OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

AGAINST

Joseph A. Dalton

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment accuse

Joseph A. Dalton

(III. Revised Statutes, [7th edition] p. 1951 Section 13.)

of the CRIME OF SELLING STRONG AND SPIRITUOUS LIQUORS AND WINES WITHOUT A LICENSE, committed as follows:

The said Joseph A. Dalton,

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the 14th day of May, — in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty seven —, at the City and County aforesaid, certain strong and spirituous liquors, and certain wines, to wit: one gill of wine, one gill of brandy, one gill of rum, one gill of gin, one gill of whiskey, one gill of cordial, one gill of bitters, one gill of ale, one gill of porter, one gill of beer, one gill of lager beer, and one gill of a certain strong and spirituous liquor to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, unlawfully did sell, in quantity less than five gallons at a time, to

Julius Didier, and to — certain other persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, without having a license therefor, as required by law, contrary to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the People of the State of New York.

(Laws of 1883, chapter 310, section 5.)

SECOND COUNT:

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

of the CRIME OF SELLING STRONG AND SPIRITUOUS LIQUORS, ALES, WINE AND BEER WITHOUT A LICENSE, to be drank upon the premises, committed as follows:

The said Joseph A. Dalton,

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, and at the premises there situate known as number

141 Eighth Avenue, — certain strong and spirituous liquors, and certain ales, wines and beer, to wit: one gill of wine, one gill of brandy, one gill of rum, one gill of gin, one gill of whiskey, one gill of cordial, one gill of bitters, one gill of ale, one gill of porter, one gill of beer, one gill of lager beer, and one gill of a certain strong and spirituous liquor to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, unlawfully did sell to

APPEARANCES.

Assistant District Attorney, James Fitzgerald, for the people; Jacob Berlinger, for the Defence.

-----000-----

WILLIAM TINSMAN, the complainant, testified that he was a lodger at 43 Bowery, in the City of New York, and that on the 23rd of April last he saw Henry Delaney, the defendant, in the hall-way of 43 Bowery, together with two or three more. He, the complainant, had a suit of clothes made up in two packages and also a shirt; he had paid $16 for the clothes and $2.25 for the shirts, making a total of $18.25; that he was carrying this bundle under his right arm and that it was about half past 6 o'clock in the evening, and the defendant snatched the bundles from under his arm as he was going up through the hall-way at 43 Bowery and the two others who were with the defendant pushed him, the witness, away, and he, the witness, could not recognize the other two.

I did not see the defendant again until the next night, when he was arrested, and then he, the witness, identified him as the man that run away with his bundles.

-----000-----

Under cross examination he testified that he had been drinking a little upon that day; that he was engaged in the business of selling horses and that he acted in the capacity of "Capper," and that he had sold three horses upon that day and got this money for which he bought the suit of clothes and the shirts and that he bought the clothes in Brokaw's.

-----000-----

JAMES MENGIS testified that he saw the complainant coming out of the hallway and saw the defendant running out of the same hallway between 6 and 7 o'clock in the evening.

-----000-----

John Meyer corroborated the complainant, and stated that he was standing near the doorway with Mengis at the time of this occurrence.

0200

)))-----)((-----

Under cross examination he testified that the complainant was not sober.

-----((000))-----

For the defence, Henry Delaney, the prisoner, testified that he took the bundles off the stairs, after he took the complainant up to the entrance of the lodgings and that the complainant dropped them. He did not take the bundles out of his hands.

-----))000(((-----

Under cross examination the defendant testified that he never was arrested before, and that he worked in a restaurant, and that he worked at odd jobs when he got one. He lived with an aunt in Brooklyn, but he was stopping at 43 Rivery at this time, and had been stopping there for about six months. He admitted taking the packages from the stairs after seeing the <sup>complainant</sup> ~~defendant~~ up, and that he knew they belonged to the complainant.

STATE OF NEW YORK:
New York: }

3d District Police Court.

Daniel Seymour being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 6 day of Jan 1887 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, Joseph Decelin did, in violation of the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, unlawfully and wilfully throw, expose, and place in and upon a certain street, highway and public place in said city, open for the passage of animals, and situate in the 10th Ward, in said city, and known as Bowling therein, a certain salt and substance known as common salt, for the purpose of dissolving certain snow which had theretofore fallen and then was deposited thereon; which said salt and substance was not by him, the said Joseph Decelin thrown, exposed, or placed upon a curve, or crossing, or switch of a railroad track then and there being.

Wherefore the Complainant prays that the said Joseph Decelin may be arrested, and dealt with according to law, and more especially according to the following law made and provided, to wit: "An Act to prevent injury to animals in the City of New York;" passed February 8, 1876.

Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

against

Joseph Dandine

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

Joseph Dandine —

(§ 1938 Consolidation of a MISDEMEANOR, committed as follows: Act.)

The said

Joseph Dandine

late of the South Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the sixth day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty*seven*, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully throw, expose and place, and cause and procure to be thrown, exposed and placed, in and upon a certain street and highway there situate, known as the Broadway —

(otherwise than upon the curves, crossings, or switches of certain railroad tracks then and there being), a quantity of saltpeter, and a quantity of a certain other substance to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, for the purpose of dissolving certain snow and ice which had fallen and been deposited, and was then and there upon the street and highway aforesaid; against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

0222

SECOND COUNT, (§ 316, Revised Ordinances of 1880.)

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

George B. Martin

of the CRIME OF VIOLATING AN ORDINANCE OF THE COMMON COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF New York, committed as follows:

The said George B. Martin

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully cast, throw and sprinkle, and cause to be cast, thrown and sprinkle, in and upon a certain street, and highway there, known as The Bowery, and in and upon a certain railroad track, there, otherwise than upon any switches or turnouts of the same, a quantity of salt, and a quantity of a certain other substance to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, for the purpose of melting certain snow and ice which had fallen, accumulated and been deposited, and was then and there upon and in the street, highway and railroad track aforesaid, and did then and there and thereby offend against a certain ordinance therefore duly passed by the Common Council of the City of New York, and then and there in full force and operation, which said ordinance is as follows, that is to say:

"It shall not be lawful for any person or persons, company or corporation, to cast, throw, or sprinkle, or cause to be cast, thrown or sprinkled, salt, or any other substance, in or upon any avenue, street, railroad track, except upon switches and turnouts, lane, alley, highway or public place in the City of New York, for the purpose of melting any snow or ice which may have fallen, accumulated or been deposited upon or in any such avenue, street, railroad track lane, alley, highway or public place in the said city, under a penalty of not less than five hundred dollars, nor more than one thousand dollars for each and every violation of an against the provisions of this section; provided that permission to throw salt on switches and turnouts on railway tracks be first obtained from his honor the Mayor."

against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

This is an application to discontinue the criminal proceedings against the above defendant. The defendant is charged with violation of trade mark law. The application is made by the complainants pursuant to an arrangement made between defendant and complainant, to the effect, that if the defendant will pay $500 towards the expenses incurred by complainant in the action, the complainant will stop all proceedings with the consent of the Court and District Attorney.

As this crime is a misdemeanor, and as the party injured has a remedy by civil action, I recommend that the complainant prepare the necessary papers, and by motion upon notice to the District Attorney, apply to the court for leave to compromise the matter under sections 663, 664 & 665 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

Dear Mr Martine.

I have just received a summons from your office requesting me to appear before the Grand Jury as a witness in a case against Giuseppe Diomais on Monday May 9th 1887. My object for writing you is to explain the reason why it will be impossible for me to answer the summons on that date. Less than one hour before I received your notice, I received a telegram that my Brother at Alburgh Vermont who has been sick about two weeks was dying which necessitates my going there at once. I shall start to night & cannot get back before the middle of next week, and on my return I will give the Grand Jury any information I can in connection with the Dionicio case.

Hoping the foregoing explanation of my my absence under the circumstances, I remain with-kind regards to your good self and Judge White.

That he is by profession a detective, and is especially employed by the firm of Martini & Rossi, of Turin, Italy, as their agent to discover and bring to justice infringers of their trademark for an article of merchandize known by the name of "Vermouth," that the said trademark consists of the union of certain fanciful designs, words and figures as shown in the annexed fac-simile thereof marked Exhibit No. 1; that the said trademark ~~exists as the union of certain~~ as this deponent is informed and believe, has been (with slight and immaterial modifications from time to time) in the sole and exclusive use of the said firm of Martini & Rossi and their predecessors in business for a long period of years past, and that the merchandize so marked has acquired wide celebrity in Europe and in the United States of America; that the said trademark is registered in the United States Patent office under the act of Congress in such cases made and provided, the official certificate whereof deponent is ready to produce in Court whenever required; and that the manner of using said trademark is by pasting the same upon the bottles containing the said merchandise.

And this deponent further deposes and says that he has reason to believe and does believe, that a great number of bottles to which are affixed the said trademark belonging as aforesaid to the said firm of Martini & Rossi, are being used and filled and have been sold and offered for sale by certain persons styling themselves by the firm name of Saitta & Cuneo, of No. 315 Greenwich Street, in the City of New York (the individuals of which ostensible firm are unknown to this deponent) in vio-

New York, 15 January. 1887.

Hon. Randolph B. Martine,
District Attorney,
New York City.

Dear Sir:-

Some months ago Messrs. Martini & Rossi, of Turin, Italy, employed us to prosecute infringers of their Trademark for "Vermouth."

We engaged detectives and after a great deal of difficulty discovered the source from which the spurious article came. We then caused the arrest of one A. Areco, of No. 27. Centre Street, through whom the counterfeit was sold in this City. He was tried in October last, before the Court of Special Sessions, and sentenced to pay a fine of $500. An appeal was taken, which is now pending and undetermined.

Subsequently to the trial of Areco, we ascertained to our satisfaction that the chief manufacturer of the counterfeit was one Joseph Dionesio who has a place of business in Court Street, Brooklyn. We learned that several hundred cases of fraudulent Vermouth were in Dean's Storehouses in this City, which we seized and had carried to Police Headquarters, and then caused the arrest of Dionesio who was held in $500. bail for the action of the Grand Jury.

Since the proceedings just mentioned, Dionesio has been to see us and laid before us the whole history of the affair and sought the discontinuance of the proceedings against him. We have entertained Dionesio's overtures. Our position on this question has been that if he would give us satisfactory assurances of his purpose to desist from the infringement, and pay the detectives' bill for his services, we would not, with your consent, press the case. The proposition has been reduced to the understanding that Dionisio shall pay $500. towards the expenses of detection which, however, amount to considerably more and upon paying that, the proceedings are to be stopped. The understanding is embodied in the enclosed papers, which we make a part of this letter.

With this explanation, we respectfully submit the matter to your official discretion.

Very respectfully yours,

COUDERT BROTHERS.

Hon. Randolph B. Martine,
District Attorney.
City.

Dear Sir:

May we beg your attention to our letter of the 15th instant in the trademark cases of the Peuple on the Relation of Martini & Rossi vs. Dionisio?

Our motive for troubling you now is to obtain an answer before the 22 instant, on which date, you will notice from an inspection of the papers, our time to comply with the proposed settlement expires.

We are, dear Sir,

Very truly yours,

COUDERT BROTHERS.

People vs. Dionisio

Hon. Randolph B. Martine,
District Attorney

Dear Sir:

Referring to our several communications of the 15th and 20th instant, in this case, we beg to withdraw our recommendation of a settlement, because, although we have endeavored to our utmost to obtain the action of your office upon it, the time within which it was to be done has now expired.

We are, dear Sir,

Very respectfully yours,

People v. Lionisio.

Hon. Randolph R. Martin,
District Attorney,
New York City.

Dear Sir:

We beg to enclose to you copies of our several letters of January 5, 20 and 22 last in reference to a proposed withdrawal of the prosecu-tion of the above case, from which you will observe that the proposi-tion of the defendant therein failed to receive consideration because of our inability to look into the matter within the prescribed time.

Since then the offer has been renewed and will be open until you can consider it, and we respectfully submit it to you upon the grounds formerly stated and as shown

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

against

Ryinsayne Dionisie

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

Ryinsayne Dionisie of a Misdemeanor,

~~of the Crime of~~ committed as follows:

The said Ryinsayne Dionisie, late of the First Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the eleventh day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully and feloniously take and offer for sale, without the consent of the partnership therein for mentioned, an article of merchandise, to wit: one hundred bottles each containing and enclosing a certain compound, mixture, preparation and drug called Vermouth, to which said article of merchandise, and to each of which said bottles, so containing and enclosing the same, there was then and there affixed and placed the genuine trade mark thereof lawfully adopted by a certain partnership doing business in and by the firm name and wife of Martin and Rossin, of Town in the Township of Hadley, the same being a label used to indicate the said partnership of Martin and Rossin as the makers, owners and sellers of a certain mine known as Vermont, and by the said partnership usually affixed to, and placed upon bottles containing the said mine, to denote that the same was sold, compounded, bottled and prepared by them, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.
