Your Honor,
I had a conference with Hyge Helms, this A.M.
He said George Van
Popendicker, broke open trunk and boxes, belonging to Mr. Kiernin and got 57 dollars in money and a pistol.

Helms, said George got into the house, after a certain little boy, who was in charge of same, had been sent after an express wagon.

Helms, also knew that George and Henry went from the city about that time.

It seems to me there is a plain case of burglary again.

Affidavit—Larceny.

City and County }
of New York, } ss.

of No.

242

Green

Street, aged

60

years,

occupation

Coachman

being duly sworn

deposes and says, that on the

26

day of

April

1887 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property viz :

Good and lawful money of the United States to the amount and value of one hundred and twenty five dollars, five gold scarf pins of the value of fifty dollars one gold ring set with a large pearl of the value of twenty five dollars. A revolving pistol of the value of twelve dollars together of the value of two hundred and twelve dollars ($212.00)

the property of

and that this deponent

has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by

George Vanderpootendyke

(now here) and another man named Scott not yet arrested.

from the fact that on the 25th day of April 1887 deponent saw said property in his trunk in his bedroom in said house. And on the said 26th day of April deponent's daughter went out leaving her son and a brother of the defendant together in deponent's house. And when deponent returned he discovered that his trunk had been broken open and the aforesaid property taken out. And deponent is informed by Francis Cain of No 653 Washington St. that the said defendant told him Cain that he the defendant and the aforesaid Scott induced his the defendants brother and defendants grand son to go out of defendants house on the said 26th day of April and that while they were out he the defendant and the said Scott went into defendants house and that Scott went to defendants room and broke open said trunk and took therefrom the aforesaid property. And that they the defendant and the said Scott divided said property between them. And defendant is further informed by Officer John D. Sullivan that when he searched the defendant he found in his possession a pawn ticket representing a pistol which was pawned at the pawn office of Julius Harlan of No 496 Hudson St. on the 26 day of May 1887. Defendant has since seen said pistol in said pawn office as represented by said pawn ticket and fully identified it as his property.

Wherefore defendant charges the said defendant and the said Scott not yet arrested with being together and acting in concert with each other and feloniously taking stealing and carrying away said property.
