the property of deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by John Mackin (now here) ^{attempted to be} and that this deponent for the reasons that deponent was upon the Elevated Railroad Station at Ninth Street and had said watch in a pocket of the vest then worn on his person.

Said watch was attached to a chain which chain was fastened to said vest. While deponent was in a crowd endeavoring to board a train deponent felt a movement in the region of his vest pocket and deponent found the watch removed and in the hand of the defendant the watch being still attached to the

New York General Sessions

The People, etc. } Grand against } Larceny
John Mackin.

City and County of New York, ss:

John C. Costello being duly sworn doth depose and say:

That he is the attorney for the defendant above described, that after consultation with said defendant he is satisfied and he has so advised that one Francis Harris of number 212 East 25th Street New York City is a necessary as well as a material witness in the trial of this above mentioned cause in the behalf of the defendant.

Deposent further says that he was informed by defendant that said Harris had promised him (defendant) to be watchful of the calendar of this court and to be present when his case would be called but that he received a letter from said Harris informing him that said Harris had gone to the place of business of Louis Hessing, tailor of Trenton New Jersey for employment (who is well known to defendant all mentioned being tailors by trade) and expressing a willingness to come to New York on notice.

Now deponent declares that with the purpose of insuring the best interests of defendant he went in person on Saturday last to Trenton New Jersey but that after search in every direction which suggested itself he failed to find said Harris.

Therefore deponent makes this affidavit for the purpose of inducing the Court to grant a continuance of this above entitled action in order to give him further time to secure the attendance of said witness Harris.

Deponent should have said above but he does here now that the ^{alleged} materiality of said witness Harris in this case is that said Harris was with defendant at the time of his arrest.

City & County of New York ss

Margaret Markell
being duly sworn deposes & says

I am 24 years of age and was born in Ireland.

I married the complainant William Markell when I was about 17 years of age.

I have a child & have a boy Willie now 6 years of age and living with my mother.

It was nearly two years after I was married that the said William Markell was appointed on the Police Force in the City of New York.

From that time down to the time he left me which is about 3 years ago, my life has been one uninterrupted series of assaults & beatings.

at the hands of said Melham Markell.

He was constantly under the influence of drink & he would beat & kick me for no cause, and on several different occasions I went to my mother to live to see if said Markell would do better, but to no avail.

In the year 1888 he was dismissed the Police for intoxication.

From that time down to the time he left me I supported him & gave him money to buy clothing & necessary wearing apparel.

My child Willie has been cared for by my mother since he was a year old.
Because my husband would not give me money to care for him & he is now with my mother.

I was almost demented at the time I married him.

Cord. I could not earn enough money to live by reason of my physical condition & I felt that Markell would no longer trouble himself at all we

In marrying Cord,
I believed he would care for me & support me as I did not want to live with a man who was not my husband.

I am suffering great pain from a tumor I have growing in my left breast & it is a large size at the present time.

It came from the beating & kicking I received at the hand of my husband Markell, and I have been treated for the same & Dr. J.
Steers at the time I was arrested.

If the judge will kindly permit me to be released from this charge, I will go to a hospital at once.

and I promise were to volate a break the law again & I like my promise in that event, if I ever recover from the operation that must necessarily be performed upon me to lead a good, upright & aspectable life & take good care of my child.

I have been locked up six weeks, and my husband Marble has sued me for a divorce, the damages having been served upon me.

being duly sworn according to law do depose & say:

I am the mother of the above named defendant.

I am a widower lady and reside at 71 Fourth Street Long Island City with my daughter.

The defendant is about 20 years of age and was born in Ireland.

When she came to this County she was about 15 years of age, and within two years thereafter she married William Markell.

They were married but a short time when Markell was appointed on the Municipal Police Force of the City of New York.

They have one child a boy named Willie aged 6 years who resides with me & has been cared for me for over 5 years last past.

I have supported & clothed the said boy Willie all that time but father not giving me a cent towards keeping the boy.

A short time after Markell was appointed on the Police force he began to drink heavily, and also on numerous occasions did strike & beat the above named defendant without any cause or provocation whatever.

On three or four different occasions the defendant came to my home for protection from the beatings & assaults of her said husband, & on said occasions she had marks & bruises on different parts of her body.

In the latter part of the year 1888 the said Markell was dismissed from the Police for intoxication, and from that time down to a year thereafter the said Markell was supported & clothed by the defendant who in january of the flat house on 47th St near 9th Ave. N.Y. City.

In the past 3 years & more the defendant & her said husband have not been together the said Marshall having become so strongly addicted to the use of intoxicating drinks that he became a worthless & good for nothing man.

I am living with my said daughter during all that time, my daughter & myself would go out & work, to help support ourselves. I making as nurse & my said daughter as nurse, & never & no so living until my daughter was arrested.

I never knew the defendant to be married to John Corde until she was arrested on this charge.

The defendant has been very sick for the past two years.
She has growing over the heart a tumor, which is of large size at the present time & Dr. J. S. Stern who has been her physician for some time ~~has~~ advised her two times before she was arrested.

to go to a hospital & undergo an operation.

I earnestly beg the Court to be merciful with my daughter & have her sent to a hospital at once, so that she can receive medical treatment & thus spare her life, as she was never in jail before or even arrested for any crime whatever.

The People
vs Solomon Maures

Court of General Sessions. Part 2 Before Judge Fitzgerald. Dec. 12th 1892 Indictment for receiving stolen goods.

Isaac Elenstein, sworn and examined.

I live and my place of business is at No. 151 Essex street. I am a tailor and make up clothes for wholesale houses. I occupy the top floor front as a manufactory.
On the 4th of July of this year my place was broken into and property stolen, consisting of four ^{paque} coats brown and nineteen pairs of pantaloons, black and brown.
They were all finished except having the buttons on them. I saw some of them and got them back in the Essex Market Court. I went into my shop on the 5th of July at seven o'clock in the morning and saw that some of my goods were stolen. I went right away and saw police officers about the case - two detectives, Mooney and Place. I saw the officers that morning about eight o'clock in the Essex Court. They arrested that man the defendant. I saw three of my coats in the Essex Market Court which I identified as part of the stolen property. I am sure of it. They were worth seven dollars a piece. I did not authorize anybody to sell those coats to any one.

Charles H. Place sworn and examined You are an officer of the Municipal Police attached to the Eleventh precinct and are on special duty in that precinct? Yes.
When did you first hear of the burglary in Mr. Eleustein's place? The fourth of July about half past nine o'clock in the morning. We went up to his place and investigated the burglary; we understood that one of the men was arrested down in the Thirteenth Precinct station house. We brought Mr. Eleustein down there and he identified the goods that this man had with him. You found a prisoner in the Thirteenth Precinct? Yes.
What was his name? I believe his name was George Hoppel. What did you find? We found a number of pants but no coats. You took Eleustein down there and he identified them? Yes.
As the result of that conversation what did you do? We went to different places where he had sold four coats and we recovered the property. Where did you go first after your conversation with Hoppel? We went to Pitt Street to Mr.
Hoppel's place. I believe it is a small candy and cigar store with a pool table in the back room. He does not sell clothing or anything of that sort. Officer Mooney was with me and the prisoner Holppel; another prisoner whose name was Smith was with us; we found Smith in a saloon in Norfolk street. I had a conversation with Smith and afterwards I went to ~~Maure's~~ ^{Maure's} place in Pitt street. I asked Mr. Maure if he knew this man, and he said that he did, that he bought some ^{coats} ~~from~~ off him in the morning. He asked him how many? He said three. He asked him if he had them there, and he said, yes. He went underneath the stair case and got the three coats. He enquired what price he paid? He said two dollars and 25 cents for the three coats. Did you have any other conversation with him? No sir. When we arrested him. You found them where? Under the stair case, I believe it was leading up stairs - it is the floor that is nearly level with the street. You took the three coats to the Essex Market Court with you? Yes sir and they were identified by Mr. Bernstein. What did the prisoner Smith say in the presence of Maure of anything?

He said that he had sold the goods to Mr. Maurer for two dollars and twenty five cents. Was anything said at that time as to what time of day the coats were sold? I believe it was in the morning he sold them. What time in the morning was it when you got to Maurer's store? It was in the night about six o'clock. The night of that same day? Yes. You heard about it at 9.30 in the morning? Yes. The arrest was made when you got to his store about six o'clock in the evening? Yes sir. The two prisoners that you have spoken of, Smith and Hoppel, have both been convicted of burglary and sentenced? Yes.

Cross Examined. You say that you went round to other places? Yes sir. This closet that you speak of is under the stairway was there a candy bar a cigar counter there? There was a counter there. Was this behind the counter? No, it was a little off the counter. I could not say that it was a place for storing things. I noticed the condition of the coats; they were unfinished - the buttons was to be put on.

William J. Mooney, sworn and examined.
Were you with Officer Place when he had his interview with Smith? Yes. Where was that interview? In the Station house when he first acknowledged anything. After that interview ^{with Smith}, where did you and Officer Place go? In the first place we went to this man's store in Pitt street, (the defendant Maurer). When you got there state what occurred? This gentleman, Mr.
Maurer, was just inside the door; we had Smith handcuffed. Were you in uniform? No sir. Did you tell Maurer who you were? No. I do not think we did until after. He asked him did he know this man? I do not know as he answered me right off. Then in a minute he says, "Yes, I saw this man before." I asked him when? He said, "last night or this morning rather, about two o'clock in the morning; he came in there and had some coats and he brought them from him. I asked him where they were, and he took me to the counter, and ~~below~~ the door that leads down to the cellar and also a place under the stairs and the coats were in there. I went in and I saw the coats. Was anything else in there?

a broom, a mop, and some things like that. Was it a closet or stairway? A stairway.

There was a broom and a mop and nothing else there except these three coats?

That is all I noticed. What sort of a store does the defendant keep there?

Candy, cigars and a pool table. How large is this store? I should think it was eighteen by thirty, perhaps about that size. Did you see any new clothing in there except these coats? No sir, none at all. Did you see any second hand clothing up anywhere as if for sale? Nothing at all. Did you have any other conversation with the defendant Mauver? Yes, I asked him how he got them? He said he bought them, he gave him two dollars and twenty five cents for the three coats. Did you notice that the coats were new? Yes. They had no buttons on them. Were they hanging in this place? Yes sir, hanging up - all three hung up together. In a bundle?

No, one on top of another on a nail.

By the Court. I understood you as saying that he said he bought them at two o'clock in the morning? About two o'clock in the morning I arrested him about six o'clock in the evening on the 5th of July.

The Case for the Defence.

Moritz Schlazenger, sworn and examined testified. Where do you live? No. 120 Lewis St. How long have you resided there? Since four years I bought the property. I lived there before. I am living twenty five years in the city. Do you know the defendant at the bar here? I know him since about twenty years ago when he came to this country I knew him. Do you know what his general reputation for honesty is, say 'yes' or 'no' to that? I never heard anything against it. He has a good reputation. Is it good or bad? Good. I never heard anything bad against him - never. You considered he was a good neighbor? A good hard-working man.

By Counsel. Marcus Weil, sworn and examined. What is your business? I am in the jewelry business. Where do you reside? No. 324 East Houston Street. Where is your place of business? The same place. How long have you resided there? For the last ten years. Are you in business for yourself? Yes sir. Do you know the defendant? Yes sir. How long have you known him? I know him for about sixteen years. What is his reputation among his neighbors for honesty? A good reputation.

You say that under oath? Yes sir You do not know anything about the case?

No sir.

Marty Seisler, sworn and examined.

Where do you live? No. 367 East Houston St.

What is your business? Cigar manufacturer.

Do you know the defendant at the bar? Yes sir.

How long have you known him? Seven or eight years.

Do you know what his reputation for honesty is? Yes sir. Is it good or bad? Good.

Solomon Maurer, sworn and examined.

Where is your place of business? No. 117

Pitt street. What do you keep there? A candy and cigar store and a pool room.

Do you know what you are accused of?

Yes. They say that you bought stolen property from thieves and that you knew that it had been stolen - did you know that it had been stolen? No sir. Would you have bought it if you had known it had been stolen? No. I would not.

Were you ever arrested in your life before? No sir, never.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty with a strong recommendation to the mercy of the Court.

Affidavit—Larceny.

City and County } of New York, } ss.

of No. 29 Nassau Street, aged 25 years, occupation Bank Messenger being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 23 day of Sept 1892 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property, viz:

Fifteen hundred and fifty six dollars and forty cents - good and lawful money of the United States the property of The National Bank of Commerce and in deponent's care and charge - deponent being in the employ of said bank and that this deponent

has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by William G. Mayo - for the reason that on said date deponent sent the defendant to the Southern National Bank to collect the above amount of money and to return the same to the National Bank of Commerce. deponent is informed by William H. Russell, Telling Teller of the Southern National Bank that on said date he paid the defendant the said sum of money. As defendant failed to return to deponent the said sum of money and has kept away from deponent's Bank - deponent charges the defendant with Grand Larceny and prays that he be apprehended and dealt with as the law may direct.
