Testimony in the case
of Thomas Mather
filed June

1882

The People vs. Thomas Magher
 Court of General Sessions. Part I
 Before Judge Lewis. July 10. 1882
 Indictment for assault and battery.

Jane Magher, sworn and examined, testified That is your name? Jane Magher. That is your baby? Yes sir. This is your husband? Yes sir. Now upon the 22nd of June, did he strike you? Yes sir. Now just tell the jury how he struck you? My husband was temperate for two years, and he went into a grocery store at 528 West Twenty ninth St.
 What is the name of the grocer? I think it is Mary Healey to the best of my opinion. Well then your husband came home full of whiskey? Yes sir. What did he do then? He turned and put my things out on the sidewalk - my furniture out. I says, "you should not do that when I have four children. He struck me I went into Mrs. Healey's and forbid her giving him more drink.
 I followed him into Mary Healey's and I found him drinking whiskey. There he struck me on the street with a kerosene lamp. Did he cut you? A little cut here (pointing to the head) Cut you in the head, that was in this city? Yes sir in 528 Twenty ninth St. By the Court. Is he your husband? Yes sir. Four children? Yes sir.

0535

This is the youngest? (pointing to the baby) Yes sir, they are all young, the eldest of them is only ten years old. Cross Examined. Where do you live? No 528 West Twenty ninth St. How many children have you got? Have got four all living? Yes sir. The prisoner at the bar is your husband and the father of your children? Yes sir. When he is working he gives me every cent he earns. And he works as a rule pretty steady a laboring man? Yes sir. What is the name of this woman who keeps the grocery store? Mrs. Healey to the best of my opinion. You were in Mary Healey's were you not? No sir. I went in after him several times. Did you not stay in Mary Healey's all night? No sir. Did you get any whiskey there? No sir. You were in Mary Healey's were you not several times? Yes sir. I went after him. Did you go into Mary Healey's and leave your children with him? No sir, I never left my children one hour and that can be proved by my neighbors. You do not want to send your husband up? No sir.

Thomas Mapher, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. Did you strike your wife that night? No sir.

Or at the time she alleges in this complaint? No sir. I did not. Cross Examined. You say you did not hit her? Never laid my hands upon her. Your wife says you struck her first when you put the furniture out and again at Mary Realey's with a gas lamp? She can say what she likes, I never laid my hands on her. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty. The defendant was remanded for sentence.
