o'clock in the night time of said day, one overcoat of the value of forty dollars

of the goods, chattels, and personal property of Albert Feistmann Albert Feistmann in the said dwelling house of one then and there being found in the dwelling house aforesaid, then and there feloniously did steal, take and carry away against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

~~JOHN M. KEON, District Attorney~~

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said Frank Jones and Thomas Riley of the CRIME OF RECEIVING STOLEN GOODS, committed as follows:

The said Frank Jones and Thomas Riley late of the Ward, City, and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, with force and arms, at the Ward, City, and County aforesaid, and overcoat of the value of forty dollars

of the goods, chattels and personal property of Albert Feistmann by Thomas McKeone and by certain ~~persons~~ ^{other} persons to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, then lately before feloniously stolen of the said Albert Feistmann unlawfully and unjustly, did feloniously receive and have (the said Frank Jones and Thomas Riley) then and there well knowing the said goods, chattels, and personal property to have been feloniously stolen), against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.
