My dear Sir.

There is a young fellow called Harry Bennett in the Jefferson St. Prison New York city, charged with burglary. He may by the time this reaches you have been removed to the Tombs. He is the wayward son of a my dear friend of my wife. Bennett is not his real name. He has written his family for help. They are unable to help him. His mother is in extremely delicate health & his conviction would kill her. He says he is not guilty & if he could have a lawyer would be able to get free. They have appealed to me. I can only write you & ask if not too much trouble to get the name of any thing that can be done in his behalf. It is a case of charity & I think I appeal not in vain to your charitable impulses.

Bogert, of New Durham, in the State of New-jersey, to assist him in keeping the books of the said Company; that the said Bogert remained in his employment until about the last week in April, 1883, when deponent discharged him, not having any use for his services during the summer months, telling him that he would employ him again in the fall; that deponent had in his office a safe to which no one had the combination and access thereto but deponent and the said Bogert; that on the 3rd. day of May, 1883, deponent opened said safe for the first time since the said Bogert left his employ, and found that ~~Bogert had taken from said safe~~ one Ledger, one Transfer Book, one Cash Book, one book containing the names of the stockholders of said Company, one Certificate Book, one book containing the minutes of the said Company, bills, receipts, vouchers, and two Checque Books and stubs, the property of the said Company, were missing from said safe.

And deponent further says that the said Bogert has no claim whatever upon either him or the said Company, but refuses to deliver the property taken by him from the safe of the said Company unless he is paid the sum of three hundred dollars.

Lewis H. Bogert

New York, July 15th 1883

Hon. John McKean,
Dist. Atty. ec.
Syracuse:

In accordance with your request, I enclose you a copy of the receipt, which was given to me by Mr. Dulester, the Attorney of the Promontory Mining Co. when I returned to said Com. pany the books which Mr. Bogert had in his possession.

I would state that when I delivered said Books ec, there were present the President of the Co., Mr. Dulester, and Mr. Henry Altman, Secretary. (who made the complaint upon which the indictment in above case was found).

0227

All of these gentlemen stated to me that personally they had no desire to press the case against Mr. Bogert; that they had no ill feeling against him; but stated that they could and would do nothing to compromise the case; that the whole matter was in the hands of the Dist. Atty. and the Court; that they would be pleased to see the whole matter dropped so far as they and the company was concerned.

The Books etc. were handed to me to return by Mr. Bogert immediately upon my advising him so to do.

Yours Respectfully

A. S. Mann
Atty of Lewis H. Bogert.

My Dear Sir

I called at my Attorney's Office to give him the information I had received, but he was out of town and will not return until Monday next, so if you had come to N.Y. you would have had your journey for nothing. We have frightened Alton and his Crew, Switzer told Mr Williams to day that Alton had gone to Paris and would raise the money to pay me, and he asked Mr W if I would stay proceedings if I was paid my money, so you see they are afraid of something and I can not see how they can go on any farther with your case after this, if they do and I can be of any service I will only be too glad to assist you

Hoping you are quite well

I remain
Yours Sincerely

Hon John McKeon,

Dear Sir,

The indictment procured against Bigert is a malicious prosecution on the part of Alton

He procured my son to be President of the Promontory Company just to use my name

He used him and got him in debt $4,000 which I had to pay. It turned out afterward that half of the debt was his own. He borrowed of me $500 and gave me a worthless certificate as security which I afterwards found out he procured for the very purpose for a few dollars ($15) I have judgement against him

I send you two letters from Mr Charles Morgan he will personally explain to you how Alton was in Ludlow St Jail for swindling Mrs Haight and how he has swindled him.

I took my son out of his studies and then he tried to swindle Bigert. The Books were in my safe where Bigert had kept them for two years in Office of Company. The Company owed Bigert $565 and I told Bigert to tell Alton he would keep

There is an indictment in your Office handed down, among others, from your predecessor in office against Bogert for larceny. I was well acquainted with Mr. McKean and made a satisfactory explanation which satisfied ^{him} that the indictment ought not to be prosecuted.

Bogert was clerk in the Promontory Mining Company, of which my son was nominally, and Mr. Allen was treas. and had sole management of the concern. He borrowed $1500 of me under false pretences. I have judgment against him. I obtained an order for his examination and after sunrise he went off to Europe and is now there. It was upon his oath that the Indict. was found.

Bozart, as Clerk, had charge of the books. He was dependant on his salary for his living. Alton refused to pay him and he kept the books refused to give them up.

I could satisfy you, by other facts, that this is a mere prosecution. Alton has got the books and is off. Bozart's mother, an old lady, is much worried about this matter and I hope you may feel that it is not inconsistent with your duty, to discharge Bozart.

I think I ought to add, that being perfectly cognizant of all the facts, I affirm that Bogart was guilty of no crime, and that he was indicted upon evidence not warranted by the ^{true} facts of the case. He injured no one by taking ~~it~~ ^{or} rather keeping the books, and his only object was to secure the payment of an honest, hard earned debt, and of which there was no dispute as to its being due him.

Very Respectfully
