of a good moral character and the part support of his widowed Mother.

That said Jones is but 19 years of age and that his present confinement is and will be sufficient punishment for the offence committed.

That deponent respectfully consents and request that a plea of petty larceny be accepted and that a light sentence be passed upon him.

That deponent has the kindness feeling towards the young prisoner and desires to give him a new start in life
