The Complainant and defendant to my house from Europe about three years ago, and stayed with me for five weeks, then removed to Hamilton Street where they lived a year and short time after and said that her husband the defendant, had told her as he could not make a living for a while, that she had better go back home to Poland.

She went. She wrote several letters to him from Poland, which were my care, and I delivered several of them, until he disap-

I did not see anything more

The People } Court of General Sessions. Part I vs. } Before Judge Gilderdeere. Dec. 10. 1874.
 Frank Melon } Indictment for assault in first degree.
 Mr. Parker. The admission of the defence is as follows. That on or about the fourth day of Dec. inst., in this city and county, the defendant Frank Melon fired one shot from a revolving pistol at Robert C.
 Cushin wounding him in the right hand, and that the said act was done without provocation or justification on the part of said complainant.
 Counsel That is admitted by the defence.
 Mr. Parker. The people rest.
 Counsel Gentlemen: you have heard the admission made by the defence dictated by the District Attorney. I make that admission for the purpose of raising the issue here as to this man's mental responsibility at that time, and it will be put in evidence what it is now.
 Matthew Field, sworn and examined.
 I am a practicing physician in this city and have been nearly eleven years.
 I am the examiner in lunacy for the Department of Charities and Correction and I am a lecturer on mental diseases. I have examined the defendant professionally on two occasions, on the 6th and on the 9th.

Will you state to the jury what the result of your examination was with reference to his mental capacity or incapacity? I found him to be insane. There was very much mental confusion. He had had delusions for a long time, and delusions upon what we term hallucinations. He heard voices and experienced sensations which were peculiar. These were explained to himself - on theories of mind reading - mesmerism, trans-mesmerism and trans-clairvoyance. He employs those terms. He has been to Inspector Byrne in 1888 about this matter, and after consulting with a detective, they advised him, he says, to visit a physician, which he did, and he went to Fowler and Wells and got their works on the subject of these things. Then he tells me about this affair that he had boarded over two years ago in the house of Mr. Cushman for a short time - at least had a room there, and never had seen, or at least had any relations with Mr. Cushman at all; but from some resemblance in the voice which he heard he thought that Mr. Cushman was the man who was at the bottom of this, who had him mesmerized and kept him under this influence. These disturbing voices would not permit him to do his work, it disturbed him, he could not perform his work as a draftsman properly and has not been able to sleep for two years. He went on this morning to Mr. Bushins' house to have an accounting with him, he says, he asked him about the matter, and then the shooting took place.

Doctor, as the result of your examination of the prisoner can you tell the jury whether at the time of the commission of this assault he was sane or insane? I think he has been insane for a long time. Q. And he was insane at that time? Yes sir.

By Mr. Parker Do you think he had sufficient control of his mind or reasoning faculties to be able to distinguish as to the nature of his acts whether right or wrong? No sir. I do not. I may say that the story I have given is more connected than he gave. His statements are very confused. What I have stated is more connected than he gave.

Allen Fitch, sworn and examined. I am a practicing physician in this city for ten years. I have made a study of mental diseases. I have examined the prisoner in reference to his mental capacity on two occasions. I found him to be insane.

Q Can you tell whether that condition existed at the time of this assault? Yes in my opinion it existed for about two years.

Q And if this man were put upon his trial as he is now on this indictment could he intelligently instruct me as to his defence? I do not think he could. He admits that he shot Cushin. He says that he (Cushin) had a spiritualistic and mesmeric influence over him and that he had formed a conspiracy with twelve or thirteen others, and that his voice followed him about from time to time and they had an influence which he calls second sight and mind reading and they persecuted him continually and that these voices would not let him work, which were undoubtedly hallucinations of hearing; that he went into this man's place and asked him if he was a spiritualist? and the man said he was where-upon he assaulted him without any question. He thinks telephones have been used upon him, and that he has been the subject of a conspiracy of which this man Lushin was the head. I do not believe he has sufficient control of his reasoning faculties to distinguish right from wrong in respect to any particular act and I do not believe he had at the time this occurred. I think he still has these hallucinations and delusions. Taking into consideration the fact that they have lasted for two years I rather think as if there is not a good chance for his recovery. He is liable to commit such acts again.

The jury rendered a verdict of not guilty on the ground of insanity!

He was sent to the Hudson River Hospital for the Insane at Poughkeepsie.
