The People } Court of General Sessions. Part F.
August Eckart } Before Recorder Smythe. July 21. 1882.
Indictment for petty larceny from the person.
Charles Muller, sworn and examined, testified.
I am the complainant. I remember the 14th of July. I came to New York from Staten Island on the last boat 9 o'clock and got to New York about 10. I went through Greenwich St. and the prisoner followed me and asked me if I wanted to stay over night? I told him, "yes;" he said he wanted to show me a good house. I went and looked at it. I said, "all right." He asked me, "Want you treat me?" I gave him a glass of beer and a cigar. I had sixteen silver dollars.
I was tired. I worked the whole night pretty near.
I went to sleep with my pants and everything on in bed. In the morning when I woke up my money was gone. I went to the house keepers, Mr. and Mrs. Horne, I did not want to make a noise. I did not know who stole the money. I did not get my money back.
Cross Examined. I saw the money when I went to bed at 10 1/2 o'clock. I don't know who was in the room at the time; there were eight or ten beds in the room. I did not count them.
I got a bed near the door. I did not see the prisoner in the room when I went to bed. This money was in my pocket in my panitabans, which were on me. I have another witness. I could prove by the people that the prisoner did not work for the last two years; he is a loafer. I guess I met the prisoner about ten o'clock. He drank with me in the same house in which I had the bed. He is a loafer and a thief, besides, he stole more. I never saw the prisoner before that night.

0630

Augusta Horne, sworn and examined, testified. Do you know who keeps this place No 32 Greenwich St.? Mr. Horne. What kind of a place is it? A lodging house. Do you know the prisoner? Yes. Do you remember the night that Charles Miller was in the house? Yes sir. Did you see the prisoner that night? Yes sir. Tell us what it was that you saw? He got up three times out of his bed and went to the bedside of Charles Miller. Twice he was a ^{short} ~~time~~ time and the third time he stayed there ten minutes. What time was the last time that he went there? Between three and four o'clock in the morning. What did he do after he went there the last time? The last time he took the money she says. [The witness was partially examined through the interpreter.] Where did he go - did he go away? Then he went away. Was the prisoner had been sleeping there that night had he? Yes sir. He said to me that

0631

Miller had plenty of money and where he stayed he would stay too. Cross Examined: Now ask her what day was this? I think it was Friday, I am not sure. Where was she at four o'clock this morning? I was in my bed. Ask her is her bed in the same room that this man and the other man slept in? It is all one room. Is there any partition in the room? It is not a partition, it is only a piece of curtain which is around the bed. Does that go all around the bed? It is only on one side, so that the other people in the room cannot see where we sleep. Can she see out in the other room while she is lying in bed? Yes. Ask her if she was looking that morning and saw all this thing that happened? Yes sir. What time did the prisoner get up that morning? The first time he got up at 3 o'clock; he went through the room and went in the yard and when he came back he went to the bedside of this man; he just examined the man and saw where he had his money; the first time he only felt the man where he was in his bed, nothing else; the second time he went to the bed somebody was coming and he (the prisoner) went back to his bed; the third time he went to his bed and he stayed there ten minutes and then it was he took the money. I saw that. What did she do after she seen the man take the money? I did nothing, I laid still in bed because I had the fever and I was sweating. Her husband was there? Yes. Did she tell her husband about it? No. Ask her why she did not tell her husband of one of her lodgers being robbed? He goes to bed at one or half past one o'clock at night. I would not wake him as early as that in the morning. When did she first say anything about this thing? When this man Miller came to the bed and told us that he had been robbed. The prisoner did not pay anything for his lodging, she told him he could sleep there for nothing if he would get lodgers for her. Last winter he was in the house. Did you ever see him get up in the night before in your house? No sir. I did not see the prisoner get up at four o'clock every morning to go to market. I get up at 7 or 1/2 in the morning. Ask her if ~~there~~ she is awake every morning there? Yes sir. By the Court? Ask her if there was a light in that room that night? Yes sir in the front and in the rear. What kind, gas light or what? Kerosene oil lamps. Where was that Kerosene lamp? One in the front and one in the rear.

0632

0633

August Eckart sworn in his own behalf testified that he was a butcher; he did not take anything from the complainant. I get up at 4 in the morning to go to the Market. I did not go to the complainant's bed; there were twelve men and two women slept in that room that night. I was never arrested before.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of petty larceny from the person. He was sent to the State prison for two years and six months.
