The People v. Isaac<sup>vs</sup> Kemp Court of General Sessions. Part I.
Before Judge Cowing Nov. 10. 1887
Indictment for grand larceny.

Bunnie Glist sworn. On the 12th of Oct. about eight o'clock in the evening I was in Delancey st. I was coming from the dressmaker. I wanted to go in Second st. with my little girl. I had a pocket book in my pocket. We wanted to pass Essex near Delancey st.; we were stopped by a crowd of boys; we were waiting for them to give us a chance to pass. I noticed something rattling in my pocket. I did not have a chance to ~~turn~~ round; all the boys commenced to run. I says, "My pocket book is gone." The boys commenced to halloo, "Stop thief." I ran after them. A man caught the prisoner. I could not swear if it was that boy stole my pocket book there was so many of them. The man brought the prisoner to the Station House and I went with them. They searched his pockets, and he did not have the pocket book. I saw officer Reap in the station house. The prisoner said in the station house he did not have my pocket book, but when he was taken to the Essex Market Court he said he took my pocket book and threw it away. I saw him sign his name to the paper.

0661

Michael J. Reap sworn. I am an officer of the 11th precinct. I recollect the 12th of Oct. when the prisoner was brought in the station house by a citizen who said he lived in Trenton, N. J.; the complainant was also there. The citizen said he heard the lady cry, "stop thief," and he saw the boy running and he caught him. That this woman said she thought it was him took the pocket book as he was nearest to her. I locked him down, and the next morning going to Court he told me he did take the pocket book, that he threw it in the gutter and one of the boys picked it up; he would not tell me what boy it was. I took him to Court and I saw him sign the statement shown to me. The Magistrate told the Clerk to inform the prisoner of his rights, and the affidavit was read over to him before he signed the paper. Cross Examined. I heard the prisoner say in the station house in the presence of the lady that he did not take the pocket book. I did not say to him, "It is best for you to say that you took it (the pocket book), you will get out of the case so much easier, and nothing like it. He would not tell me which of the boys picked up the pocket book."

0662

Isaac Kemp, sworn and examined on his own behalf testified. I will be sixteen years old next Christmas, I live at 30 Ludlow St. with my father and mother; my father is in the fish business corner of Ludlow and Mester Sts. The night the lady says she lost her pocket book I was on the corner of Essex and Hoxton Sts. going home; there was a lot of boys running in the street and they hid. A young gentleman came over to me and he grabbed hold of me and took me to the station house and said I took the lady's pocket book. I told him I did not take it, I knew nothing about it. That was in front of the lady. I was locked up for the night. In the morning officer Reap came to the cell, and in taking me to Essex Market he asked me if I took the lady's pocket book? I said, "No." He said to me, "The best thing for you if you want me to get you out, you plead guilty and I will get you out." I did not know, I thought he would get me out and I pleaded guilty. They told me to sign my name to the paper and I signed it. I did not take the pocket book. I was not with any crowd of boys, I was returning home after delivering a package of dry goods to a lady. I worked for my uncle who keeps a dry goods store. Cross Examined I was sent from the Special Sessions to the House of Refuge by my mother for playing hooky and not going to school in 1885, and she got me out of it in a year. I work for my uncle and I also help my father in the fish business. The officer told me the best way I can get out is to plead guilty. He said I should say I took the pocket book and threw it away.

Officer Reap was recalled and testified that he never told the boy anything of the kind. Augusta Kemp, the mother of the defendant testified that she had him put in the House of Refuge because he would not go to school, and that he had helped her brother in law in the dry goods business and his father also in the fish business. Since he has been out of the House of Refuge he has been a good, honest boy.

Abraham Kemp was also examined and testified to the same effect.

Samuel Rosensweig testified that he kept a dry goods store at 50 West St., that he knew the defendant to be an honest boy.

Officer Reap was recalled and testified that the defendant associated with Thieves.

The prisoner pleaded guilty to petty larceny and was remanded for sentence.

Joseph, G. A. Kidd, residing at No 63 Fleet Place, Brooklyn makes the following statement of his own free will and accord;

I was employed as porter by Wheeler Parson and <sup>Madden Lane this city</sup> ~~Harper~~, Jewellers, July 1881, and have worked for said firm ever since. A watchmaker, named <sup>1883 or</sup> ~~Dunn~~, in 1884, was employed who instructed me how to melt gold by the above firm, I frequently went to my employers place very early in the morning and at Dunn's solicitation, would build a charcoal fire and would melt gold chains, and ~~the~~ Dunn would dispose of them by selling them for old gold. I sold them only on two occasions. This stealing was carried on for about a year, when Dunn left. I have no idea where he is now. And since that time I have continued to melt gold chains, rings &c and sell it for old gold. up to the present time. During the period of my stealing I have taken in the vicinity of about fifty gold chains, and about one hundred gold rings which I melted and sold for old gold. I have taken from or five sets of ladies breast pins and earrings. I have also taken about 10 pairs of gold bracelets and sold them to various persons, whose names I cannot now recall. The chains and rings stolen by me and melted by me were sold to John Leonard a Jeweler at 142 Fulton St this City, excepting two or three lots, <sup>which</sup> I sold to Lahman & Son Assayers at No 9 John St. Dunn, was the man who taught me how to melt gold.

The above is a true statement as near as I can recollect of the property stolen from the above <sup>by me</sup> and the disposition made of it. Joseph G. Kitt

Joseph G. A. Kidd, of 63 Fleet Place, Bklyn, makes the following statement of his own free will and accord; In addition to the statement made by me to Inspector Thos Byrnes, Oct 8th 1887, I desire to state that while in the employ of Wheeler, Parsons and Bangs, Jewelers, No 2 Maiden Lane New York City, I took about one dozen gold masonic pins, without the knowledge of my employers, some of which I have sold, and the remainder, I have in my trunk at the above No 63 Fleet Place, Bklyn. The gold chain, attached to the watch found in my possession at the time of my arrest by Detective Sergeant Geo H. McBluskey, was feloniously taken from my employers place of business No 2 Maiden Lane New York City, without their knowledge by me, about two weeks ago; About Sept 5th 1887 I took three or four, gold rings with small stones therein and sold them. I do not think I have taken more than ten pairs of ~~my~~ bracelets which are now in my trunk at my residence. ~~The~~ I have also set sets of jewelry consisting of breast pins, <sup>and</sup> two <sup>plated</sup> gold chains, in my trunk at my residence which were stolen by me from my employers. I desire to correct the statement made Oct 8th 1884, to Inspector Thos Byrnes, so far as relates to the number of rings and chains stolen by me from my employers. I have taken in all about two or three hundred chains which were melted by me and sold <sup>for</sup> old gold, I have also taken in the vicinity of about six hundred plain gold rings, which I also melted and sold for old gold. I usually ~~got~~ arrived at my employers place of business very early in the morning and would take a piece of charcoal and dig it out so that it would hold a chain or three or four rings, which I would had taken during the previous day. I would then insert the jewelry in the piece of charcoal and by means of a blow pipe melt the jewelry which I would sell for as old gold and appropriate the same to my own use.

:Jury.

Indictment filed October 20th 1887.

New York, October 26th 1887.

APPEARANCES: For the People Asst. Dist. Atty. Purdy

For the defendant, J. H. Walsh, Esq.

O. WHEELER, a witness for the People, testified:

I am a manufacturing jeweller and a wholesale dealer in jewelry. I have been in business since 1853. I know the defendant ; he was a porter in my store. I see the chain which you han d me; it weighs foty one penny weights and a half. It is worth thirty one dollars and some cents.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

This gold in this chain is worth sixty four cents
a penny weight; thir cen carat gold is only worth sixty cents a penny weight; I am positive this is fourteen carat gold .

2

HENRY P. DONNELLY? a witness for the People, testified:

Old gold is worth 56 cents a penny weight; that is for fourteen carat gold; if gold is new it is worth more.

Cross Examination:

If I was selling this chain which is shown me I should not think of asking less than thirty five dollars for it .

D e f e n c e

MARY E. KIDD? for the defendant, testified:

I accompanied my husband's attorney to the assay office and also to Mr. Beck's on Maiden lane; he gave us his opinion of the price of that chain . My husband has never been arrested before .

The jury returned a verdict of GUILTY of Grand Larceny in the second degree .

New York General Sessions.

The People vs against Joseph G. A. Kidd.

City County and State of New York ss.

Joseph G. A. Kidd being sworn says that if a new trial is granted him he can produce the evidence of Mr. Beck an expert in gold and a chainmaker doing business at No 10 Liberty Place in the City of New York that the chain alleged to have been stolen was not a fourteen Karat chain but was probably a twelve or thirteen Karat chain and its value was therefore less than twenty-five dollars. That said evidence would probably change the verdict to one of petit larceny. That such evidence has come to defendants knowledge since the trial of his case is not cumulative and his failure to produce the same is not due to want of diligence.
