Court of General Sessions, Part I.
Before Judge Cowing.

October 22, 1884.

Indictment for burglary in the third degree.

Daniel Cunningham sworn. You are a butcher and you have a place at 639 Second Avenue, is that your butcher shop, your butcher shop is on the first floor, next to the pavement? Yes sir. What is there above the shop, a dwelling house? A dwelling house. Do you know this defendant? No sir. On this 11th of October did you fasten up your place of business? Yes sir, about twelve o'clock Saturday evening. What was left inside there? All things in the way of meats, chickens, hams and bacon. What was the value of the property inside? Probably about a hundred and fifty dollars worth of stuff. Did you discover that that place had been broken into? Yes sir, the next day, Sunday morning, I came down and I saw that the screen surrounding the window was broken off. Was that fastened the night before when you left? Yes sir and at half past six in the morning the lock was broken, there was a pane of glass cut in the summer time through which a man could easily get through. Do you know yourself anything about the circumstances of this man being there, of your own knowledge except what the officer told you? No.

Cross Examined. I left my place about twelve o'clock Saturday night, I was the last one in it, nobody slept in the store; the chickens were kept in the ice-box on the store floor, I have a basement in which corned beef and things of that kind are kept, I was in the basement that Saturday night, I opened the store that Sunday morning and looked down in the basement. Did you miss any property in the store, was anything disturbed? No sir. Is there a way to get into that basement from the street? Yes sir, there is a door going into it, I know that was fastened.

William Crosset sworn. You are an officer of the 21st precinct? Yes sir. Did you arrest this man? I did. Will you go on and state when and where and under what circumstances? On the morning of the 11th of October I was on my way to the station house about a quarter to three, on the southwest corner of 35th Street and Second Avenue I saw a man standing in front of 639 Second Avenue, the complainant's butcher shop, I stood and looked down, I thought it was kind of strange, I walked down and as I went towards him an unknown man turned round to the prisoner and says, drop; he dropped into the basement; as soon as he did this unknown man walked towards the curb and got behind a wagon and ran away, I stood at the head of the basement stairs and rapped for assistance and went down and found the prisoner in the basement; the screen was off the window. When I first saw the prisoner he was between the screen and the window, the window was about two feet high from the pavement, the screen was torn off at the time, he was about to enter in through the window, he could walk along and hold on by the window and go through it; I did see the defendant drop into the basement. When I examined the window at one o'clock, everything was secure; when I saw the defendant, it was about a quarter to three.

Cross Examined. I should judge I was about fifteen or twenty feet from the unknown man when I heard him tell the defendant to drop: the defendant did drop into the basement. I found the prisoner in the basement, he was not drunk in my opinion, the unknown man ran behind a wagon.

down towards 34th Street. Before I came up I had not seen the prisoner and the unknown man in conversation. The basement was underneath the window; there are steps into the basement and that is where he dropped.

The Case for the Defense.

Peter McMahon sworn. I live 495 Third Avenue, I am an upholsterer by trade but I have been working at laboring work for Charles Guidet, the contractor. I was working all day Saturday and came home at half past six, I went home and had my supper and about half past seven I put on old slippers and went out, I had a few pennies in my pocket, I went around spending them, the next thing I found I was taken out of this cellar by the policeman, I was pretty full at the time, I know no more about it. Did you have a friend with you that night? No sir, I had nobody at all with me. Did any unknown man tell you to drop? No sir, I hadn't seen any man at all that night.

Cross Examined. I live on Third Avenue between 33rd and 34th Street and Mr Cunningham's place is between 34th and 35th. When I went out at half past seven I went down as far as 32nd Street into Kiernan's and had something to drink, I had lager and mixed ale that night, I could not tell how long I staid in Kiernan's, I went down as far as 34th Street and Second Avenue and went into a liquor store and had a drink there, I do not know what became of me afterwards, I remember coming out of that second drinking place, I was asleep when the officer came down and took me out of the place, I was awakened by the rapping of his club. I was arrested at one time for an attempt at burglary but was discharged. I do not remember the officer saying that if I moved he would blow a hole through me, I do not remember running around the barrel and his threatening me with a pistol and I putting my hands up and saying, I will come up.

William Grosset recalled. The defendant got from one corner of the basement to the other and went behind a barrel of pork, I told him if he stirred I would shoot him. He came up, put his hands up and said, I give in.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.
