in this action also the defendant
and the complainant's statement

conclusion which is contained by the complaint and by the conclusion can be obtained

the cure for the reason that the defendant's statement is Allaire of course took dinner many times with Banks. Banks paid for the dinners. Allaire told his wife and daughter that Banks was a Cuban, not wishing them to know that he was a Cuban. That he refused to have anything to do with the case against Banks until a warrant for his arrest was sworn out. That upon being arrested Banks denied having the metre, and then afterwards admitted having it and said that his partner Cuthbert Jones had put it down. Allaire accused Banks of attempting to seduce his daughter. Mrs Banks accused Banks of having had sexual intercourse with Allaire's daughter several times.

I know that there was a water metre in the cellar & a barrel in 507 W 52nd Street where Barker kept his material. it was there in June and July 1892. I first saw it in the shop 363 - 9th Ave. when I was leaving he said that metre is my personal property. He did not wrong me personally. I never knew him to steal anything. This metre was in the storeroom of Barker and ^{remained} there about six weeks. I and all the working men for Barks had access to that room. The metre was taken to Barks shop and displayed and offered for sale in Barks window. It was offered for sale about March 1892.

I never saw the victim in ~~any~~ shape.

I never knew there was one there.

I have no idea how it was taken away.

I do not know the name of the truck which carried it away. I do not know anything about the case

at all. I testified before the grand jury. I never had any conversation with Banks about this victim at all. When the inspector came around he told me it was false. It was about the 20th of June 1892. The name of the inspector I do not know. The victim was in 510 W 53rd Street in the cellar

the factory building. The inspector asked me what plumber I had work ing I said a man named Banks.

He said that if Banks was now in my employ and I said "no" He was discharged for general disobedience. He then also charged him for Bryson requesting him not to come round any more. When he worked for us he had no partner. I found that he was trying to elope with my daughter and that was how the murder found of his discharge. I have been out to dinner with Bumbo

 on several occasions with my wife and my relations with him were very friendly until the 22nd day of February. I found out I had not told my wife and my daughter that Bumbo was a Cuban because he told me so. I did not know any person in whose presence he told me. I first found out that he was born in Virginia
 after he was discharged.

I served time in Kings County
 Penitentiary for felonious assault.
 He sentenced me to four years & a half, twenty five years ago.
 I have never been arrested or convicted for any other crime. He did not stole the fixtures and other things about the six months previous to December 1st 1892. But ~~these~~ stolen goods discovered these stolen goods in defendant's possession, and he was discharged on that point to that, I went to the station house and got a certificate & they were returned. Made up my mind that Banks and not Stet the property and that possibly the electrician might have loaned them

to him, as he said.

Indictment filed July 8th 1892.

Indicted for grand larceny in the first degree.

N E W Y O R K, July 12th 1892.

APPEARANCES: For the People Asst. Dist. Atty. McIntyre.

For the defendant Mr. J. Oliver Keane.

James COWIE, a witness for the People, sworn, testified :

I am a compositor on the New York Times and employed in the night time . I live at No. 135 East 108th street. On the night of the 24th of June this year I was walking up the staircase of the elevated station at the corner of Bleecker St. and South Fifth Avenue. I had a gold watch , valued at eighty dollars in my pocket. I got up the first flight of steps, about eighteen steps in all, and the prisoner evidently was behind me. He said to me "Why did you stand on that lady's cross". Immediately with that he snatched the watch out of my pocket and I held on to the ring of the chain. I says "MY watch". He ran away. I pursued him about three blocks, calling "Police" and "Stop thief". I kept him in view from the time he took the watch until I caught him. He got out of his coat and ran away again. I caught him once more and turned him over to an officer.

JOHN BARRETT, a witness for the defendant, sworn, testified:

I have been employed for some time by H. P. Clendenning at No. 244 Ashompson Street. Previous to that I was employed by the Mutual Dist. Telegraph Co. I was never before arrested charged with any crime in my life. On the night of the 24th of June I was in company with this man Colletti. We were walking through So. 5th Avenue and I met a young lady friend of mine named Brophy near the steps of the elevated station. Suddenly while I was talking to her this Colletti ran up the steps of the elevated station. I looked up to see what he was going to do and in a second I saw this complainant running down the stairs after him. Colletti ran through Blocker Street, and I thinking it was a fight ran up after them to 3rd Street. I kept running until I got to the 4th Street park. Then the complainant came to me and accused me of taking the watch. I said to him "If the watch was taken it was Colletti that took it". I was arrested I told all my friends to see Colletti and try and get the watch back from the man. I never took the man's watch. I was not up on the steps of the elevated railroad as he said I was.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

I never was convicted of any crime in my life. I have been suffering with cardiac trouble lately and have not been able to work. I have known Colletti for about two years. I knew him to be a thief. When I found that out I quit his company. I was standing talking to a

CROSS EXAMINATION:

This happened at a quarter of eleven at night. I left my home at about ten o'clock in the morning and spent the most of the day around Bleecker Street. I went on an excursion up the Hudson River. I landed from the excursion at 21st Street N. R. and then came down to Bleecker Street. I was ascending the steps of the elevated road to go down to my work. The defendant was coming up the stairs behind me. I never assisted any other person but this defendant of taking my watch. There was nobody going up or down stairs except one lady at the time this defendant took my watch. I went to the Jefferson Market Police Court the next day but did not identify another man who was there because I was not positive.

FRANCIS O'ROURKE, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a police officer connected with the 30th precinct. I arrested the defendant on the 24th of June at the 4th Street park after chasing him about four blocks. I first caught sight of him at Third St. he was running. The complainant came up and told me that he was the man who had stolen his watch. The defendant denied taking it.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

I arrested a man named Colletti charged with this same larceny. I was informed by the complainant that present that Colletti had the watch. That is the person I arrested him. The complainant saw Colletti but failed to identify him as the man who took the watch and he was discharged.

young lady at the time I saw Colletti run up the stairs I was living with this young woman to whom I was talking but was not married to her. The reason I ran out of my coat was that I thought on account of my being in Colletti's company I might get arrested. The young lady who was with me said to me "If you get into a fight run out of your coat". I had never heard of Colletti. The young lady followed me up after I ran and she told me that while I was sitting talking to the complainant.

KATE BROPHY, a witness for the defendant, sworn, testified:

I live at No. 60 West Third Street in this city. I have been living with this defendant as he has testified. I am not married to him. I was talking to Barrett at the corner of Blacker St. and So. 5th Avenue on the night in question. I saw Colletti run up the stairs after him. When I came up on them I asked Barrett what was the matter and he said "I don't know". Then I told him if he was in a fight to slip his coat and run away. It was through me that he was away. I am a tobacco stripper by occupation. I have been around the defendant since looking for this man Colletti to get him to give up his watch. I never saw Colletti with the watch.

ORRIN O'ROURKE, recalled testimony being at the time of the arrest of Colletti and Barrett.

The jury returned a verdict of guilty of Grand Larceny of the watch.

Indictment filed July 13th 1892.

Indicted for grand larcen in the 2nd degree.

New York , July 22nd 1892.

APPEARANCES: For the People Asst. Dist. Atty. Jno.
F. McIntyre.

For the defendant Mr. H. Coleman.

NANNIE BRAGG, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live at 397 7th avenue in this city. At five o'clock on the afternoon of the 4th of July I went into the liquor store at the corner of 32nd street and 7th avenue. I went into a private box reserved for ladies in company with my friend Laura Hamilton . This defendant came into the private box . I said to my friend while we were drinking "Dont have anything to do with that man". He said to me "You need not be putting on airs about it" and then he commenced talking about horse racing and other matters . I did not say anything to him at all, as I did not want to talk w to the man . He then asked me what time it was and when I took -out my watch and told him. He son after went out and after he went I missed the watch. It out of my hand. There was nobody else in the box but the three of us.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

I had not been drinking before I went into this place. I generally do house work for a living. There was no one else in this private box who could have taken my watch but this defendant. I have known him for some time but have not had anything to do with him lately. I have only been in this saloon twice in my life. The chain attached to my watch could be seen by any person looking at me.

LILLIE HAMILTON, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a friend of the complainant. I was with her in the saloon named by her on the 4th of July. We went into a private box together to have a drink. While we were in there the defendant, Barrett, came in there. He said he was going to treat us. I told him he could treat us if he wished. He then began talking about race horses and sporting matters. He stayed there just long enough to have one drink and then he went out. He is the only person, save the bartender, who was in that private box during the time we were in there. A few minutes after he left my friend told me that she missed her watch. I did not see the man take it. I am certain that he is the only person that was near the complainant during the time we were in there. I saw him at one time putting his hands on her; she told him to keep away that she did not want to have anything to do with him.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

The last time I saw the watch before it was stolen was at the door of the saloon going in. We only remained long enough in the private box to have one drink and then went out. We were in the private box previous to this in company with a man named Randolph.

WILLIAM DIETCH, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a police officer attached to the 19th precinct in this city. On the 4th day of July this year I arrested the defendant on complaint of the complainant. I found him in the saloon at the corner of 32nd street and 7th avenue. He asked me what I wanted him for; I told him that this woman accused him of taking her watch. At first he denied knowing the lady at all, and said he did not take the watch. I took him then to the station house and when we arrived there and he was arraigned before the sergeant he admitted that he was drinking in this saloon with the woman. I searched him in the station house, but found nothing on him. He denied again taking the watch.

D E F E N C E.

The defendant's counsel asked the Court to take the case away from the consideration of the Jury on the ground that the evidence was insufficient to convict the defendant.

Motion denied. Exception.

The jury returned a verdict of guilty of grand larceny in the second degree.

Tried JULY 18TH, 1892.

Indictment filed JULY 13TH, 1892.

APPEARANCES:

ASSISTANT DISTRICT ATTORNEY BARTOW S. WEEKS,

For THE PEOPLE.

HUGH COLEMAN, ESQUIRE,

For THE DEFENCE.

PETER CARTER testified that he was attached to the 4th police precinct, and he searched the defendant on the 7th of July, 1892, in the Oak street station house, while the defendant was under arrest on a charge of disorderly conduct. He, the witness, found a slung-shot in the outside breast pocket of the defendant's coat.

In cross-examination the witness testified that the handle of the slung-shot was not sticking from the defendant's pocket. To the best of his knowledge, the article found on the defendant was a slung-shot or "black-jack."

In re-direct examination the witness testified that he had been on the police force for seven and a half years, and the slung-shot in evidence was what was generally known as a slung-shot.

FOR THE DEFENCE, HENRY BOOKER, THE DEFENDANT, testified that he was a sailor. He did not carry the instrument in evidence with the intention of using it upon any person.

In cross-examination the defendant testified that he had had the slung-shot in evidence in his possession for about a week. He made the slung-shot, on board ship, "just for foolishness." He had seen slung-shots before he made the one in evidence, but he had never seen one just like the one he had made.

the times hereinafter mentioned he resided at 319 E 37th Street in the City of New York;
that he was charged with and indicted for robbery in the first degree upon one Joseph Clym or Clymer of 235 E 30th St. in taking or attempting to take a large St Bernard dog.
That he was tried in the Court of General Sessions upon the said charge and was found guilty of assault in the third degree; that he was thereupon sentenced to the penitentiary
by the Hon Recorder Smyth on the 23^d of July 1892 for one year with the imposition of a fine of $150 and to remain in prison until said fine was paid not exceeding one day for each dollar. That as the result of good conduct, his time expired on the 29th day of May 1893, but owing to financial disability in not having the means to pay said $150 and not having friends who could raise said $150, he is unable to obtain his discharge. That up to the time of his arrest his general reputation for peace and ^{and honesty} quietness was good, and was testified to by reputable witnesses at the trial. That he is a printer by trade and can obtain steady employment so that he could support his wife and two children who have no means of making a living whatever. That he has always worked for a living and is able to work.

Wherefore he prays the Hon Recorder Smyth to remit the said fine of $150 so that he can obtain his discharge and get employment to support his family, and says that the lesson he has received by being imprisoned will stand as a guarantee for future good behavior.
