John Healy an Officer of the 13th Precinct Police being sworn says. I was on duty last night in Jackson Street from Grand St to the East River and at about half past nine o'clock a boy came to me on post, and informed me that a man named John Baldon was fighting with his father in law Thomas Donovan at 72 Jackson Street, and that Baldon had said that he would murder him. I went to the house, and on the third floor I found in a room there the prisoner (now present) Doctor Vandergrieff, and on a lounge lying dead, Thomas Donovan. I learned that the man had been stabbed by his son in law John Baldon. I asked who he was of those present, and the Doctor told him to speak out, when he admitted that he was the man. I then told him he was my prisoner, and took him to the Station House, where I made a charge of homicide against him. I found a knife in the room where the man was lying which the prisoner admitted was his and which knife I have now here, John Healy thereof: that said John Cassidy then left said showcase and went to the opposite side of the street where said showcase was placed; that said John Cassidy, in the space of a minute more or less returned to said showcase and as he ^{Cassidy} was about placing his hand upon said showcase he was arrested by George E. Brown as deponent is informed by said Brown, and then said Brown, as deponent is informed, found that the lock had been broken by the staple holding the same having been cut or worn off from said showcase.

That said showcase was locked and properly secured on the morning of said day aforementioned as this deponent verily believes.

That deponent is informed by Officer William Davis, of the 1st Police Precinct, that the prisoners and a loss cutter here shown was found upon the person of said John Cassidy -
