Deceased. The prisoner had no marks or wounds upon him that I saw. His clothes were not torn or disordered and were not wet. I did not search him. I saw the prisoner hand the pistol to Officer O'Brien. He both examined it. Three of the chambers were discharged. It is a 6 chamber revolver.

X E. There were 4 persons in the bar room besides deceased. I was called from post by a man living over the store. The stone pipe was on the floor, as though it had been tumbled down in an affray. I think from the position of deceased. That he was in the act of leaving the bar room. The ball struck deceased on the forehead, above the left eye. I don't know if deceased was shifted from the position he fell. I won't be positive if the outer wall of the store was more than 7 feet from the counter which runs parallel with said wall. The counter is about 10 feet long. The door is on the corner of the store. Deceased's feet were outside the door. It was a double door. Don't know if both were open - Deceased was lying on his back. Can't say whether that is the position in which he fell. I had no resistance from any one.

TESTIMONY.

James Ryan being sworn says: I reside at 19 Albany St. I never saw deceased before. About 12 o'clock last night from Jan 2<sup>d</sup> to 3<sup>d</sup> 1883 I was sitting in a chair in the bar room at No. 122 Washington St. Cor Carlisle St. Two men came in and insisted on having drinks. The barkeeper named <sup>Donnelly</sup> ~~Doyle~~ refused to give them any drinks. Deceased said "you son of a bitch if you do not give me a drink, I will turn the house up side down". Deceased seized a pewter pitcher filled with water which stood on the counter and threw it at the bartender. The bartender stopped and the pitcher went over him. There was a large kettle full of boiling water on the stove. Deceased seized this also and hurled at the barkeeper. I then jumped up and said he must get out, as that was no way to carry on. He <sup>(deceased)</sup> turned around and kicked me in the pit of the stomach. I became unconscious and cannot say how long it was before I regained my senses. When I came to deceased and the barkeeper were fighting behind the bar. Deceased then ran out from behind the bar and seized the chairs in the bar room and hurled them at the barkeeper. The bartender had a pistol in his hand fired and shot deceased. I picked up the wounded man. The barkeeper said "go out and bring in an officer". By the time I

X Drummelly was the bar keeper who

I did not go in with deceased. He Thomas H. Kelly being sworn says: I am an officer of the 27th Precinct. I reside at 470 Second Ave.

 I reached 122 Washington St. <sup>on June 2/1888</sup> at twenty five minutes past twelve.
 I found deceased lying on his back with his feet in the door, the head towards the bar. The door was open. I rapped for assistance and went inside. I saw the prisoner and said who did this? He answered I did <sup>swelling myself up</sup>. I told him to remain there until I could get help. Officer O'Brien <sup>arrived</sup> took charge of the prisoner. I took charge of the witnesses. They seemed all under the influence of liquor except Ryan, who appeared sick. He took them to the 27th Precinct Station House. The bar keeper made no statement to me.
 Campbell said he went in to the saloon with deceased to take a drink.
 He was not sworn at the time he made the statement. Campbell made the statement within five minutes after being taken to the station.
 The prisoner was present when Campbell made the statement. I did not know deceased before his death. He <sup>was</sup> ~~was~~ back, searched the body of Paul and took it to the Station House. There was no weapon on Paul, not even a penknife. Campbell made a statement about a quarrel about the drinks. Deceased was pronounced dead before we took him to the Station House. He seemed to be going out of the door when he was shot. His feet were outside of the threshold of the door. He was lying on his back. He <sup>head</sup> was shot in the left temple. Deceased, was ~~lying~~ <sup>lying</sup> several 7 or 8 feet from the bar, his feet were further from the bar.

 The door was about 12 or 13 feet from the bar. I would not be positive as to that.
 I was in the place only once. Deceased was walking out his back would be toward the bar. His right side would be turned to the bar. The place has a very bad reputation. I do not know any thing wrong about the place of my own knowledge. I do not know how long Mr. Donnelly kept that house.
 I heard from the prisoner or Mr. Ryan that the club (Exhibit No. 1) here belonged to the house. I saw the club in the bar room on the bar. Campbell made a statement that he and Paul entered the saloon together and that they boarded together.
 Philip M. Werke Coroner

I did not see any marks of clubbing or deceased, I did not see any scalp wounds or marks on the witness. The prisoner talked straight and walked straight.
 The prisoner may have been nervous from the ~~shooting~~ excitement. I have been on the <sup>force</sup> 3 years. I have ~~taken~~ many men to the Tombs for intoxication I have ~~made~~ charges of drunkenness against some men who have walked and talked rather straight.

~~Given to before me~~ this 19 Jan'y 1883

Police Justice Thomas G. Kelly Edward O'Donoghue sworn saying I am an officer of the N. Y. Precinct. I went into 122 Washington St. on the morning in question about a minute after the preceding officer. I am in the precinct since last March. At the time of the shooting I found the pistol (Exhibit No. 2) in the prisoner's hands.
 Deceased was lying on the floor in the front of the saloon near the door. His feet ~~were~~ towards the door. I found the three witnesses here present and the prisoner there.
 I said "Donnelly who shot this man?" he said "I did." I said where is the pistol? he said "here."

Philip Werkle Coroner.

I then placed him under arrest. I arrived at the spot at from one to three minutes after the shooting took place. I was present at the station house when the prisoner and the three witnesses came there. Campbell said he had boarded with Paul and they had gone into the saloon together. I heard him make this statement in presence of the prisoner. I <sup>heard</sup> ~~believe~~ witness Ryan make a statement. He said "He did not know anything about it". The <sup>remaining</sup> other witness said he knew nothing of the occurrence and was too drunk. The liquor store is situated on the northwest corner of Washington & Carlisle. Deceased was lying toward the Washington & west entrance. His back was turned toward the bar. I think Mrs. Donnelly kept the place about five weeks. I saw deceased around that neighborhood. The characters give me a great deal of trouble there. It is a very bad neighborhood. The prisoner might have been intoxicated, he was very much excited.

Robert Fletcher being sworn says:
I reside at 138 Chatham St, I walked out 1:30 Washington St drunk and found three persons there and deceased lying on his back on the floor. I was in the saloon about two minutes. I had the injuries I now have on my face when I entered the saloon. I never was in the saloon before. The prisoner and witnesses are perfect strangers to me. I never saw any of them before. I identify the three persons sitting here at the railing as the persons I saw there on that night. I went in to get a glass of beer but did not get it. The officer came in just then and arrested me.

John J. McGabbe says: I reside at 122 Washington St. I am employed as a driver by the Pennsylvania railroad. I was not present in the barroom when the shooting took place. I reside on the first floor of the house. I was just about going to bed ~~when~~ I heard a disturbance as though the stove was falling and I heard a pistol shot fired immediately after. As I was going down stairs I heard the second shot. I came around to the front door and saw three men with the prisoner in the barroom. The dead man was lying on the floor. The barroom looked very confused. I saw the prisoner with the club I see here, and a revolver in his hand. The club was not broken at the time. I picked up the club. Donnelly said he had done the shooting in self defence. I then went to call an officer and while I was standing in the corner calling an officer, I heard ~~some one~~ <sup>an officer</sup> rapping for assistance. When I returned with the officer we found deceased dead. ~~I am~~ <sup>I am</sup> residing there since May 1882. The prisoner

I do not know how long the prisoner has possession of the place. I do not know the prisoner. I presume the prisoner kept his place open all night judging from the noise proceeding therefrom.
 In fact I know he ~~could~~ could hear women's voices down stairs. There is a wooden ceiling between the saloon and my apartment.
 I saw the place open in the morning.
 I do not know whether the women are disreputable or not, only that they were there at very unreasonable hours. There was one table and some chairs in the barroom.
 I had no conversation with any of the witnesses. I noticed water all over the floor, although I did not see the Kettle. The <sup>upper portion of the</sup> stove and pipe were ~~all~~ down and strewn to making a true statement of what took place in my saloon on the night in question. The day previous to the night in question, I did not feel very well. I had a pain in my chest on the right side, I went home and remained in my bed until 8 o'clock that evening. I came down to the bar at that time. About 12 o'clock I put in my shutters & I had the keys in my hand ready to go home, when deceased and another man came in. It was another man who went out when he saw he could not get a drink. I had never seen him before. He said deceased said give us two drinks. Deceased had never been in my place before that to my knowledge. I asked him if he had money to pay for them. He said no I demand them of you. I said I cannot accommodate you. Then he said you son of a bitch, I will turn you and the place inside out if I do not get the drinks. I replied you will not get leave to do that.

Philip M. McKee, Barman

He then seized hold of a pewter pitcher which sat on the counter and which weighed about ten pounds it was a very large one. He threw it at my head across the bar. I stooped and the pitcher passed over my head.
 Then I went around from behind the bar and tried to eject him.
 When he seized a large Kettle of boiling water which was on the stove and he deliberately attempted to throw it at my face, I stooped low and my coat was wet with the boiling water which he poured on me. Ryan said "This sort of work has gone too far." Deceased turned around on Ryan and kicked him in the stomach, and left him standing almost like a statue. He appeared to be in a fainting condition. Deceased then turned around and I retreated in behind the bar and as I was retreating he kicked me on the left gluteal region. We ~~glunched~~ <sup>glunched</sup> behind the bar, Deceased saying "you son of a bitch, I will have your life." There is a <sup>wooden grating</sup> ~~rafting~~ tripped on the and fell and I got myself released from his hold. He was a much taller and more powerful man than myself. He then got up and took hold of a siphon of seltzer from the shelf behind the bar, called the back bar. Deceased was behind the bar then still. I grasped hold of my pistol. Deceased was about eight feet from me. He attempted to throw the siphon at me but it caught in his coat and did not hit me. I said clear out of my place. He ~~was still~~ <sup>was still</sup> ~~left from~~ behind the bar when I said this. He <sup>I repeated this request two or three times adding or will show you</sup> ~~came back behind~~ He then grasped the top of the stove and left it lying on the floor besides the lower part of it. There was fire on this stove at the time. The upper part of the stove was not very hot. It is made of iron.

 The next thing he did was to take a chair, which he threw across the bar. I was still standing behind the bar. I never left it as I was afraid.
 The chair <sup>back part of the</sup> caught me about the stomach.
 I had my back against the back bar.
 I was a little stunned not much. He had hold of another chair to fire at me again.

when I shot him, I considered my life in danger because he threatened to take my life. I then told Ryan to go and get a policeman and I would go and give myself up at the station. I reached Ryan a club to rap for a policeman at the door. It was the club I see in (Exhibit C. 11). It was not broken then. It had never been used. I never saw the preceding witness. He probably saw me hand the club to Ryan to rap for a policeman. I did it all in self defence. I certainly thought the chair would kill me. If the pitcher had hit me it would have killed me. Paul fell directly after I shot him. The second chair he was about to throw fell with him. I was behind the bar about the middle of it. Deceased was in front of it trying to hurl the chair at me. The Kettle of hot water would hold about seven or eight gallons of water. I only remember firing one shot.
